Hundreds of workmen will start for Vladivostok tomorrow.

TOGO TO OPEN WITH TORPEDOES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The general opinion of military experts connected with the New York newspapers is that Togo will not make a general attack upon the Russian fleet until he is within easy distance of a Japanese naval base, when the Japanese ships, if any are injured, can easily be repaired.

It is also thought that Togo will make an attack upon the Russian fleet with his torpedo boats, which are believed hovering near the Russian fleet. This is expected hourly.

LONDON, April 19.—The British public is only now beginning to realize how much depends on Togo's successful conduct of the approaching naval contest. Until Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky actually arrived in the Straits of Malacca there was a disposition to ridicule the efforts of the Russian squadron, but now that there is seen to be a growing likelihood of Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff joining Rojestvensky before the fatal struggle opens, interest is deepening.

According to the Tokio correspondent of a news agency, a momentous war conference, lasting five hours, was held there Wednesday, attended by the Elder Statesmen, the Premier and ministers. It is not difficult to conjecture the nature of the deliberations.

Tokio correspondents state that Japan has addressed a protest to France on the Russian second Pacific Squadron's presence in Kamranh Bay, but that France has not yet replied. The Telegraph's correspondent at Tokio declares that a Japanese fleet is ready to sail for Kamranh Bay.

The Telegraph's Hongkong correspondent states that two steamers which passed close to Kamranh Bay Sunday report that no Russian vessels were then visible. No news, however, has yet reached London to show that Russians left Kamranh Bay, and it is assumed that they are still there.

The Post, commenting on the situation, contends that it is a matter of importance, considering Great Britain's world-wide naval interests, to endeavor to secure a more definite agreement on the question of the controversy on use of neutral waters by belligerents.

MAY CALL IN ENGLAND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, April 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is stated that Japan has made a strong protest to France against the Baltic fleet staying in Kamranh Bay, French Indo-China. It is strongly felt here that France is actively assisting the Russians within what is practically the zone of hostilities.

The expected advent of the Third Russian Pacific squadron into the China Sea, in about a week, strengthens the opinion that the situation is one of exceeding gravity, so far as the French neutrality is concerned, and that it may force Japan to avail herself of her alliance with Great Britain, which provides, in the event of Japan being attacked by any two powers, Great Britain is bound to assist her.

The Elder Statesmen and members of the Cabinet held a conference today which lasted five hours.

SEVERE SKIRMISHES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There has been some severe skirmishing at Kilju, in Northern Korea, where numerous Cossack detachments are scouting. Large Russian forces are stationed along the northern Korean frontier.

JAPS OCCUPY TUNGWA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Headquarters reports the occupation, Saturday, by a Japanese force, of the town of Tungwa, near the Korean frontier, about fifty miles east of Hingking.

PROTEST SENT TO FRANCE?

FREQUENT VIOLATIONS OF NEUTRALITY JAPAN'S COMPLAINT.

Report That Rojestvensky is Still in Kamranh Bay, from Whence He is Maintaining Patrol and Examining Neutral Shipping, Greatly Increases Irritation at Tokio.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 19.—A special to the Daily News from Tokio says: "At a conference of the Elder Statesmen and the principal Cabinet ministers today, a strongly-worded protest was sent to France regarding its frequent violations of neutrality in providing shelter for and rendering assistance to Russia's Baltic fleet, at Madagascar and now in Kamranh Bay. No answer has as yet been received from the French authorities."

IRRITATION INCREASING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, April 19, 5 p.m.—Although not reported directly, it is believed that the Russian Second Pacific Squadron continues the occupation of Kamranh Bay, or some other port of Anam, where it is expected to remain until joined by the Third Russian Pacific Squadron.

The report that Admiral Rojestvensky is maintaining a patrol and examining neutral shipping off Kamranh Bay increases the irritation toward France for permitting the use of that port as a base of operations. The Japanese government continues silent regarding the representations on this subject which have been made to France. The press, however, continues the agitation against France, demanding vigorous action.

LONG STAY IN BAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, April 19.—A dispatch to a news agency from Tokio says: "Information received here is taken to indicate that the Russian squadron proposes staying at Kamranh Bay until May 7. Admiral Rojestvensky meanwhile sending out cruisers to overhaul merchantmen proceeding along the trade route to the Straits of Formosa. The transports accompanying the Russian squadron are reported to by plying between Kamranh Bay and Saigon, under the merchant flag of Russia."

SUNDAY SHOULD SEE GREAT NAVAL COMBAT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Thursday, April 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Tokio declares that Togo is to sail at once for Kamranh Bay and engage the enemy. The decision that the Japanese admiral should take the initiative and force the fighting was arrived at after a five-hours' momentous conference, of the Elder Statesmen, the Premier and the Cabinet.

At this conference, the likelihood of the Russian squadron remaining in the shelter of the friendly French Cochin-China port until joined by Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff was considered as a new and much greater danger.

The attitude of the French government in thus giving shelter to Rojestvensky was declared a matter for serious after-consideration, but instant action on the navy's part was deemed imperative. The order was, therefore, forwarded to Togo at his rendezvous to gather his fleet and sail for Kamranh Bay and force the fight.

On the supposition that the Japanese main fleet is in rendezvous at the Pacadore Islands and that Rojestvensky is at Kamranh Bay, which is 600 miles distant, across the China Sea, the Japanese admiral should reach the scene of action in less than three days. Sunday should see a battle.

ROW AMONG IROQUOIS.

Biggest Democratic Organization in the West Split Up Over Invitation to the President.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A row has broken out in the Iroquois Club, the biggest Democratic organization in the West, and second only to Tammany, because all members of the organization were not consulted when the invitation was extended to the President to be the guest of honor at the club's banquet, the latter part of next month. The wave of discontent is becoming so widespread among the radical members that there are hints that the invitation will be recalled. This, however, is scouted by the men responsible for the invitation.

As Mayor Dunne, leader of the radicals, has put his stamp of approval on the project, this is expected to win over the protesting ones. The knowledge that not all was serene in the Iroquois camp caused smiles among members of Republican clubs, though the latter declared they had no doubt the Democratic organization would proceed along its original plans and give the President the "time of his life" at the Auditorium.

RIDER HAGGARD SAILS.

Before Returning to the "Right Little Tight Little Isle" He Discusses American Socialism.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rider Haggard, who came to this country to investigate the Salvation Army colonies and similar communities in this country, sailed today. In reply to a question regarding his opinion upon municipal ownership, Haggard said that in this country, where there is so much freedom from tradition and freedom of thought, it is not surprising to hear municipal ownership advocated.

The conversation turned to socialism. Haggard did not attempt to explain the reason for what he said was the growing socialistic tendency in this country, but commented on the rapidity with which such ideas were gaining ground here.

JEFFERSON IMPROVING.

High Hopes for Recovery of Celebrated Actor are Now Held Out—Stoddard Also Better.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WEST PALM BEACH (Fla.) April 19.—At 9 o'clock Joseph Jefferson is reported improving. High hopes of his recovery are held out. At a late hour the statement was made that Mr. Jefferson was much better, and would survive the night. He took grape fruit at noon, and asked that he be given some soup.

STODDARD ALSO BETTER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GALT (Ontario) April 19.—J. H. Stoddar, the veteran actor, who was stricken with nervous prostration here some time ago, and who, it was thought, would die, is steadily improving. He will be removed to his home in New Jersey in a week or ten days.

NEW YORK'S LIGHTING.

Mayor McClellan and Comptroller Grout Testify in Regard to Contracts.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Executive Committee which is investigating lighting conditions in New York City, called Mayor McClellan and City Comptroller Grout to the witness stand today, and they testified as to their action on the various lighting contracts that have been made during the terms they have been in office. It developed during the testimony that contracts amounting to $380,000 had been awarded to the Gaffney-Murphy firm without competition. It was denied that the contracts were so let because the name of Murphy was associated with the concern. It was claimed that the gas company did not know the Murphy in the contracting company was a brother of Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall.

Comptroller Grout testified at some length as to his action on various lighting contracts, and declared that after a thorough investigation of the whole matter, he was convinced that the city's only remedy was to build its own lighting plant.

Mayor McClellan told of the administration's efforts to secure legislation for a municipal lighting plant, and said he hoped his successor in office would see such a plant in operation.

CHINESE ATTACK DOWIEITE.

One of John Alexander's Missionaries Badly Used up in Fracas Near Shanghai.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SHANGHAI, April 19.—A Dowieite missionary named Kennedy, recently rented for mission work a native building in the village of Tsungli, about four days' journey from Shanghai. At midnight April 12 100 Chinese armed with swords and wearing blouses marked "the people's volunteers" attacked the house, wounding several Chinese, striking Kennedy on the head, leaving him apparently dead, and looting all his goods. A messenger who left the scene early the next morning reported that Kennedy was still breathing and later advices give hopes of his recovery.

Acting United States Consul Davidson promptly dispatched Vice-Consul Cloud with twenty native soldiers to Tsungli to prevent any further outrage.

WASHINGTON ADVICES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The following cablegram was received at the State Department today from Vice-Consul-General Davidson, at Shanghai, dated today: "Kennedy, a Dowie missionary, was attacked by Chinese at Tsungli, village in Hangchow district, Cloud investigating."

There have been vague rumors of disturbances and anti-foreign feeling similar to that which led to the Boxer uprising of 1900, but no official advices have come to the State Department to verify these. If Mr. Cloud finds that there is any danger of a general uprising in that quarter, the Chinese government will be immediately called upon to take steps to protect the missionaries.

ROASTING OF HYDE.

Agents Demand His Resignation.

Only Seventeen of Those Who Attend the Meeting Give Him Their Support.

Committee of Five is Sent to Ask Him to Quit but He Will Refuse.

Tarbell Praises Alexander to Hotel Crowd—Obstinacy of Knowles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Globe says:

"After a violent meeting, in which the most bitter invective was used against James Hazen Hyde, the general agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, amid most exciting scenes this afternoon at the Savoy Hotel, adopted resolutions calling for his immediate resignation, and a committee of five was sent to the offices of the society to demand it. Before the committee reached No. 120 Broadway, Hyde was called up on the telephone, and through his secretary declared that under no consideration would he accede to their demand. Hyde waited at his office half an hour past the time set for the committee to face him. Then he said: 'I haven't seen the committee; I haven't seen the resolutions, but I want to say that I consider them impertinent, extraordinary, insulting and improper. I have no intention of resigning.'

"Hyde then left for home before the committee arived. Only seventeen men out of two hundred and ten at the meeting supported the young millionaire, and they were swept off their feet by the violence of his opponents. During the whole session, Vice-president Gage E. Tarbell was in touch with the meeting through his lieutenants, receiving reports and directing the storm that was swelling against Hyde.

"A resolution inspired by the Alexander-Tarbell faction was proposed, condemning Hyde for misuse of funds, mismanagement of the society's affairs and on half a dozen other scores. It was couched in language so strong that some of the more conservative agents present opposed it. Over this there was furious debate, the reports of which filled the corridors outside the place of meeting. When a vote was taken, Hyde's cause, so far as the agents were concerned, was hopelessly lost."

TALK IN HOTEL CORRIDORS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—General agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society met again today to discuss the society's affairs and the advisability of forming a permanent organization of the general agents for mutual support and protection. Before the meeting began the corridors of the Hotel Savoy were crowded with groups of agents, discussing the over night developments in the controversy including the letter from James H. Hyde to James W. Alexander concerning checks for underwriting profits sent by Hyde to Alexander; the letter from Alexander to Chairman Frick of the investigating committee, and Alexander's reply to Hyde.

The agents also talked over with considerable excitement a statement made by Henry Knowles, until a few days ago superintendent of the agencies of the Equitable, to the effect that the society's troubles had been caused by Alexander and Vice-president Tarbell in an effort to oust Hyde from the first vice-presidency, and to have Tarbell succeed Alexander when the latter should retire from the presidency.

Knowles, who was suspended from his position Monday last on the charge of insubordination, after forty years' employment with the society, also declared that the present meeting of general agents was a "snap affair," arranged in the interest of Messrs. Alexander and Tarbell. Many of the agents today denied emphatically that the meeting had been arranged in anybody's favor, and said that the gathering was a representative one, with no object except the welfare of the society and the removing of existing influences, which, they say, have made the work of soliciting agents exceedingly difficult.

Tarbell made a statement today in which he said that President Alexander had never thought of resigning. This idea, he said was ridiculously preposterous, "because he is the one man in this country eminently fitted for that position," and that he would have and he will hold it until he dies. Tarbell also praised Alexander's integrity, and said he had made the society's interests his life work. The statements of Tarbell were cheered by a crowd of general agents who were present.

Knowles, the former superintendent of agencies, made another statement today, in which he charged that Second Vice-President Tarbell had shifted men about, discharging some and appointing others, so that he might control the agents and managers for the Alexander interests. When this statement was shown to Tarbell, he denied it flatly.

"It is absolutely false, in toto," he said.

It was expected that Mr. Tarbell would be asked to attend the meeting today and tell what he knows of the Knowles statements.

A friend of President Alexander made a statement today in reply to the charges of Knowles, as follows:

"So far as Mr. Knowles's statement is concerned, it calls for no reply from Mr. Alexander, whose position in the matter is very simple. Mr. Knowles, who is one of the society's many superintendents, disobeyed point-blank orders of the president, which were that he go South and take charge of an agency made vacant by death. Mr. Knowles was suspended, pending an investigation of his action. It was not for Mr. Knowles to raise any question as to whether or not he should go; it was simply his duty to obey orders.

"As for James H. Hyde and associates, it would be seen from Mr. Alexander's latest letter to Mr. Hyde that he (Alexander) knows very little about the syndicate and its members, while Mr. Hyde knows all about it, and has the data relating thereto in his possession."

Regarding the intimation that "Third Vice-President Wilson was kept away from yesterday's meeting of the agents," President Alexander's friend pointed out that Wilson is connected with the foreign agencies of the society, and had no business at any of the domestic meetings.

The first session of the meeting was completed this afternoon. The session was secret. Although no official statement was given out, it was reported that the general agents of the Equitable adopted a resolution calling on Hyde to resign his position with the society, and also that a committee of five had been appointed to call on Hyde at once and present the demand for his resignation.

ACTION IN OHIO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

COLUMBUS (O.) April 19.—D. E. Williams, an attorney, today applied to the State Insurance Commission to oust the Equitable Life Assurance Society from doing business in this State. The commission refused to take such action, on the ground that the society had done nothing to cause its ousting. Williams refused to state for whom he was acting.

HYDE RETAINS CHOATE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Times tomorrow will say: "James H. Hyde, it was learned yesterday, has retained Joseph Choate, the returning American Ambassador, as one of his legal advisers in the Equitable controversy."

MEET HYDE TODAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—Late tonight announcement was made that the Agents Committee appointed to wait on Hyde and present the resolutions asking his resignation had arranged to meet him tomorrow morning at his home at 9 o'clock. Hyde attended the theater tonight, and the agents held no further conferences.

The agents went into session at 11 o'clock this morning, and it was 3 o'clock before a recess was taken for lunch. During all the time loud talking and occasional interruptions of speakers indicated that there was a warm debate over some question under consideration. Later it was learned the discussion concerned the Hyde resolution.

The letter prepared by the agents for presentation to Mr. Hyde says:

"We, the agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, representing many thousands of the policy holders of the society, respectfully request that you, because of the hurtful notoriety you have achieved and for the good of the society, which you ought to love, and for the memory of your father, which you must revere, discontinue your connection as an officer of the society."

When it was seen by the radicals that they were alienating more votes than they cared to have counted against them on a show of hands they gave over and the letter as adopted was the result.

It was almost 4:30 o'clock when the agents again went into session, and the latter part of the day's meeting was more peaceful than that earlier in the day. It was said that in the earlier assemblage all but seventeen of the agents had voted to request Hyde's resignation. The number voting for the resolution is said to be 193. None of the agents would affirm or deny this, but there were several wordy squabbles over accusations made, but no one has given out the information. One of the most interesting developments of the late session today was the adoption of the following resolution:

"Whereas, it has been persistently suggested in the public press that the agents are for mutualization because they seek to acquire full or partial control of the society by acquiring proxies; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the general agents of the society in convention assembled, do hereby declare that we do not ask nor will we seek for ourselves for any part of the control of the Equitable, but demand that, through the policyholders, this shall be so vested as best to conserve their interests, without the confidence of whom we cannot exist in this business."

At the later session a permanent organization was formed, and a committee named to go to Albany Friday to petition the insurance commissioner and Gov. Higgins to urge the mutualization of the society. Among those on the committee are A. M. Shields, San Francisco; F. B. Wilcox, Boise City, Idaho; Wyman Ellis, Helena, Mont.; L. Samuel, Portland, and C. F. Kutenewsky, Salt Lake.

After the appointment of this committee, it was decided that it would be advisable to form a permanent organization and the Committee on Permanent Organization of the "National Association of Managers" was named. C. M. Edwards is chairman.

A committee was named to bring President Alexander and Second Vice-President Tarbell before the committee, to thank them for the hospitality received at their hands. Alexander said he could not express his great pleasure and love for the agents, who had so magnificently upheld his action and had expressed their confidence in him. Tarbell spoke of his twenty-five years' connection with the society and of his twelve years' pleasant relations with the agents.

CURE, PROMISED REFORMS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VIATKA (European Russia) April 19.—The local zemstvo has passed a resolution which will be forwarded to the government, to the effect that the only means of quieting the people is to inaugurate immediately the promised reforms, namely, convocation of a representative assembly and granting liberty of the press and of meetings, etc.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19.—The circulation of revolutionary literature among the troops throughout Russia has now spread to the regiments of the Imperial Guards. A general order has been issued to the Guards forbidding them to "read proclamations thrust into your hands in the streets or in your lodgings, or to listen to those allies of Japan."

It is understood the extension of the zemstvo system to Siberia will be followed by a similar extension to the Caucasus and to Poland. Stinchonsky, formerly chief adjutant to the Russian Interior Department, and Von Plehve, son of the late Interior Minister, have been made members of the Goremykin Commission, appointed to discuss questions relating to peasant tenure of lands.

The plea at Moscow yesterday of Kaleieff, who was sentenced to death for the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius, that a state of civil war existed in Russia and that he was a prisoner of war and not an ordinary prisoner accused of crime, is considered here to indicate the position which the terrorists will assume hereafter. Naturally such a position is not acknowledged by the government. Kaleieff having been tried by a special commission of the Senate, against which there is no appeal, will be hanged, probably within a fortnight.

The report that Baron De Rosen, formerly Russian Minister at Tokio, will succeed Count Cassini, Russian Ambassador to the United States, is not confirmed at the Foreign Office.

ROJESTVENSKY HUGS THE SHORE.

ADMIRAL TRAIN'S SHARP EYE SPIES OUT THE RUSSIANS.

American Commander in Philippine Waters Careful to Prevent Baltic Squadron from Taking Liberties Within His Jurisdiction—Japan Intensely Angered at France.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rojestvensky's ships still hug the shores, if not actually the ports of French Indo-China, Admiral Train reports to the Navy Department, except the fast cruisers, which the Russian fleet's commander has sent out to prey upon Japanese commerce.

Togo's ships are lying in wait, it is believed, somewhere near Formosa. Admiral Train has carefully posted warships to prevent the Baltic squadron from surreptitiously seizing a naval base in his jurisdiction, trying to steal through some convenient Philippine channel into the Pacific Ocean, violation of the United States neutrality in any other way, or provoking a naval battle in American waters. He has taken the greatest care in distributing his vessels, because various straits in the Philippines offer convenient passage into the Pacific Ocean to the Russian fleet and because France's seeming indifference to Rojestvensky's prolonged stay in a French port, as reported, has intensely angered Japan.

Admiral Train cables daily to the Navy Department what he learns of the movements of both the Russian and the Japanese fleets.

The Department regards these dispatches as confidential. Only one has been made public—that which announced the arrival of the Russian hospital ship Orel at Saigon. The young naval officer who told of this also betrayed Admiral Train's deductions that the fleets might soon meet in battle in Yankee waters. The indiscreet officer's superior told him he might as well have sent a copy of the dispatch to the Japanese legation.

All the ships which Admiral Train has posted, except the battleship Wisconsin, are small gunboats, but they carry the flag. The American vessels form a chain around the Philippine waters, which either belligerent will be most likely to visit. It is particularly significant that the Wisconsin is stationed at Olangapo. Here is the only harbor outside Manila, which big battleships of either fleet could enter. If left uncovered, the Russian ships could enter there, remain more than twenty-four hours and coal leisurely in calmest waters. With the Wisconsin at Olangapo Bay, the order Train could give could be enforced. She is the fastest of the American armored ships in the Far East. She could fight, or run down to Manila for reinforcement in either emergency.

EASY TO OBSERVE HOSTILES.

REAR-ADMIRAL TRAIN REPORTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Rear-Admiral Train, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic Squadron, has reported to the Navy Department by cable that the Pargua is at Jolo, the Mindoro at Polilok, Mindanao Island, and the Wisconsin at Olongapo, on Subig Bay, Island of Luzon. He also reports that the Quiros is cruising in Lingayen Gulf and that the torpedo boats Dale and Decatur are cruising off the Island of Palawan.

Reference to the map of the archipelago shows that this disposition affords excellent opportunities for observing the movements of the hostile fleets, should they approach or enter Philippine waters.

While the vessels, with the exception of the Wisconsin, at Olongapo, are but small gunboats, which could do no more than make observances, they all carry the flag, which, it is believed, would be sufficient for the purpose of enforcing neutrality in the waters contiguous to American possessions in the Far East.

NEUTRALITY OF AMOY.

CHINESE OFFICIALS TO INSIST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

AMOY (Straits of Formosa) April 19.—The provincial officials held a conference today with the object of determining on the course to be adopted in case of the Russian squadron appearing here. The officials are prepared to insist upon the neutrality of this port being respected.

The Japanese ships which have been plying between Amoy and the Island of Formosa are not making their usual trips.

The Japanese have a building here filled with stores, supposed to be medical supplies.

The British steamer Heathbank, which has been at this port since February 11, is said to have ammunition and light artillery under her supposed cargo of coal intended for the Russian squadron.

CUTS DOWN COAL CARGO.

BRITISH CRIPPLE RUSSIANS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORT LOUIS (Island of Mauritius) April 19.—The German steamer Juliette, late the British steamer Dunnolly Castle, which was cleared from Diego Suarez, Madagascar, April 14, for Batavia, Java, put in here today and asked for 900 tons of coal. She was informed that she would be allowed to take 600 tons, but when 100 tons had been taken on board the Colonial Office stopped her from taking any more, pending instructions from the home government. The action of the local officials was due to statements made by members of the crew that the Juliette is carrying stores to the Russian squadron in the China Sea.

TRANSPORTS TIMID.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

YINKOW, April 17, via Tien-Tsin, April 19.—Few transports are now arriving at Newchwang. This contrast with the rush of traffic since the opening of Liao River indicates that precautions are being taken against possible interference by the Russian Second Pacific Squadron. Vast accumulations of stores have already been made along the Japanese lines of communication, assuring full supplies to the armies in the field, even if the transport service is interrupted.

SLAVS DREAD RUNNING FIGHT.

STAND-UP MATCH PREFERRED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19, 7:55 p.m.—The keenest interest is manifested in the dispatches referring to the Russian squadron commanded by Admiral Rojestvensky, but the Admiralty claims to be as much in the dark as the public regarding the plans of the admiral. The report that part of the squadron was sighted off Hongkong is not credited here, however, as Hongkong is far off his route.

The main question now agitating the naval officials is whether Rojestvensky will elect to proceed northward through the Straits of Formosa or bear off into the Pacific, through Baschi Channel, north of the island of Luzon.

The conviction is growing stronger that the Japanese heavy division is concentrating close to the shores of Japan, and it is also believed that Admiral Togo will decline to give battle in the open sea. This is what the Admiralty officials hope for, as it sincerely believes Rojestvensky will have more than an even chance if the two squadrons line up in an open fight.

They believe that Togo's tactics will be night torpedo boat attacks, in attempts to scatter the Russian ships, putting some of them out of action and then picking off the damaged vessels in the morning. It is recognized that if one of the Russian ships is injured it might be too dangerous for the whole squadron to stand by her and thus offer a big target for the Japanese torpedoes. Such a running fight, accompanied by nightly torpedo attacks, therefore, is what is most dreaded.

The Admiralty has no confirmation of the reported cutting of the cable connecting the island of Formosa with the Chinese mainland at Foochow; but it is pointed out that, even if true, this would not sever communication with Formosa, as there is a direct cable from Kelung, in the northern part of the island, running, by way of the Luchu islands, to Japan.

SURVIVOR OF THE RURIK.

LONGS FOR MORE FIGHTING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 19.—Among the passengers on the ship Minnesota, just arrived from the Orient, were Lieut. R. Bruns, an officer of the Russian armored cruiser Rurik, sunk in battle in the Straits of Korea, in August, and Mrs. Ristoftsca, a Russian Red Cross nurse, who was in Port Arthur throughout the siege. Lieut. Bruns is on parole and both are en route to St. Petersburg. Lieut. Bruns is said to be heartbroken over his capture and the fact that he is not now with Rojestvensky's squadron.

TAKES TACOMA'S PLACE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The collier Edith, a well-known vessel in this port, has been sold by the Progreso Steamship Company to Northwestern Steamship Company of Seattle for $130,000, to replace the steamer Tacoma, which was lately captured by the Japanese, and is not likely to ever again appear on this Coast.

Japanese Financier Coming.

LONDON, April 19.—Koretyio Takahashi, the Japanese financial agent, sails for New York on the steamer Celtic, April 21. He expects to remain a month in the United States and then return to London. Takahashi says his visit is not connected with any financial mission, but he is anxious, now that he has more leisure, to acquaint himself more fully with conditions in America.

ALL SAME JULIET.

The President is Seeking for Romeo. A Bear by Any Other Name Would Taste as Sweet but Would Not be so Large.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEWCASTLE (Colo.) April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary Loeb and Courier Chapman, carrying a bag of mail and papers for the President, arrived at Camp Roosevelt this afternoon, chilled to the bone by the ride of 27 miles on horseback in a howling blizzard. The storm prevented any attempt at hunting today. Secretary Loeb will come out tomorrow, and if the storm abates, camp will be shifted to the Gregor Ranch, 10 miles southwest on Garfield Creek.

ASPEN (Colo.) April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary Loeb left the Hotel Colorado this morning and drove rapidly to Newcastle, whence he left, as soon as horses could be saddled, for Camp Roosevelt. He was accompanied by Messenger Chapman, the courier who brought a message to the secretary yesterday. Loeb carried a number of documents, concerning the contents of which he refused to make any statement, but from his unusual haste it is naturally inferred that they were of extreme importance. He expressed considerable anxiety lest the heavy snows which had fallen during the night should prevent him from seeing the President at the earliest possible moment, but word was received later in the day from the camp that Loeb had reached the camp, only to find the President buried in the wilds in an eager hunt, especially promising signs having been discovered in the newly-fallen snow.

The President is said to have set his mind on capturing Romeo, the huge grizzly which rams the region about Muddy Creek. The tracks seen yesterday are unusually large, but it is not known whether they are those of Romeo or not. Wild and improbable stries are told to tenderfeet and even to Colorado hunters of the size of this monster, but there is no doubt that a grizzly of far more than average size is in the vicinity where the President is hunting.

Secretary Loeb spent the night at Camp Roosevelt, and will probably remain until Friday. This is his first interview with the Chief Executive since the hunt began.

Near the present camp of the President is a school attended only by the children of the ranchmen and mountaineers of the district. The President has agreed to make a speech to the children before he breaks camp, and it will be the most unique address he will deliver on his trip. Most of the children may never see another President in their lives.

Secretary Loeb this morning said that he had received a request from a Denver pastor that the bear meat which is not consumed before the President's departure be sent to Denver, for distribution among the poor of that city.

MAROONED CORRESPONDENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GLENWOOD SPRINGS (Colo.) April 19.—With the President and Secretary Loeb in camp 20 miles from the nearest telegraph office, no news of the hunt came out of the woods today. When Loeb returns here tomorrow, it is expected he will bring information of the luck that has attended the President's hunt for big game. The President keeps a personal diary, and consequently the correspondents marooned here await the return of the secretary with much impatience.

Storms consisting of snow, hail and rain surged about the mountains in the direction of the East Divide nearly all day, and Loeb must have had a rough, uncomfortable trip.

PATROL ORGANIZED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GLENWOOD SPRINGS (Colo.) April 19.—Capt. Austin told Secretary Loeb today that a patrol has been organized, and it is now impossible for outsiders to reach the area over which the party is hunting.

BANDITS TRY TO CUT RAILROAD.

ATTEMPT MADE BETWEEN HARBIN AND VLADIVOSTOK.

Many Companies of Brigands Roving in Rear of Russian Army but They Disappear When Pursued. Japanese Planning to Thrust Army Northeastward—Severe Skirmishes.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HARBIN, April 19.—There was a determined attempt on the night of April 17 to cut the railroad between Harbin and Vladivostok, a formidable body of Chinese bandits making an attack near the station of Imyanpo, 100 miles east of Harbin. After a desperate fight which lasted several hours, the bandits were driven off and dispersed.

Many smaller companies of Chinese bandits are roving in the rear of the Russian army, but disappear when pursued. It is thought probable that they are Manchurians who scatter to their villages when they find themselves in danger.

There are various reports of wide turning movements at Tsitsikar or eastward of that point, but as yet these rumors are apparently unfounded.

The number of skirmishes taking place on the east flank of the Russian army, however, goes to indicate that the Japanese are planning to thrust northeastward and interpose a force between Harbin and Vladivostok.

LOADING SUSPICIOUS CARGO.

CONTRABAND FOR RUSSIANS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is much mystery in Oakland over the cargo of the British tramp steamer Adato, which is loading at Long Wharf. It is reported in shipping circles that she will carry arms and ammunition to the Russians.

Many people have watched bales of cotton and big cases swung on board and lowered into the hatches during the last two days. Capt. James Brodle claims the cases contain machinery, but there is a suspicious frankness in his statement that gives the impression that it would be worth the while of a Japanese cruiser to inspect the hold of the Adato.

The cargo consists of 8500 bales of cotton and 336 cases. The latter vary from one ton to six tons, and are numbered only by initial letters. The cases are in the bottom of the hold, and on top of them are piled bales of cotton. Capt. Brodle says this arrangement was not by design, but if the Adato is overhauled by a Japanese cruiser, it will be necessary to hoist out 8500 bales of cotton to determine what she carries deep down in her hold.

JAPAN'S LOANS.

OFFICIAL EXPLANATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—It is learned here that the Japanese government is about to raise another domestic loan of $50,000,000 and the fact that this follows so quickly on the fourth domestic loan and the issue of the $150,000,000 foreign loan in New York and London has led to an official explanation designed to correct any misapprehension. This is to the effect that the expenditures, estimated at $290,000,000, and the new loan has also been arranged for by the agreement with the bankers made last March to supply $100,000,000. It is further explained that in preparing its financial scheme the Japanese government has purposely divided the loans with special reference to the periods of subscription and the monthly war expenses.

Attention is called to the fact that the foreign loan is intended to maintain the specie reserve for trade purposes, and only the domestic loan is to meet the war expenses. As a major portion of these are paid in Japan, the expansion of the convertible notes and consequent rise in prices is prevented. These domestic loans are provided for during the fiscal year by an appropriation of $75,000,000 to be derived from war taxes and it is said that the result of the increased taxation has so far been perfectly satisfactory.

Russians Retreat Northward.

TOKIO, April 19.—An official report from Manchurian headquarters says: "A Japanese force advanced toward Tunghua, fifty miles east of Hsin Cheng and occupied that place April 15. The enemy retreated to the north. There has been no change in the situation elsewhere."

BAD FIRE AT STOCKTON.

STOCKTON, April 19.—Fire broke out at 11:50 tonight in the plant of the Stockton Iron Works, on the west side of California street, between Weber avenue and Main street. The largest building of the company, a three-story brick structure, was completely gutted and forty years' accumulation of patterns were entirely destroyed. The building was valued at $10,000, and the patterns at about $50,000. The firm carried a small insurance on the building. There were no casualties.

VALIDATES ENTIRE BOND ISSUE.

BROWN VALLEY WATER CASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MARYSVILLE, April 19.—The judgment given by Judge Morrow in the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco in the case of George Parker against the Brown's Valley Irrigation District for $6447 and costs of suit will have the effect of validating the entire bond issue of the Brown's Valley Irrigation District, situated in this county, twelve miles northeast of Marysville, amounting to $140,000, the face of the bonds, and about seven years' accrued interest thereon.

To retire the debt, now declared a lien upon all lands within the district, a tax of $45 per acre will be necessary. It is probable that a new issue of bonds will be put out to retire this debt, although such proceeding for the time being is somewhat complicated by the decision of Judge Davis in the Superior Court, handed down in 1889, declaring the formation of the district illegal and restraining the Assessor from levying and the Tax Collector from collecting any taxes therein.

The decision of Judge Morrow will have the effect of nullifying the findings of the Superior Court of Yuba county declaring the bonds illegal.

MADE INSANE BY CLAIRVOYANT.

ROBBED OF TWO THOUSAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, April 19.—"Prof." Anton Weber, a clairvoyant who has been here for the past two weeks, is wanted by the police department on a charge of grand larceny. He is accused of stealing $2000 from Mrs. Frank A. Drew, who, with her husband, was yesterday arrested for insanity. Late last night, Drew swore to a complaint in a justice court. For a week, the Drews lived behind barricaded doors in a cottage on St. John street, following out the teachings of the clairvoyant. The officers have found no clew to Weber.

The couple are in a sanitarium and are fairly rational. A letter has been sent to Mrs. Drew's sister in Penacook, N. H., conveying information as to their misfortune and present condition.

ELEVEN DAYS FROM YOKOHAMA.

MINNESOTA BREAKS RECORDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

There were about, reached port last night, on her return voyage from the Orient, having broken all trans-Pacific records on her trip across. The Minnesota's time from Yokohama was eleven days, twenty-one hours, five minutes.

Among her passengers were a number also a number of American army officers coming from Manila, either on leave or under orders to report at Washington. Altogether, the Minnesota brought 162 passengers, forty-seven of whom were first class, and a little more than seven thousand tons of freight, of which hemp formed the bulk.

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 19.—The British steamship Pass of Melford, arriving here today from European ports, brings news of the death of John Houston, who was master of the steamer. Capt. "California Cities Days" at Portland.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Gov. Pardee today received notification from the management of the Lewis and Clark Exposition that the period from July 24 to August 12 had been set aside for "California Cities' Days," and suggesting that he issue a proclamation notifying the people of this State of the fact. The management announced that the Mayors of all California cities desiring to attend the celebration of their particular days would be the guests of the management.

Society of Dania in Prosperity's Way.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The Grand Lodge of the Society of Dania, for California and Nevada, met in this city today. About fifty delegates, representing nineteen different lodges, were present. Reports were read by grand officers, showing a prosperous condition of the order. President A. C. Rasmussen said during the past year over one hundred members have joined the organization, bringing the total membership in California and Nevada up to 2000. In the treasury, there is a surplus of $60,000; yet $15,000 was paid out in sick benefits last year.

Victim of Vicious and Daring Hold-up.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Clyde Sanders, a clerk residing at No. 217 Ninth street, Oakland, reported a vicious and daring hold-up to the police at the Harbor Station late last night. An assault for the purpose of robbery was made upon him by two men on Sacramento street near Front, on his way to the ferry, and when he offered resistance a knife was drawn across his throat and he was beaten on the head. When Sanders fell insensible to the sidewalk, the thieves continued their work and took $130 and a gold watch and chain from his pockets.

Dozier is the Judge.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—It has been repeatedly reported that Thomas B. Dozier, District Attorney for Shasta county, has declined his appointment by the Governor to the newly-created Superior judgeship of that county because he wished to keep the office he held from falling to a Democrat, who would be appointed by the Supervisors. Gov. Pardee said today that Dozier has not yet communicated with him regarding his acceptance or rejection of the position of Superior Judge. So far as the Governor is concerned, Dozier is the new Superior Judge.

Sacramento County Strawberries.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The strawberry season of Sacramento county has begun well, the daily shipments from Florin, near here, being 600 crates a day, going to Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane and other points in the Northwest, as well as to Reno, Tonopah and Salt Lake. In a few days carload lots of berries will be going forward, and the crop promises to be heavy. Present prices are good and the demand is strong.

Sacramento River Salmon.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Heavy shipments of Sacramento River salmon are being made from this point to San Francisco, Puget Sound and Columbia River points, and to Chicago and intermediate cities, and all are commanding unusually high prices. The run began a month earlier than usual, thus affording Sacramento fishermen a chance to forward their catch to many points that, under ordinary circumstances, have all the salmon needed. An odd feature of the Sacramento market is that tons of Sacramento River catfish are shipped every month of the year to Kansas and Wyoming, some going as far as Chicago.

DIES FROM OLD DOG BITE.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Hydrophobia from a dog bite received seven months ago Tuesday caused the death of Louis Ellwinge, 23 years old in the Orange County (N. Y.) Hospital. The victim had entirely forgotten his adventure with the dog but investigation now shows that the animal ran away and was shot to death the next day in a neighboring town, where it was suffering from rabies. Ellwinge was married seven months ago. Soon afterward, the dog, a small pet, was given him by a friend, and while playing with it he was bitten on the cheek. The wound was disinfected but not cauterized. Ellwinge became ill last Sunday, when he noticed a difficulty in swallowing water. The symptoms gradually became more pronounced until convulsions developed. Between the spasms he was perfectly rational and had his wife take him to a hospital. Experts were called but they could do nothing.

LOS ANGELES NOT "CHEAP."

Desires More Money for the Public Building.

Supervising Architect Taylor's Forthcoming Visit.

Barrett to be Called Back. Santa Fe's Counsel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ever since Congress adjourned, and for some time previous to that, it has been understood in Washington that inasmuch as Congress failed to act in the matter of securing additional funds for the Los Angeles public building, either through authorizing the sale of the old site or a direct appropriation, nothing would be done about putting up that structure until after the next session of Congress.

Notwithstanding all this, Supervising Architect Taylor of the Treasury Department today sent a telegram to Motley Flint, postmaster at Los Angeles, asking him to forward immediately a transcript of the survey and a description of the new site. It was explained that this data is neded in preparation of the plans for the new building, and that these plans will not be completed "until late in the summer." It is also stated that next fall, Supervising Architect Taylor will go to Los Angeles and take his plans along with him.

Probably when Mr. Taylor gets to Los Angeles, he will find that the first great plan the people of that city want carried out is one that will put an appropriation bill through Congress for about one-quarter of a million dollars additional, so that they can have a real public building when they get one, and not spend the next twenty years in making a patchwork building, to keep up with the city's growth.

OPPOSITION TO CANAL PROJECT.

ATTY. WARREN B. WILSON OF ILLINOIS BRINGS SUIT.

Claims Secretary Shaw Is Misappropriating Public Funds in Paying Expenses Incurred by the Commission—Government Officials Believe Railroads are Prompting Him.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While Secretary Taft, Chairman Shonts and other members of the Panama Canal Commission were sitting in New York Monday as directors of the Panama Railway Company, argument was being made in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia in behalf of a suit to stop work on the great canal enterprise. The entire government at Washington is puzzled to know whose funds are paying for the determined and brilliant fight that is being made in the courts to check the canal work. Warren B. Wilson, one of the most capable lawyers of Illinois, claims that Secretary Shaw is misappropriating public funds in paying for the expenses incurred by the Canal Commission, and he has brought suit to enjoin him from making further disbursements. Wilson claims to be acting solely in his capacity as a private citizen, but it is the opinion of government officials that the transcontinental railroads are back of the hostile move.

Wilson claims that the Spooner act authorizes payment to the old French Canal Company for its property, to Colombia for the strip, and the issue of $130,000,000 bonds to construct the canal on conditions that have not been complied with, therefore, the Secretary of the Treasury has no right or authority to pay money or issue bonds. He contends that this country should obtain the strip of land by treaty with Colombia. The treaty with Panama, he asserts, does not comply with this condition; also, nothing but the cession of the strip would give us perpetual control, since the treaty could be repealed by Panama. The provision regarding the strip in the Panama treaty is void, because no particular strip is specified.

Wilson further claims that Congress has no authority to construct a canal, especially in a foreign country. The building of the canal could not be regulating commerce, but would be carrying on a part of it, and for profit.

The United States government, through Atty.-Gen. Russell, maintains that the "strip" can be ascertained, and has been ascertained; that the treaty authorizes the United States to construct a canal, and that there is an implied right to locate the canal and assume control on five miles on either side of it, and that session is not necessary to give us perpetual control. Panama cannot repeal the rights she has given us, on the ground that one nation cannot repeal the treaty so as to destroy the rights of the other party to the treaty.

Wilson having admitted that navigation is commerce, the government makes the ingenious contention that, just as Congress can remove obstructions from a river or harbor, or the sea beyond the marine limit, or remove derelicts from the ocean, so it can remove the obstruction to navigation which is called the Isthmus of Panama.

BARRETT MAY BE RECALLED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] United States Minister John Barrett, formerly of California, now at Panama, will, it is believed, shortly be recalled. Whether or not he will be appointed to some new post in the diplomatic service or be dropped out entirely is not definitely known. It is understood, however, that the administration is very much dissatisfied with his management of affairs in the isthmus.

One reason for this is disclosed in the instalment of the advance sheets of the reports on the foreign relations of the United States for 1904 which was given to the press today. This shows that August 22, last, when the relations between the Panama Republic and the United States were in a most critical condition on account of the objection of Panama to the establishment of ports and opening of postoffices in the canal zone, Minister Barrett reported to the State Department that the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Panama preferred that negotioaions toward a settlement of the questions in dispute should be continued in Panama, and he suggested that the Panama Minister at Washington be advised in that sense.

The day that Minister Barrett sent this communication to the State Department, he had received a note from the Panaman Minister of Foreign Affairs, Señor Arias, saying it was deemed best "to await a discussion of the main question in Washington before continuing further discussion in Panama."

This fact was mailed to Washington. This correspondence, it has been claimed, shows Minister Barrett in a bad light, as having represented to this government that Panama wished negotiations conducted in Panama, when, as a matter of fact, it had actually expressed a desire that they should be carried on in Washington; and that, after getting the United States, on his representation, to agree to the plan which he suggested, he told the Panama officials that it was the wish of the President of the United States that negotiations be conducted in Panama. Of course, Panama at once acquiesced in this arrangement. Shortly afterward the facts were disclosed, and, coupled with dissatisfaction on account of the establishment of ports and postoffices in the canal zone, the matter culminated in such feeling against the United States as to necessitate the personal visit of Secretary of War Taft to Panama, to allay the resentment.

This, it is said, is only one of the many reasons which have caused the administration to believe that Minister Barrett would better be called home. It is expected that as soon as Judge Magoon, the new Governor of the canal zone, arrives on the isthmus, which will be about May 10, he will take over the diplomatic duties at the legation and Minister Barrett will be recalled.

BRITISH CONSULTING ENGINEER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, today informed Secretary Taft that the British government had, at the Secretary's invitation, selected Chief Engineer Hunter, the builder of the Manchester ship canal, to act as one of the consulting engineers of the Panama Canal Board. Hunter has signified his willingness to serve.

BARRETT AND THE REVOLUTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Diplomatic correspondence made public at the State Department today contains a dispatch from Minister Barrett at Panama, giving an account of the assistance rendered by him in averting trouble there, at the time of the attempted revolution led by Gen. Huertas, last November.

After it had been arranged that Gen. Huertas should resign and the Panama army disbanded, a hitch occurred. About fifty soldiers marched, unarmed, to the government house, followed by a great crowd, and informed the President of the republic that they would not accept the government's terms of being paid off in two payments, but demanded the whole pay at that time. Minister Barrett, who was present at the time, advised the President to be absolutely firm, but the soldiers persisted, and muttered their threats against the President. The Minister, in informing the State Department of the incident, said:

"When this word came up from the street, I saw that there must be no further delay in bringing matters to an end, and taking Gen. Guardia, the Minister of Foreign Aqairs and war, with me, I went downstairs and out upon the sidewalk in front of the soldiers, who were there assembled. In brief words, I told Gen. Guardia to say to them that the United States, with its forces, stood back of the government in this crisis, and that they must accept the terms of the government, or accept the consequences. They were warned that if they did not accept these terms and engaged in any acts of insurrection, riot or mutiny, they would be dealth with in a most summary way, and that if necessary the naval forces in the bay and the marines at Ancon and Empire would be used to maintain order, with the severest punishment for those who were responsible for disorders. This warning had the desired effect, and the soldiers immediately declared that they would accept the terms of the government."

PROTEST AGAINST PORTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—How acutely the Panama government had been aroused last summer prior to the visit of Secretary Taft, over the opening of ports on the Panama canal zone is apparent from correspondence made public at the State Department today. Included in this correspondence is a note of protest from the Panama Minister for Foreign Affairs to Minister Barrett, in which he says:

"The republic of Panama has not only the right to expect common respect, but more deferential treatment than that which she has received. The treaty of November 4, 1903, cannot and should not serve as a pretext for unusual tendencies. It is really a bond of perpetual union between the two nations, upon which the eyes of the universe are fixed with the expectation of the great benefits which the world has every right to look forward to. Starting, then, with this conception, my government cannot accept the idea that the opening of the said ports was in obedience to the orders of Your Excellency's government, but to the erroneous interpretations of the respective treaties on the part of the authorities of the canal zone."

Upon receipt of the protest at the State Department, Mr. Loomis, the acting Secretary of State, cabled to Mr. Barrett, directing him to assure the Panama government that the American government "will do nothing inconsistent with the honor and true interests of both republics; that it will assist and uphold Panama in every proper way, and that it will not adopt at this time any permanent policy without fully consulting Panama."

MORAWETZ CONTINUES.

HIS OPINION ON REBATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Victor Morawetz of the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fé Railroad again was before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce today. Replying to questions by Senator Dolliver, Morawetz said that the Executive Committee and board of directors never know anything about the details of traffic management. They give directions to the president of the road, and the president directs the other officers.

"Where traffic managers violate the law in granting rebates and discriminations to one shipper, do you not think it would be right to compel the road to give all shippers the low rate?" asked Senator Dolliver.

"In many cases it would be right and in others unjust," replied Morawetz. "It would not be right to make stockholders suffer because some agent had committed a wrong."

Senator Dolliver questioned Morawetz about the agreements between companies about rates. The latter replied that there were "no agreements."

The railroads, he said, talked things over and reached an understanding as to what rates would be from competitive points. He said these rates were fixed on a remunerative basis.

Senator Dolliver asked why intermediate points were compelled to pay higher rates than the competitive points. Morawetz replied that the railroads were compelled to accept low rates at competitive points. He maintained that the intermediate points were really benefited by such action.

THE COAL BUSINESS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Morawetz said that when the present management of the Atchison road took control of the system, it included various coal companies, the stock of which was owned by the original railroad company. The new management decided that the railroad must go out of the coal business. The Atchison then leased all the coal mines in its system. In 1901, there was a three-cornered arrangement to which the Atchison, the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and Phelps, Dodge & Co., controlling the Southern Railway, were parties.

Under the terms of the agreement the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company was to furnish coal at $1.15 per ton, and the Atchison was to haul it for $2.90 per ton, the Atchison to collect the price of the coal and pay the $1.15 over to the Colorado company. The agreement was to last five years. But in 1902, injunctions were granted restraining the various companies from continuing this business. The complaint arose over a mistake about the commission of $4.05, which the road collected, an allegation being made that this did not include the price of coal and that rebates were given. No other shipper could be affected, because Phelps, Dodge & Co. had to have the coal which was supplied by the Colorado company. The whole case arose over a confusion in the cost of coal with the cost of transportation.

Senator Dolliver asked as to the report that the Atchison had paid to the Standard Oil Company $17,000,000 in rebates in Kansas.

Morawetz said that he felt authorized to deny the statement that any rebate was given by the Atchison to the Standard.

In answer to Senator Newlands, Morawetz said that in several States there were comissions with powers to fix rates. At times the Atchison road had suffered from interference and was saved from annihilation by the United States courts. He said no commission could have the wisdom to fix rate for the entire country.

Senator Newlands asked a series of questions to support his contention of the nationalization of railroads.

Senator Cullom, addressing Mr. Newlands, asked: "Are you getting ready to buy all these roads?"

"No," replied Mr. Newlands. "I merely want the railroad to take out national charters."

The committee adjourned until tomorrow.

PENSION EXAMINERS RESIGN.

BOARD OF REVIEW AFFECTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Nine of the ten pension examiners constituting the board of review were separated from the government service today. Commissioner of Pensions Warner transmitted the nine resignations to Secretary Hitchcock, with the recommendation that they be accepted, and Mr. Hitchcock took the desired action without delay. The difficulty involving the board of review was its approval of several pensions to applicants whose only claim was enlistment in a Pennsylvania and a New Jersey regiment of volunteers for service in the Civil War, but the services of whom were never availed of by the government.

D.A.R. ELECTION.

MRS. FAIRBANKS HONORED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The most important work before the congress of Daughters of the American Revolution today was the election of officers.

Before the balloting began, Mrs. Sarah T. Kenney, State regent of Connecticut, named Mrs. Charles Warren Fairbanks as honorary president of the D.A.R. Mrs. Fairbanks evidently was taken by surprise, but she yielded the chair temporarily to Mrs. Carrey of Indiana. The delegates rose as a body and gave Mrs. Fairbanks an ovation. The nomination was made an election, amid enthusiastic applause.

In resuming the chair, Mrs. Fairbanks said: "This is the last of many honors you have conferred upon your President-General, and she thanks you from the bottom of a grateful heart."

OFFICERS ELECTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—At the afternoon session the following officers were unanimously elected:

Vice-President-General in charge of organization of chapters, Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Main, District of Columbia; Chaplain-General, Mrs. T. S. Hamlin, District of Columbia; Treasurer-General, Mrs. M. E. S. Davis, District of Columbia; Historian, Mrs. John Ethan Dolliver, Iowa; Assistant; Historian, Mrs. M. A. Lockwood, District of Columbia; Librarian-General, Mrs. Alice A. Solomon, District of Columbia.

Mrs. Fairbanks, the retiring President-General, gave a reception in honor of the Daughters at her home tonight. It was said that Mrs. Donald McLean, one of the candidates for the office of President-General, and some of her friends, did not attend the reception.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Openings in Pay Crops.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Announcement was made at the Navy Department today that there existed twenty-nine vacancies in the grade of Assistant Paymaster in the Navy, the only grade of pay corps to which appointments are made from civil life. The examination for candidates for this grade has been set for June 12, and for the first time no political influence is necessary to obtain designations for this examination. By order of the Secretary the examination has been thrown open to all applicants who are able to present satisfactory letters from reputable business concerns, and also letters showing that the applicants are fit men to be officers in the Pay Corps.

Burial Place for Jones.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The naval authorities are unanimous in the opinion that the remains of John Paul Jones should be buried in the cemetery of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, because he was a distinguished naval officer.

Land Office Force Cut.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—On account of the shortage of last year's appropriation Commissioner Richards of the General Land Office has found it necessary to dispense temporarily with the services of seventeen of the eighty special agents of that bureau.

Las Vegas Postoffice Case.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Justice Barnard, in Circuit Court No. 1, today denied the petition of Romero and others against the Postmaster-General for a peremptory writ of mandamus in connection with the establishing of a postoffice at Las Vegas, Nev. The petitioners noted an appeal from the ruling to the Court of Appeals.

NAN PATTERSON TRIAL.

Recorder Goff Tells Lawyers That He Wants the Jury Box Filled in Quick Time.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—With three of the twelve men who are to determine her fate sitting in the jury box, the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of "Caesar" Young was resumed in the Court of General Sessions today. At the opening of the proceedings today Recorder Goff informed the lawyers that he wanted the jury box filled before adjournment for the day and that the court would adjourn this evening until Monday.

Assistant District Attorney Gans told Justice Gaynor in the State Supreme Court in Flushing today that it would defeat the ends of justice and reveal to the defense the resources of the prosecution in the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of "Caesar" Young if Dist.-Atty. Jerome was compelled to surrender the letters and documents taken from Mrs. J. Morgan Smith when she was arrested in Cincinnati. Counsel for the Smiths asked for an order for the surrender of the papers and Justice Gaynor suggested they be given to the clerk of the court so that both sides could have access to them, but Gans objected. The court then reserved decision.

JURY COMPLETED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—The jury was completed at 7:40 o'clock tonight, when Recorder Goff adjourned court until next Monday morning. Miss Patterson is again to face a jury composed almost entirely of married men, only two of the accepted panel of twelve being single—one a bachelor, the other a widower. Most of the jurymen are men of middle age, and, beyond this, many of them have large families, some having daughters who are married.

It was announced tonight that the defendant would take the stand again and tell her story. It is also said that Miss Patterson is anxious that her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, become a witness for the defense, although it has not been determined yet, either by the prosecution or the girl's lawyers, just what part the Smiths will play.

After the adjournment of court, Miss Patterson had a little chat with her father and was then led back to her cell in the Tombs. Her counsel declares that the girl is well. Throughout the day she had evidenced the keenest interest in the selection of talesmen.

HOCH PLACED ON TRIAL.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Johann Hoch, self-confessed bigamist, was placed on trial in the Criminal Court this afternoon for the murder of Marie Walcker Hoch, one of his wives. Mrs. Amelia Fischer Hoch, the defendant's last wife and sister of Mrs. Marie Walcker-Hoch declares she saw Hoch give some white powders to her sister just before the latter's death. The prosecution, in order to make it possible for a wife to testify, will offer evidence that Mrs. Fischer Hoch was not Hoch's legal wife at the time. Hoch was arraigned under the new indictment recently returned against him. He pleaded not guilty. Attorney Isadore Piotke, for the defense, asked Judge Kersten to continue the case until tomorrow, on the ground that counsel wanted time to examine the new indictments. Judge Kersten acceded and court adjourned until tomorrow.

Santa Fe Boilermakers Making Big Statements.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 19.—Although instances are still at work in the hope that an amicable adjustment of the difficulty existing between the teamsters and Montgomery Ward & Co. can be reached, the indications tonight are that the strike of the teamsters will spread to other concerns. Today 130 drivers employed by the E. M. Fuhes Teaming Company were ordered on strike because the firm insisted on making deliveries to Montgomery Ward & Co. President Shea of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters declared tonight he would order out all drivers engaged by firms that insisted on delivering supplies to the big store.

The new employers' teaming company began aggressive action against the striking teamsters today by delivering coal to Montgomery Ward & Co.

The Coal Team Owners' Association has arranged for a conference tomorrow with the Employers' Association. The association will present a proposition to arbitrate everything in dispute. Nothing of a tangible nature is expected to result from this conference, as Montgomery Ward & Co. steadfastly refused to arbitrate the demands of the garment workers, although offering to accept conciliatory measures with the teamsters. The garment workers' places have been filled and Montgomery Ward & Co. assert that there is nothing to arbitrate.

He calls attention to the fact that the union now has 183 men out on the system, and 200 will have left the company's service by Saturday night, and further says that the pickets are getting men to quit every day. The statement also says: "We are also prepared to stay in this fight to the finish, if it takes ten years, but we are open for a conference at any time, and will meet the officials of the company whenever they are ready to make a settlement with the boilermakers."

General Manager H. U. Mudge of the Santa Fé road said he had nothing to say on the situation today.

TROUBLE ON NEAR LEADVILLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LEADVILLE (Colo.) April 19.—Deputies in charge of Sheriff [illegible] tonight succeeded in maintaining quiet at the Arkansas Valley plant of the American Smelting and Refining Company here, where forty [illegible] wheelers went on strike [illegible] hours and succeeded in [illegible] nearly eight hundred employés [illegible]. The fires of six of the eight furnaces have been drawn, and the other two are banked. The mines in the district have been ordered to cease shipping to the smelter until further notice. No disorder is looked for, and a settlement is expected within a few days.

The wheelers struck when the smelter put into effect the recent eight-hour law, which does not include them. They demanded the same hours as the other workmen, which was refused by the management. This morning, when the other employés came to work the strikers stood at the gate and prevented them from entering. Deputies were sent for and dispersed the gathering without disorder. Four arrests were made. The strikers are all foreigners, some of whom belong to unions, but there is no local organization. Although the management and the Sheriff have guaranteed protection to all who will return to work, many of the men appear to be afraid to do so, and less than one hundred men went on tonight with the night shift.

The weighers and wheelers who are on strike are receiving $2.75 for twelve hours' work, but declare that they will take a reduction if they are guaranteed eight hours, with the rest of the employés. The furnacemen, feeders and tapper's profess to be satisfied with the terms offered them, and it is believed that a settlement can be arrived at with the strikers soon.

The smelter handles monthly about 60,000 tons of ore.

ITALIAN INTERRUPTIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ROME, April 19.—The government's railroad bill was carried by a large majority in the Chamber of Deputies today.

The conflict at Foggia, Tuesday evening, between soldiers and striking railway men, reinforced by peasants, who tried to invade the railway station, resulted in the killing of three and wounding of several of the disturbers. The strike is interfering with travel, those members of the chamber who wish to return to their homes being provided with a special train. Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria was less fortunate than the deputies, for, relying on a motor car to carry him to Naples, he suffered a breakdown when about half the distance, and had to travel the rest of the way by carriage.

SAN JUAN (P. R.) April 19.—Charles Hartsell, formerly secretary of Porto Rico, representing a French corporation owning several thousand acres of sugar plantation in the Ponce district, has obtained from United States Judge McKenna a preliminary restraining order against Santiago Iglesias and twenty other members of the American Federation of Labor. The defendants are charged with preventing the operation of the plantation by intimidation and violence.

Italian Railroad Strike Continues.

ROME, April 19.—The railroad strike continues and the situation is practically unsettled as yet. Food and provisions at Florence, owing to the strike, are becoming scarce. Arrangements have been made to have fish and meat taken to the city by carts.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The call has been issued by the executive board of the Journeymen Bakers and Confectioners' International Union for a meeting in Chicago next Saturday to act on the decision of the United States Supreme Court declaring the bakers' ten-hour law unconstitutional. The board will take up the question of asking the Supreme Court for a rehearing in the case.

I shall return to Washington in a day or two and take up the matter."

OLD TALES OF GRAFT RETOLD IN COURT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The taking of testimony in the case of the People vs. Harry Bunkers, ex-senator, charged with bribery, began before Judge Hart this [illegible]

George Grange, secretary of the Continental Building and Loan Association of San Francisco, was the first witness. He testified that, January 1, Joseph Jordan called on him and said that the Bunkers senatorial committee was about to investigate the building and loan associations and had subpoenas, and that something must be done or there would be trouble.

At this point the defense objected that as a conspiracy was charged, anything that was said between Jordan and Grange in the absence of Bunkers was inadmissable until a conspiracy or wrong had been established, in which one of the parties to the interview related to it. The People replied to the objection, holding that the proposed testimony tended to establish the conspiracy and that subsequent recital would show the relation of the conversation to that conspiracy. After a lengthy argument, the court admitted the statements proposed admissible with the understanding that if it developed that there was no conspiracy between them and the alleged conspiracy the testimony should be stricken out. To this ruling, the defense excepted, and a similar exception was taken several times thereafter took place during the ruling.

Grange said he asked Jordan what action he had to make, if any, and stated that he, witness, would have nothing to do with anything of that kind. Jordan then said he would call on Monday, which he did; and, being asked who the parties to the proposition were, he said Bunkers and French of the Senators; that the Renters companies were in danger, and pointed out an article in the paper on the subject, and added that a meeting of the Senate committee would be held in a few days, but Bunkers would have it all over until without [illegible] could be seen again, which was on Saturday. Saturday Grange testified that he and Jordan met again. The latter said he had seen Bunkers and French and matters would be arranged as to three of the committee, but not as to the chairman, except on payment of $10,000.

Jordan said he must have a proposition direct and definite. A few days later, Jordan returned and said that Wright, Emmons and French must be paid $2000 and he, Jordan, as a commission, $250.

Later, it was agreed, Grange said, that a go-between should be chosen. In that conversation, Jordan said Emmons was to procure the indictment of Gavin McNab and Washington Dodge for compounding a felony and the Continental would have to put up $10,000 to save them.

Witness said he then arranged to lay a trap to catch the Senators. He secured from the Renters Association a sum of money, added to a sum of his own, to make up $1550, which he put into four packages of $350 each and one package having $150 in it. These he delivered to a man unknown to him but indicated by a nod from McNab. That was on the 23d of January. The man was Moses Hines, to whom he also gave $100 in gold.

Witness explained, as in his examination by the Senate committee, how, for one of the gold pieces, he substituted a $20 bill, how he telephoned to Jordan at Sacramento that a man was coming, that he was to meet him at 1116 Seventh street, and said he recognized Jordan's voice over the telephone from Sacramento in reply.

On cross-examination, he said Jordan had for a year written advertisements for him. Jordan was then dismissed by witness, and Jordan wrote to him from Sacramento, acknowledging receipt. Witness knew nothing of what it contained. He served McNab, who, while his friend for years, he had never served in such capacity before. He is an employé in the Assessor's office, San Francisco and McNab had long been his political friend and used his influence to secure him his position.

William N. Russell, an employé of the Continental Building and Loan Association, San Francisco, said he first met Hines January 24, 1905, in the rotunda of the Mills building, San Francisco, where he went by instruction of the manager of the Continental company and received from Hines a package with $100 in it, in the form of a single bill. He brought it to Sacramento and gave it to Tichenor, who, in his presence, opened it and took out the bill for $100. That was about 10:45, in a street car. Tichenor placed it in his vest pocket.

W. H. Gavin testified that he is keeper of State archives and to the identity of the journals of the Senate. These showed the composition of the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchment, and that Bunkers, French, Wright and Emmons were members of this committee; that they were sworn in as Senators; that the committee was by resolution given power to issue subpoenas and administer oaths; that charges were preferred against Bunkers, Wright, Emmons and French; that a committee of investigation was appointed; with that committee certain exhibits were filed and these documents, said District Attorney Seymour, could not be found, but may be discovered before the close of the trial.

UNEASY OVER BALKANS.

VIENNA, April 19.—The condition of affairs in the Balkans is causing much uneasiness. The hope of a comparatively peaceful spring, which had previously been expected, is growing less, and it is declared that the reform work has now been conclusively proved without lasting or good results. In Zagorichamm, Province of Koritza, early this month, Greeks killed more than one hundred and thirty Bulgarians and in the Province of Uskub Turks have killed several Servians. Thus, it is seen that all nationalities and Christians and Moslems continue fighting each other, while Turkey seems unable or not desirous of affording protection to the people and stopping the disorders.

KITCHENER MAY RESIGN.

LONDON, April 19.—The correspondent at Calcutta of the Daily Express learns that friction has arisen between Lord Kitchener and Maj.-Gen. Elles, military member of the Governor General's Council, whose position enabled him to thwart the commander-in-chief's plans and that Lord Kitchener threatens to resign unless (Gen. Elles' duties are restricted to the administrative department and he (Kitchener) is given a voice in the council or placed in close relation with the Indian government.

MUDGE TO ROCK ISLAND.

Side Talks by the Office Boy.

Ma says folks shouldn't believe all they hear about their neighbors, that their hired girls may be inclined to exaggerate. When I hear a clerk from another store handing one of our salesmen a package about the man he works for getting $5.00 for exactly the same hat that we sell for $3.00 and boasting that his boss knows how to make profits, I know that fellow ought to be muzzled, for I believe he's lying about a dollar. I know Silverwood $3.00 hats would make awful good $4.00 hats in any other store in town, and I guess they're better and cost more than most $4.00 hats, but our old man not only insists on selling them at retail for $3.00, but keeps making them better all the time. When it comes to a $5.00 hat, there is only one hat to buy and that's a Stetson. We are agents for "Stetson's Special" $5.00 hats, and there is no doubt they're not only better than the Silverwood three, but better than any other five dollar hat on the market.

SISTER DEAD WITH BROTHER.

Double Bereavement Falls on Aged Parent.

Run Down by Locomotive on Santa Fe Railroad.

Well-known Literary Woman One of Victims.

Three homes were steeped in woe last night as the result of a terrible accident in which a heavy passenger train drawn by a ponderous locomotive sent brother and sister into eternity without warning of danger.

By the death of Miss Helen L. Davie and her brother Charles E. Davie yesterday, a fateful chain of sadness has been forged about an aged and loving father, E. H Davie.

About three years ago the mother of the family died; at the opening of the present year a daughter, Mrs. Hattie Hoag, well known in literary and club circles of this city, died after a lingering illness, nursed to the last by her good-angel sister, Helen; now by a calamity almost too terrible to tell, Helen and her brother Charles are swept away.

Surely the cup of sorrow has been drained to the dregs by the aged father, now several years beyond the allotted three-score-and-ten. Charles leaves a heart-broken widow, and the double affliction comes with great force upon Mrs. Claud Kistler of this city, a sister. The only other member of the family is a son residing in San Francisco.

Charles was collector for the Port Costa Milling Company and yesterday morning was about to drive to Pasadena on business for his employers. Helen was considerably worn out by care of her father, who has been ill, and accompanied her brother for the pleasure of the drive. At the Lincoln Park crossing of the Santa Fé railroad, just as they drove upon the track, their buggy was struck by a train coming in from Riverside, killing both the occupants, though Charles was breathing until the train reached the city station. So great was the impact that the body of the man was thrown a hundred feet from the track. The young lady was picked up closer to the scene of the accident. The horse was killed and the buggy completely demolished.

All theories as to why such an accident befell the occupants of the buggy when the track must have been in full view for hundreds of yards as they approached it, are mere guesswork, and as both are dead the facts will never be known. The train was running at full speed down grade, and though the air brakes were applied by Engineer W. R. McNeil the train's headway could not be retarded.

The coroner will hold an inquest at the undertaking establishment of Bresee Brothers this morning at 9 o'clock.

Helen L. Davie was well known to the readers of The Times through her many contributions upon the subject of amateur photography, which she illustrated with photographs of her own production. She was an amateur photographer of unusual ability and artistic taste and was an enthusiastic member of the Los Angeles Camera Club, of which she was secretary and one of the moving spirits. For many years she was stenographer to the firm of Baker & Hamilton, and had an extensive acquaintanceship in the best circles of the city.

She was one of those affectionate and dainty little bodies who, with perfect naturalness and sincerity, endeared herself to everybody who enjoyed her acquaintance, and none of them can find words sufficiently tender to describe their feelings.

Helen was the first member of her family to come to Los Angeles from Minnesota, but she was a thorough Californian and soon had her father, mother, brothers and sisters with her. Latterly her literary work had been broken off by the illness of her sister, and then before she could recuperate fully from the strain to which she had been subjected, her father was taken ill. She had just been talking about resuming her work in the newspapers and magazines when death cut short her promising future. She was about 25 years of age.

WHIST PLAY AT RIVERSIDE.

MID-WINTER TOURNAMENT NOW BEING ARRANGED.

Large Attendance of Members is Expected from the Fourteen Clubs in the Association—Contests Will Continue Three Days and Suitable Prizes Will be Offered.

Local whist players are preparing for the midwinter tournament of the Southern California Whist Association, which will be held at the Hotel Glenwood, in Riverside, June 14, 15 and 16, and a better tourney is expected than ever before, owing to the increase in the number of players and the general improvement in the play of the various clubs as the science of the silent game becomes better understood.

It is expected that there will be a large representation from the fourteen clubs in the association, as each club reports a healthy increase in membership, and each promises to send a good-sized delegation. The clubs in the association are Santa Paula, Oxnard, Santa Barbara, Pomona, Pasadena, Redlands, Riverside, Long Beach, Ventura, with three, and Los Angeles with three.

The play will consist of matches for individuals, pairs and teams of four, and it will require three days to decide the winners. Suitable prizes will be offered for each event, the principal one being the club cup for teams, which is now held by H. R. Hertel, W. Beardsley, Peter Orban and R. D. Richards, all of Pasadena. Mr. Richards is a former president of the National Whist League. Another of the clubs deserving particular mention is the Up-to-Date Club of this city, which is composed of four ladies, who are among the best players in this end of the State, always finishing near the top in every tournament in the singles, pairs or teams. These ladies are Mrs. S. C. Baxter, Mrs. C. E. De Camp, Mrs. C. L. Linzee and Mrs. F. Dickson.

CLUB PLAY.

The regular play is now going on at the rooms of the Los Angeles Whist Club on West Third street, in the Currier building. There is open play every Wednesday night, and every Saturday night there is individual play for the club button, in a tournament of twenty weeks, seventeen of which have already been played. The winner will be known May 6. At present James Ford is in the lead.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

OUR ASPHALT RIGHT STUFF.

NEW YORK CHIEF ENGINEER MAKES REPORT.

Refutes Charges Made Against California's Matchless Product by Showing How Uniformly Satisfactory It Has Been Found in Brooklyn and in New York.

A strong weapon has been placed in the hands of the asphalt men of California, with which to combat the attacks of the importers, in a recent report made by Nelson P. Lewis, chief engineer of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of New York City. In this is found a complete answer to every charge made against California's matchless product. The report deals with the action by the Borough of Manhattan, excluding California asphalt from all street work now being done.

Mr. Lewis was in charge of the street work in Brooklyn until March, 1902, and he states that while the first pavements put down were made from the hard natural bitumen asphalt, known as Alcatraz asphalt, a large quantity of the California product made from crude oil was afterward substituted by the company, supplying the contractors without the latter's knowledge. They used it and failed to discover the difference and continued using it for miles of paving and today no difference can be detected in the work done. Mr. Lewis says in reference to this: "The most experienced engineers in charge of paving will, I think, frankly admit they do not know the difference between the work done with the two kinds of asphalt."

By referring to the records of the supply company, however, it is found that the California product was used in all the work done by the Brooklyn Alcatraz Asphalt Company in Brooklyn, from July 25, 1898 to January 1, 1902, in all done by the Atlantic Alcatraz Asphalt Company in Jersey City, in 1899, and in most of that done by the same company in New York during that year, as well as that laid by this corporation in the two cities, during the following year up to October. Mr. Lewis says that he has examined many of these pavements in Manhattan and finds that, which some of them have been badly damaged through tearing up by plumbers and others they are "in uniformly, good condition and compare favorably with those made from other asphalts," and he adds:

"It appears to have been conclusively shown that very satisfactory pavements can be made from oil asphalts, and that such pavements have been laid in this city during the last six years with entire satisfaction. The oldest of these pavements are in the Borough of Brooklyn, and many of those in the Borough of Manhattan are in streets subject to considerable traffic, even though they are situated above Fifty-ninth street."

CARE IS NEEDED.

The only point made in favor of the natural asphalt is found in the statement that in its preparation the only object is to produce a suitable paving material. In the handling of oils there are other products to be considered, which may sometimes result in sacrificing the quality of the asphalt. In regard to this, Mr. Lewis adds:

"Although every possible precaution should be taken to prevent the use of unstable materials and asphalt which may be simply a residue after the distillation of lighter oils, without regard to its adaptability for street paving purposes, the wisdom of the exclusion of material known to have given satisfactory results may be questioned. The recommendation that this should be done was, so far as I was concerned, made without an appreciation of the extent to which oil asphalt has already been used."

A. W. Dow, the paving expert of the District of Columbia, says that he is perfectly satisfied that excellent asphalts can be and are made from California oils, but declares that many smaller plants are turning out, through bad management, an inferior product. A former assistant of Mr. Dow's, named Proctor, is now in charge of work in Detroit, where a heavy contract has just been awarded to South American importers, at an advance of $5 per ton, over than offered by California producers.

TO PROTECT INDUSTRY.

T. Hugh Boorman, the New York expert, who is now in the city, in the interest of California's great industry, is preparing a statement of work done on streets here to be sent East to combat the misstatements of the importers in their campaign of continued misrepresentation. The California men are willing and anxious to guarantee the quality of their asphalt and any company turning out an inferior brand, if there are any such, will have to stand the consequences or improve its product so that the poor work of an individual will not be permitted to act as detriment to the industry of the entire State.

TRUST AT WORK HERE.

Edward Turner, Superintendent of Streets of Berkeley, is in the city for the purpose of looking into the street work done in Los Angeles and Pasadena, with the home-made asphalt, with a view to determining whether it shall be used in street work at Berkeley.

It is said by asphalt men that, emboldened by its successful campaign of misrepresentation in eastern cities, the trust has gone so far as to invade California and is busy slandering the home product in San Francisco, and the northern part of the State. Much prejudice, it is said, has been aroused in this way in the northern metropolis, against the home asphalt, which, by the way, comes in large part from the southern end of the State.

Signor Caruso Heard Again!

The great Operatic Tenor adds another signal recognition of the WEBER'S Individuality and Beauty of Tone.

THE WEBER PIANO COMPANY, Aeolian Hall.
Gentlemen:
The Opera Company, as you know, will begin its tour on Monday in Boston, and I would appreciate it very much indeed if you will arrange with your representatives to provide me with one of your incomparable instruments in the various cities we will visit.
I should feel very much at loss to be without a Weber piano, as I have become very much attached to the exquisite tone of these superb instruments.
No other piano possesses a tone which blends so well with the human voice or is as satisfactory to the vocal artist as the Weber.
Appreciating your kindness, I remain, very sincerely,
ENRICO CARUSO.

The same qualities which have caused the Weber Piano to be the instrument selected by the great singers of the day, also make it the ideal piano for private homes. Its sympathetic tone, richness and beauty of voice have given it a position pre-eminent among the great pianos of the world.

Free Advice On Catarrh

The greatest specialist of the Age on the most modern Disease, which has proven the greatest scourge to mankind —His treatment is his own discovery and the result of his many years' research in foreign lands.

TREATMENT THAT IS POWERFUL, YET PLEASANT AND WONDERFUL.

The treatment controlled and used by the Zaro Medical Institute in curing diseases of the nose, throat and vocal cords and bronchial tubes is not now an experiment, but its efficiency has been proved in thousands upon thousands of cases in the past ten years.

Catarrh is an innocent appearing thing to be inexperienced, and many people think because it creeps along so gradually as to be merely annoying and offensive, but not dangerous. There never was a greater fallacy, and to the skilled practitioner and to the scientific specialist it is looked upon as the most dangerous of all types. With the head it gnaws its way to the nasal bone, and if neglected becomes chronic. With the throat it causes clogged and sore, and perhaps the permanently destroyed and that of hearing affected, it stealthily feeds its way to the throat, thence to the lungs, and here you are confronted with the diabolical, ghastly fact that Consumption has developed and your days are numbered.

Don't trifle with Catarrh—don't count it to be a friend of Consumption of which Catarrh is the advance guard. Waste no more time or money on worthless nostrums, but call personally, or send for a book, and get the benefit of the advice of specialists of twenty years' experience in the cure of Catarrh alone.

Westgate

"Where hills peep o'er hills, and Alps on Alps arise."

Soldiers' Home Adjoining Westgate on the East.

The opening of beautiful Westgate, adjoining the Soldiers' Home on the west, affords an excellent opportunity to secure a country home with surroundings that closely approach the ideal. It lies in the very heart of a vast garden district. Extensive improvements, are well under way, and consist of broad, gracefully winding driveways, well built walks, fine water system, etc. Two hundred horses are being used in the work of grading. The L. A. Pacific R. R. tracks are being extended through Westgate. When the line is completed a 35 minute service to the city will be effected. Protective building restrictions placed at from $1250 to $2000 will prevent unsightly structures from marring the appearance of this beauty spot. Houses on the "San Vincente Road" (the principal street of Westgate) will sit back 30 feet, and on all other streets 25 feet.

The fact that Westgate adjoins the grounds of the National Soldiers' Home, means more than the reader may perhaps realize. The location of this delightful retreat for the nation's lingering heroes was chosen by the government only after careful study, investigation, and close comparison of the various sections where the climatic, soil, water and other conditions might be suitable for such an institution.

As the improvements are advancing rapidly, it would be wise to select your property at Westgate NOW. Present prices are extremely moderate, and it is a question of but a short time when they will be strongly advanced. If you want a really desirable homesite, in every sense of the word "desirable"—and at the same time an iron-clad investment, you simply can't afford to overlook Westgate. Go down and see this unusual suburb TODAY—You'll not be disappointed.

"The Times" Will Furnish Them With Its Issue of Easter Sunday, April 23.

On the outside page of the "Family Section" ("Buster Brown") of The Times for Easter Sunday, April 23, will be printed ten colored designs, which by a simple process may be transferred to the eggs by the children. They are very pretty effects in bright colors, and the process of transferring them will afford amusement to the young as well as the grown folks.

GERMANS BEAT US IN LIVING.

Teutonic Savant Furnishes Figures to Show That Americans are Exhausted Early in Life.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WIESBADEN, April 19.—"Americans are shorter-lived than Germans," was the conclusion reached by Dr. B. Laquer in his paper on "Social Hygiene in the United States," submitted today to the International Congress of Medicine, now in session here.

"Although more temperate in the use of alcohol than the Germans, and working an average of 10 per cent. shorter hours, the Americans are," said Dr. Laquer, "exhausted earlier in life."

The doctor gave these figures for each thousand of the population: The number of persons from 40 to 60 years old are, in Germany, 179; in America, 170; persons over 60, in Germany, 73, America, 65.

Dr. Laquer did not undertake to explain the facts. He simply gave them as the result of inquiries which he had made during a visit to the United States in 1904.

MACEDONIAN REFORMS.

Negotiations Between the Powers Relative to Great Britain's Plans Soon to be Completed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VIENNA, April 19.—The Associated Press was informed at the Foreign Office today that the negotiations between the powers regarding Great Britain's plan for the financial reform of Macedonia will probably be terminated at the end of April. Some doubt is entertained here about Germany's attitude on the subject.

The Neue Freie Presse published an interview with Herr Von Mueller, the Austrian agent in Macedonia, charged with carrying out the Austro-Russian reform programme, who passed through Salonica recently on his way to Athens, in which he declares, among other things, that since March 1 the financial reforms in Macedonia established by Turkey through Hilmi Pasha have been working very well, all the officials and other officers receiving their salaries promptly through the Ottoman Bank. He expresses the opinion that this system will have the most successful results.

The Foreign Office here does not deny statements to the effect that Herr Von Mueller will not return to Macedonia.

How Old is Your Steinway Piano?

We wish to impress upon everybody who owns a Steinway Upright or Grand, from ten to forty years old, that we are ready to purchase it at any time at a fair price.

We have more calls for second-hand Steinways than we can fill. Many musical people who are limited in the amount they can expend prefer a second-hand Steinway to a new instrument of any other make.

A Steinway is always of value, no matter how long you have used it; and the price of a new one is more reasonable than that of any other piano, if quality counts in the reckoning.

For illustration of this, we invite you to examine our new model, the

A THOUSAND FOR MUSEUM.

Mrs. Hart's Surprise Gift to Club Women.

Starter for That Art Hall for Los Angeles.

Proposition to Unite With Archeologists.

Visions of a permanent art museum floated before the eyes of the committee of club women called together yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Housh, president of the Ruskin Art Club in the art clubrooms.

A donation of $1000 toward the project by Mrs. Henry Wilson Hart, one of the new members of the Ruskin Club, came like a gift from the skies. While the women were yet discussing ways and means to obtain funds for cooperating with the Southwest Archeological Society in building the room for a permanent art gallery, Mrs. Hart modestly made out her check, giving it to Mrs. Housh, who was so overcome that she could scarcely find words to tell the other members who hung expectant upon her words.

Charles F. Lummis appeared before the women, who included presidents of the five leading clubs and a number of other prominent club women. His proposition was that the club women unite in building a permanent art gallery in connection with the building which the Southwest Archeological Society proposes to erect in the near future. This building, if the art gallery is incorporated, will be called the Museum of the Southwest.

The club women will then become members of the Archeological Society, and will have the interest of that society added to their many others, while the business of the museum will be under the direction of the Archeological Society, with a committee of women to offer suggestions.

Mr. Lummis said that the museum must be taken from beneath the feet of traffic. "It must be on some great hill around which nothing can be built to obscure the horizon. We already have one hill offered us, and we shall have others." Mr. Lummis's great object is to remove the museum from the city, and put it where it will be in such a magnificent site that the growth of the city cannot disturb the view or beauty of situation. Mr. Lummis said: "I'm not a trust buster, and I don't care if Henry Huntington gets a few more 5-cent fares, taking people to that museum.

"We haven't any desire to make the art hall subservient to the Archeological Society. The only tyranny we will offer the women will be to help them keep out chromos which generous friends may thrust upon them."

A. F. Rosenheim, president of the Southern California Chapter of the American Institution of Artists and Architects, offered his assistance.

The remainder of the afternoon was given up to the discussion of just how to go about the project, and though the women were most enthusiastic, they were somewhat at sea. A committee was appointed by Mrs. Housh consisting of the president of each club to meet tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt suggested that all the women of the federated clubs of the State might form a society of "Women of the Southwest." There being 5800 women club members, the problem of raising funds would thus be somewhat simplified.

The $1000 donated through the generosity of an art-loving soul, was greatly appreciated, and at the close of the session dozens of eager women pressed around Mrs. Hart, thanking her for her gift.

The committee which will meet today consists of Mrs. W. H. Housh of the Ruskin Art Club, Mrs. Frank W. King of the Ebell, Mrs. Roy Jones of the Friday Morning Club, and Mrs. H. C. Gower of the Wednesday Morning Club.

Mrs. Hart became a resident of Los Angeles about a year ago, coming here from New York. She has a handsome home on Burlington avenue, filled with rare and beautiful art treasures. She has spent much time in the art capitals of Europe and has made a wonderful collection which probably is the finest in the city. Besides being a woman of great wealth, she is a genuine connoisseur.

LILT OF A SONG CHARMS CARUSO.

TENOR BESTOWS TRIBUTE ON LOCAL COMPOSER.

Famed Italian, Captivated by Orchestra Leader Lowinsky's Version of Gounod Selection, Sings in Unison, Insists on Encore and Then Purchases the Score.

It was for a Los Angeles girl, Edna Darch, to charm Calvé with her wondrous voice—it remained for a Los Angeles orchestra leader to cast a spell over Enrico Caruso, the famed Italian tenor.

As a result, Caruso left the city last night with a new song on his lips and a pleasing addition to his repertory.

With Sembrich and a number of other artists who took part in the presentation of "Lucia" Tuesday night, Caruso was dining last evening at the Angelus grill, preparatory to their start for the East.

The orchestra, under the direction of Director Lowinsky, had played two or three numbers on the programme, and the opening strains of another selection hardly had floated into the big room when the tenor was seen to take notice.

Caruso first turned his head toward the orchestra, his expressive features lighting up; then, while beating time with a finger as if leading the musicians through the score, his lips moved, and in a low voice he followed the music for some time, pausing in apparent bewilderment at passages that seemed unfamiliar to him.

At the completion of the work, Caruso sent a message to Lowinsky, who came to the side of the singer. A few words passed, when Lowinsky returned to his stand and the selection was repeated.

Again Caruso called for the orchestra leader, who went back and gathered up the music, returning to place it in the hands of Caruso, who rolled it up and left the dining-room.

Lowinsky explained later that the music which had struck the fancy of the tenor was an adaptation by the orchestra leader of Gounod's "To Spring," the arrangement of which seemed just suited to the voice of Caruso.

Lowinsky was prouder of the compliment paid him than of the $10 gold piece that had been slipped into his hand as payment for the music.

AT COUNTRY CLUB.

Golfers' Tourney Arranged for Saturday, at Match Play, and Winner Hard to Pick.

The Green Committee of the Country Club has arranged another tourney for Saturday, at match play. The entry is very heavy and for convenience it has been decided to play off the event in "flights" according to the handicaps of the contestants. Each class will play until it shows a winner, then the fortunate ones will go on until an ultimate tournament winner develops, play continuing through Sunday.

The allotment of handicaps makes it difficult to pick a winner, and as several dozen players are eligible to compete, it is thought likely that the turnout of golfers will be one of the largest seen this season.

Entries will close at the clubhouse at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. The Green Committee has decided to render contestants ineligible after the loss of one match; for failure to play Saturday, or failure to play at least two matches per week after April 23 as long as two other unbeaten players remain in the contestant's class.

Secret Preparations for the Liquor Election.

Taking for Granted That the Polling Will Come.

Quiet preparations are being made for a struggle between the saloon men and the anti-saloon faction, as reports from the City Hall point to the holding of a special election to decide the question championed on one side by Gen. Charles F. A. Last and on the other by Dr. Ervin S. Chapman.

Both sides declare that there is no doubt but the issue will be decided in their favor by the popular vote.

While the opposing factions assert that they have not yet started an active campaign, men in large numbers continue to flock to the County Clerk's office to register as voters.

These men do not usually come alone, but are accompanied by some one who seems to be interested in having their name appear on the Great Register. In the past week fifty men have each day registered as new voters or had their names transferred by the County Clerk.

"About eight hundred registrations and transfers have been made in the last month," said County Clerk Brown, yesterday afternoon, "and they are coming in faster every day. Some say they want to vote against the saloon, while others express their desire to vote for it, and still others keep their opinions to themselves.

Dr. Chapman, in speaking of the proposed election to decide the saloon question, said:

"I believe that our cause is already won by the work that has been done by the Anti-Saloon League in the last year, but we will not stop at that. I have mapped out such a plan of campaign that the victory will be a landslide, and not merely a marginal one. I have the name of every voter in every precinct and ward in Los Angeles, and a strong organization in each. Our campaign will be conducted along the line of personal solicitation, and every voter in the city will be seen by one of the representatives of our organization. As soon as the special election is decided upon we will see that every voter who looks on our cause with favor is registered in a legal manner for it's hell and damnation that we are fighting, and nothing will be left undone to down its cause.

"While I intend to take active leadership of the campaign myself, I expect to call to my assistance Rev. D. McG. Grandier of San Bernardino, R. H. Young of San Diego, and Rev. J. H. Scott of Los Angeles.

"Of course, we are watching the opposition closely," said F. E. Fisk, manager of Gen. Last's liquor store on North Main street, yesterday afternoon. "We have done nothing toward getting voters to register. There will be plenty of time for that sort of thing after it has been decided to hold a special election.

"I would like to see this question come to a vote. If we are in a law-breaking business, I would like to know it through the votes of the people of Los Angeles at the polls.

"Naturally, we are going to take active measures in protecting our business interests. We will urge voters favorable to us to register, but thus far all action in that direction has been done by the opposition. I venture to say that the per cent. of signers to the election petition, now in the hands of the City Clerk, who vote for our cause will not be small.

"There has been no split between the liquor dealers and brewers, as has been reported. As soon as it has been decided to hold a special election, I expect there will be a meeting and an immediate plan of action will be mapped out."

HARMLESS LUNATIC.

Happy Sam McKenzie Helps Him to Find Nan Patterson—Frightened Typewriter.

Early yesterday morning a woman telephoned to the Police Station, with a scare in her voice as big as a circus elephant, that a crazy man was loose in the house and she wanted a policeman to catch him.

The call came from a rooming-house on West First street, near Olive, and "Happy Sam" McKenzie was sent up to corral the wild man. He found him on the top floor of the house hunting for Nan Patterson. John Lillig is the name he gave, and while he was clearly out of his head, he was perfectly harmless. He told McKenzie that he was sure Nan Patterson was in that house, and he was determined to find her. He was easily induced to go to the jail and take a look about there, as it was the most likely place to find a lady of that name.

Later in the day, as McKenzie was taking the fellow up to the County Jail, when the two reached the corner of Broadway and Franklin street, Lillig suddenly made a break for the door to the office of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company. Despite the efforts of McKenzie he went through the door.

"There she is; there's Nan Patterson!" exclaimed the crazy man, pointing to a young lady sitting at a typewriter.

He tugged hard in his efforts to get at the young woman, who turned pale with fright and red with embarrassment by turns.

McKenzie finally quieted his prisoner by telling him to come along, that he knew where Nan Patterson was and the young lady at whom he was pointing was only her sister. Lillig was lodged in the County Jail to await examination on a lunacy charge.

NOT "MRS. EDWARDS."

Identity of Dashing Southern Woman, Arrested Here Last Week, Comes to Light.

Mrs. E. Langworthy is said to be the true name of the dashing southern woman who, masquerading as Mrs. L. Edwards, was arrested by local detectives last Friday, and who is still in the City Jail.

According to a dispatch received from Gulf Port, Miss., last night, the woman, who is the wife of Ed Langworthy, a contractor on the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad, left home about two weks ago on what her husband supposed would be a few days' excursion to New Orleans.

Later developments disclosed the fact that the woman had drawn $300 from the bank, saved by herself and husband, and that L. E. Devall, a lveryman, had disappeared also, leaving a wife.

Langworthy and his wife originally came from Bradford, Pa. The husband is en route to this city, having left Gulf Port yesterday morning.

The police say Devall was in Los Angeles several days before they located the woman, but the couple quarreled, and the man left for parts unknown. They came down from San Francisco on the steamer Queen, April 8, and lived together for a short time on West Twelfth street. Devall traveled under an assumed name.

When searched at the Police Station Mrs. Langworthy had about $2950 in her possession.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

HARRIMAN CHIEF ARRIVES TODAY.

TRAFFIC DIRECTOR STUBBS ON SALT LAKE MISSION?

Announcement of Operating Schedule of New Line Expected to be Simultaneous With Coming of Transportation Official—Jefferson Street-car Extension Opens.

J. C. Stubbs, traffic director of the Harriman lines, is expected to arrive today from Chicago. At the same time, the working schedule for the operation of through trains on the new Salt Lake line will be announced, together with the exact date on which traffic over this line will begin moving. This opening may be postponed two weeks from May 1.

Officials of the Salt Lake line would not admit yesterday that the coming of Mr. Stubbs has anything to do with the plans for the opening of the short road to the Utah metropolis, but the facts are considered significant by local railroad men, in view of the oft-repeated assertion that the Harriman interests control the new Clark road.

While it is generally conceded that the Union Pacific from Salt Lake will be the preferential route for business to and from the Clark road, there still is a feeling that the Colorado Midland and the Denver and Rio Grande, both Gould roads, may, if they have not done so, effect an arrangement that will be advantageous to them.

The Union Pacific hauled all the steel and much of the other material that was used in building the Salt Lake line through to Daggett, thus indicating the preference of the builders for that Harriman road. The supposition is that the same friendly bonds will continue when regular freight and passenger business begins to move.

The prediction is made by traffic men that the Union Pacific will expect to receive the great bulk of the eastbound business from the Salt Lake line at Salt Lake City. Salt Lake agents, it is asserted, will be expected to render a strict accounting of all business moved and, in cases where the Union Pacific fails to get the haul, to explain why, just as Southern Pacific agents now are obliged to do.

Railroad men are on the qui vive as to the plans for the management of the Salt Lake line in the event that the Harriman interests come out into the open in the operation thereof.

In view of the tendency to amalgamate the various properties of the big system under one head, the traffic men say it would be strange if an expensive executive staff were to be maintained here, at San Francisco and at Salt Lake, when a great saving could be accomplished by a closer consolidation.

NEW JEFFERSON LINE.

RED CARS TO CITY LIMITS.

Interurban cars were operated for the first time along West Jefferson street, yesterday afternoon. The work of putting in the curve was finished at noon and the first of the big red cars was sent out soon afterward to the city limits beyond Western avenue.

The change in the street car service has long been desired by citizens of the growing southwest, and the section lying west of Vermont avenue and south of Adams street now is supplied with adequate car service.

The green cars formerly operated on Jefferson street will run on a fifteen-minute schedule and will alternate with the red cars. Only half as many of the red cars will run to the Vermont avenue terminus, and residents on Vermont avenue south of Jefferson street, instead of benefiting by the change, will have only a fifteen-minute service, whereas, according to the previous arrangement, the cars ran every seven and one-half minutes.

AX TO GRIND.

Why a Prosperous Downey Baker Stole a Grindstone Down on Alameda Street.

Henry Schmitzbauer a Downey baker, had an ax to grind, but no grindstone.

While driving along Alameda street near Slauson avenue yesterday afternoon Schmitzbauer saw a grindstone mounted on a frame in J. L. Wagner's lumber yard, and he immediately thought of that dull ax out at his Downey home.

When he supposed the coast was perfectly clear, Schmitzbauer placed the stone in his wagon and started to drive away. An employé in the yard noticed the man's peculiar actions, however, and he detained Schmitzbauer until the police could be notified. Detectives Smith and Dixon took charge of the man and locked him up.

Schmitzbauer is said to be well supplied with this world's goods. He owns a house and lot on West Twelfth street in this city and other property in Downey. He said he didn't know why he took the grindstone.

LITTLE LIGHT ON BOWLING.

New York Clearinghouse is Appealed to.

Will Know Whether Mining Man Left Policy.

New Inquiry Fails to Sustain Murder Theory.

The mystery surrounding the alleged $10,000 life insurance policy left by Thomas Richard Bowling to his daughter, and no trace of which can be found, is to be speedily solved.

Inquiry was addressed yesterday by the local representative of one of the large insurance companies to the New York life insurance clearinghouse to determine whether or not the life of

FRANK A. BURBRIDGE.

Thomas Richard Bowling was insured for $10,000, or in any amount.

Bowling, as told in yesterday's Times, was the mining man and carpenter who came to his death March 17 from a fracture of the skull believed to have been sustained in a fall headlong down a flight of steps in the Grand Opera-house saloon on the night of March 13. In the last five years, during which he lived in this city, Bowling had told many persons that his life was insured for $10,000 in favor of his daughter, Miss Ella Bowling of Birmingham, Ala., (now Mrs. Frank A. Burbidge of Pensacola, Fla.) As stated yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Burbidge journeyed from Pensacola to Los Angeles to investigate the death of the latter's father, and officers are assisting in the search for trace of the missing policy and evidences of Bowling's ownership of presumably valuable mining property in Arizona or New Mexico.

The idea that a man who paid only $3 a month room rent should have carried $10,000 life insurance is scouted by some; yet Bowling was a man who one day would show a handful of $20 gold pieces and a fat roll of greenbacks, and another day borrow 10 cents from a fellow lodger. If he carried a policy the New York clearinghouse will know it; if his talk of leaving a legacy of $10,000 to his daughter was without foundation, that fact will be ascertained from the clearinghouse.

HIS WAR RECORD.

Yesterday's investigation brought to light a letter touching Bowling's war record. It was written to a Los Angeles attorney by a niece of the dead man, Miss Flake Bowling of Roswell, N. M., and contains the following statements: "Thomas Richard Bowling belonged to Co. C, Dawson's Grays, Third Georgia Regiment, Confederate Army, and fought through the war. He also had three brothers and his father in the Confederate Army; one was killed at Gettysburg, another died of wounds received in battle, and the third (my father, who was also wounded) is still living." It may be gathered from the letter that Bowling "came of good old Southern stock."

FOUL PLAY UNLIKELY.

A reopening of the inquiry into Bowling's death has failed to substantiate the suggestion of foul play in the circumstances surrounding it. D. Childs, a representative of one of the breweries, says he saw Bowling just before his entering the Grand Operahouse saloon; that Bowling was much under the influence of liquor, so that he stumbled and fell at the corner of First and Main streets in front of two women, who screamed. Childs says he crossed the street and accosted Bowling, saying: "Captain, if I was you I'd go home now," and that Bowling replied: "That's right. I'm going home."

A moment later the miner went into the saloon and Childs, who followed him, says he heard the noise of his falling down the steps into the basement.

Autopsy Surgeon Campbell gives it as his opinion that Bowling's death, from fracture of the skull, was the result of falling and striking his head.

Not much headway has been made in the effort to fix the location of Bowling's mine, or mining property, in Arizona or New Mexico, beyond the statements printed in The Times of yesterday. Nor is there any clew as yet to the identity of the man of whom Bowling spoke on the fateful thirteenth of March (to his landlady, Mrs. Riley) as having agreed to buy his mine. It was to meet this man, ostensibly, that Bowling left his home at No. 429 South Flower street that day, and in his talk he gave the impression that he and this unnamed person were to start that day on a trip to the property.

When searched at the Police Station, after being hauled there in the patrol wagon from the Main-street saloon, Bowling's pockets were empty of money or valuables of any description; and from numerous notations in his pocket memorandum-book nothing has been deciphered to throw light on his presumptive estate.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION.

The Shakespears Section of the Wednesday Morning Club met yesterday morning with Mrs. M. M. Adams in the chair. The study was "Much Ado About Nothing," and the second and third acts were discussed. After the Shakespeare class a club luncheon was served and at 2 o'clock Mrs. Lou V. Chapin gave a lecture on current events.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Officials who yesterday took a trip to Riverside to inspect the oiled drives of that city last night expressed the opinion that oil as a dust eradicator is not a success.

W. D. Stewart, a mining man who lives on Mateo street, yesterday demanded of the City Clerk that his name be stricken from the anti-saloon petition. Stewart alleges that he never signed the petition and threatens to swear to a perjury charge against the circulator.

The disappearance of Mrs. Ella Thurber's diamonds is being investigated in Judge Smith's court, where F. Oleson who is charged with having embezzled them is having his trial.

In the Police Court yesterday Pompey Smith, a colored criminal who has served two terms in the penitentiary, was arraigned for assaulting F. Cunningham with a knife.

W. W. Weaver, colored, proprietor of the Columbia Club, paid a fine of $300 yesterday for selling liquor without a license, while his white assistant went to jail.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DOUBTFUL ABOUT OILED STREETS.

RIVERSIDE DRIVES PAVED BUT COATED WITH DUST.

Committee Finds That Oil is a Poor Substitute for Water but That it Makes Excellent Paving Material. Say Local Specifications are Too Liberal.

"We have been applying too much oil to our streets and for the wrong purpose. For surfacing streets oil is a success; for laying dust it is not entirely satisfactory."

This is the way Street Superintendent Hanley last night epitomized the result of the observations made by the city officials of the oiled streets of Riverside.

Seven Councilmen, the City Engineer and the Superintendent of Streets yesterday morning went to Riverside and spent the day inspecting the oiled streets of that city, which are said to be the finest in California.

Riverside county was one of the first to experiment with oil on country roads for the purpose of laying the dust. Both the city and county of Riverside now use a heavy oil containing 60 per cent. asphalt base for paving streets.

"The results attained by the use of that heavy oil have convinced me that we have a great deal yet to learn about oiled streets," said Superintendent Hanley last night. "The streets of Riverside where that oil has been used closely resemble asphalt pavements. In fact it was difficult for me to believe that some of them had not been paved just as our asphalt streets here have been. They are as smooth as our paved streets, which have been used for a year.

"But the streets are not dustless. The people of Los Angeles would not stand for as much dust as we found today on the Riverside drives. The oil has paved the streets with an asphalt-like coating. The dust gathers on it just as it does on the asphalt streets here. I do not see that it will reduce the sprinkling bill."

Mr. Hanley said that the manner of application differs materially from that which has been attempted here. "Our specifications call for three gallons of oil to the square yard," he said; "there they use but one gallon to the yard. Here the custom has been to rake the surface of the street so that the oil would percolate into the gravel. There they clean all the dust from a street before the oil is applied and it is so heavy that, mixed with sand, it forms an asphalt surface.

"I find that oil is never applied there to a street surfaced only with natural soil. In every case gravel or crushed rock is used. I am in favor of discouraging the application of oil to natural soil here. I believe it is a costly mistake."

Kern, Hiller and Blanchard, the Councilmanic Board of Public Works made some inquiries regarding the expense of applying the oil. They found that it cost almost as much as it does here—in fact it is about as expensive as surfacing a street with asphalt.

The seven Councilmen who went on the trip, did not find anything to encourage them in the hope that the use of oil on gravel sreets will suffice to lay the dust without the accompaniment of the sprinkling carts.

One result of the investigation, however, will probably be an early amendment of the present specifications for oiling streets, reducing the amount of oil to be applied.

SOMEONE BLUNDERED.

ANTI-SALOON PETITION.

W. D. Stewart, a mining man who lives on Mateo street, yesterday morning called at the City Clerk's office to demand that his name be stricken from the anti-saloon petition.

Mr. Stewart assured the deputies that he did not sign the petition, that he was in Arizona during the time the petition was in circulation and that it was never presented to him.

City Clerk Lelande, acting under advice from the City Attorney, said that he has no authority to strike any names from the petition. He called Mr. Stewart's attention to the fact that one of the circulators of the petition took oath before a notary that the signature on the petition is that of W. D. Stewart. The street number tallies with that given by Mr. Stewart when he registered last fall.

Mr. Stewart left the Clerk's office vowing that he would find who it is that has sworn that he signed a petition he never saw. He intimated that there might be things doing after he finds out.

OPPOSE BOND ISSUE.

FINANCE COMMITTEE TO ACT.

The Finance Committee will this afternoon consider the resolution referred to them by the Council last Monday, for holding a special election to vote on a proposal to issue $2,500,000 bonds for the purpose of constructing a municipal gas plant.

While the members of the committee are willing to "be shown," they do not take kindly to the proposal to vote so large a bond issue at the present time.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FATHERLY SORT WAS OLESON.

WHY MRS. THURBER GAVE HIM HER JEWELS.

She Tells About it on the Witness Stand in Famous Embezzlement Case—Her Sister Thought She Was Rather Indiscreet, to Say the Least. Case Continued.

Mrs. Ella K. Thurber accounted in part for picking up with a stranger on the street by pleading extreme nervousness. In telling yesterday how this ready-made-to-order friend got away with her diamonds she appeared a wee bit flustrated, but she had apparently got over the worst of her nervousness.

It was in Judge Smith's court, and John F. Oleson was being tried for embezzlement of two diamond rings, a pair of diamond solitaire earrings and a brilliant brooch of the "flash" order of jewelry, being valued at $850. Attorney W. O. Morton was associated with Deputy District Attorney McComas as special counsel for the prosecution, while Wilford M. Peck and Chester Smith appeared for the defense.

There was little of interest until Mrs. Thurber went upon the witness stand to tell how it came about that she handed the diamonds over to Oleson. Mrs. Thurber is a tall woman and was garbed in somber black save that her hat was covered with a mass of scarlet poppies that made a bit of brilliant coloring. Playing uneasily with the lorgnette attached to a gold chain around her neck, she had a troublesome time explaining the numerous little details of her acquaintance with Oleson.

Mrs. Thurber first made the acquaintance on Sunday, December 4, in a very informal manner. She and her sister were coming from the Western Union Telegraph office when he approached and spoke. Mrs. Thurber said that Oleson professed to know them. In order to become even better acquainted the trio went to Levy's and in a private room had dinner together. Mrs. Thurber said that she was distressed because she was away from her husband and was considering the advisability of getting a divorce from him. She confided these private troubles to Oleson, and as a "fatherly friend" he advised with her. Each day during the week save Monday, Mrs. Thurber and the fatherly friend were more or less together, and Mrs. Thurber's nervousness was in a measure certified to by her moving from place to place and stopping only a night or two in any one hotel.

While at the Munn Hotel Mrs. Thurber said that she gave her jewelry to Oleson to place in the safe deposit vault of the Southern California Bank. Later he reported that he had been too late to put the diamonds in the safe deposit, but had placed the package in the safe at the Van Nuys Hotel on Broadway. Mrs. Thurber said that her sister then learned for the first time that she had handed over the jewels to Oleson, and was very indignant. The sister, Mrs. Ada Wood, testifying in her own behalf, said that she was surprised that her sister should have given the valuables to an entire stranger, and told Mrs. Thurber to get them back at once and give them to her or their mother to keep.

But the jewels were not brought back. Oleson was staying at the same abiding place as Mrs. Thurber and her sister, and on the following Sunday they went out to the hotel at Monrovia. Here as elsewhere Mrs. Thurber saw fit to pass under an assumed name. At the hotel Munn she was Mrs. Leonard and again she was Mrs. Rothschild, but in either case she was receiving the fatherly attention of Oleson. At Monrovia the defendant and Mrs. Thurber left the sister and went for a walk. The sister thought they were away about twenty minutes, but wouldn't swear they were away over an hour.

Mrs. Thurber finally arrived at the determination that she would return to her husband, who is a San Francisco contractor, though she was afraid of him. Oleson said: "That's right, go back and get your block knocked off." Mrs. Thurber thought that was a very impolite way of expressing oneself, though he had always been very gentlemanly. But whether she went or remained she kept urging the return of the jewels, and finally went to inquire about them at the Van Nuys Hotel herself. But Oleson had by that time pawned the two rings for $250 and had skipped to San Francisco, where he was arrested later.

The further hearing in the case will be continued today.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

WHITNEY DIVORCE. Mrs. Lulu W. Whitney was granted a divorce from Arthur D. W. Whitney by Judge James yesterday on the ground of desertion. The parties were married at San Bernardino on October 17, 1900, and on December 17, 1902, the husband abandoned his wife and home.

COLONIZE LAND. The Harbor Land Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, of which $27,000 has been subscribed. The directors are: H. H. Sinclair, Pasadena; D. Johnston, Colton; E. J. Judson and F. C. Hornby, Redlands; G. B. Ellis, J. E. Fishburn, W. D. Woolwine, O. A. Trippet and J. C. Drake, Los Angeles.

CASHED HIS THROAT. J. E. Spell was examined before Judge Gibbs yesterday on an insanity charge and was remanded to the County Hospital for one week. Spell had been heavily drinking and then started out on a prospecting trip across the desert. He went crazy and thought a band of men were after him to lynch him, and in trying to circumvent them he took a brcadax and gashed his throat. The blood-letting did some good, as Spell is apparently all right again mentally and swears that he will forswear liquor from now on.

SLEEPY SICKNESS. C. P. Parker, a colored man, was committed to the State Hospital by Judge Gibbs yesterday. The man came from Seattle some time ago and recently fell into a state of melancholia. For hours together he sits staring vacantly before him without uttering a word and apparently in a sleepy stupor.

MERELY HYSTERICAL. Etta Roethel, the young domestic in the home of Rev. E. S. McKittrick at Pasadena, who suddenly became mentally unbalanced, was yesterday committed to the State Hospital. When the girl saw Mr McKittrick come forward in court she was highly delighted, for she felt that she was about to be released. But the nurse at the County Hospital reported to the examiners that the patient had been violent, and so it was thought to be better to send her to Patton for treatment.

Cows' Milk Was Intended for Calves.

Dr. Henry Dwight Chapin, the noted New York specialist, recently said: "Cow's milk placed in a baby's stomach is really a foreign body; substances should be added to it to make it readily digested and to add to its nutritive value." Sunbright's California Food does this to perfection

SHORT DEFENSE IN FAMED BANK CASE.

THE first day of the Hays defense had little but squabbles.

The entire afternoon was taken up with the long-fought motion on the part of Hays's lawyers to have the court withdraw a part or all of the charges against Hays. They contended that the charges, particularly the charges of embezzlement, had not been made out by the government.

At the end of the day, Judge Wellborn took the matter under advisement.

The chief sensations were in the incidental remarks of Attorney Chapman.

He made one at which the spectators pricked up their ears.

The lawyers for the defense and the lawyers for the prosecution had been indulging in one of these, "Do-you-mean-to-contend-sir" dialogues.

They asked Mr. Valentine if he meant to contend that Hays was responsible for entries that might have been made by others in the bank.

"Certainly," said the prosecutor, "He was in charge of the bank, if he had guilty knowledge of the acts of his subordinates——"

"But suppose," said Mr. Chapman stingingly, "that it was not an employé who made the false entries, but a superior officer in the bank——"

Tableau!

ANOTHER SURPRISE.

Mr. Chapman also occasioned surprise when he stated that the defense would guarantee not to occupy more than an hour in the presentation of its testimony, "if," he added, "we decide to introduce any."

He meant in addition to what was introduced before the squabbling began yesterday morning.

The first event of yesterday was the arraignment of Low Sam, the steward of the Riverside Country Club, who was arrested for perjury.

Hays rallied to his defense; got the surety company, which bonded him to also furnish $1500 for the Chinaman; engaged Earl Rogers to defend him.

After which the testimony.

M. J. Twogood, the successor of Hays in the bank, was an unwilling witness for the defense. He was called upon to identify a letter written by himself to the Wells-Fargo Bank of San Francisco.

The letter was written after Hays's dismissal from the bank; it commended him in the highest terms. Twogood mentioned, as his only failing, the affair of the Salt Lake land frauds, which Twogood wrote of in exceedingly mild terms. The letter made the positive statement, that, with the exception of a loan of $5000 properly secured, Hays owed the bank nothing.

Twogood identified the letter, but stated that it was written a long time before the defalcations of Hays had been discovered; it was written just after Hays's enforced resignation.

HAYS'S "INSTRUCTIONS."

The defense brought into evidence the following letter written by Hays to Judge Noyes, just prior to the arrest of the former:

"Show this to W. A. P. and tell him that I am ready to do anything that is right. Get a change of venue to your court as quickly as possible today and I will make a bond, giving security for my appearance. I wait anxiously, for when the bond is made I will telephone to the Sheriff and fix everything. Don't get it up where I have to chase all night to get the amount. H. T. H.

"W. A. P." referred to his attorney, W. A. Purington.

REMITTANCE SHEETS.

A great legal struggle ensued as to the right of the defense to bring into evidence the voluminous "remittance sheets," which set forth the business from day to day had between the bank and its clients.

The prosecution protested against the admission of the remittance sheets as a whole, although items therefrom might be admitted. They were finally admitted.

Today will probably be the last day of the testimony.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

EBONY CARVER POMPEY SMITH.

TWICE IN THE PEN STARTS ON THIRD TRIP.

Slashes a Man's Cheek With Ready Pocket Knife—Notorious Columbia Club Closed and Boss Pays Heavy Fine—White Ally Remains in Jail. Auto Drivers Pay.

Pompey Smith is again in limbo. He is a bad negro who has served two terms in the penitentiary for assault with a deadly weapon, and has started in with the very best possible chance of serving a third one.

Yesterday morning Smith and F. Cunningham got into a dispute at the corner of Second and San Pedro streets over a dollar. Cunningham gave the angry negro a dollar to save trouble but the latter demanded more, and when it wasn't forthcoming he slashed Cunningham's face with a knife. Officer Lennon arrested Smith and he was arraigned before Justice Austin on a charge of assault to murder, his examination being set for Thursday.

Cuningham's wound was dressed at the Receiving Hospital and was found to be not of a serious nature, though it will leave an ugly scar. The face seems to be a favorite mark of Smith's, as the first term of two years he served was for making a slash of the same kind across the cheek of Johnny Manning.

BOOZE SELLERS FINED.

GRIEF IN BLACK AND WHITE.

A mis-matched team of booze-sellers was W. Weaver, colored, and Ben Franklin, white. They were arrested at a place known as Weaver's Columbia Club, No. 321½ East First street, charged with selling liquor without a license, and got a knock-out dose from Justice Rose.

It appeared from the evidence that Weaver stood behind a bar in the rear of the so-called club, and dished out the beer and whisky over the counter while Franklin, his white ally, served it at the tables.

The place has been notorious and has been under surveillance for some time. Justice Rose was loaded for the occasion and handed out a sentence of $200 or 100 days to each of the defendants. The irony of the situation is found in the fact that the colored man promptly dug up the cash and paid himself out, but the white man who had allowed himself to be the tool of the other, looks forward to more than three months on the chain-gang.

POLICE COURT BRIEFS.

AUTO DRIVERS PAYING.

Two automobile drivers, who exceeded the speed limit, were fined yesterday in the Police Courts. Justice Austin assessed $50 against S. W. Bixby, and Justice Rose the same amount against James B. Pell.

H. C. Henchen who beat a horse with a knotty limb of a tree as large as a man's arm, paid a fine of $20 in Justice Austin's court, on complaint of Officer Zimmer.

Ray Dean, charged with making away with the horse and buggy of Tom Savage, was yesterday held for trial in the Superior Court, on a grand larceny charge. Bail was fixed at $1500.

A Fair Question and a Hard One.

SIERRA MADRE, April 18.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In reading of the effort to remove the saloon from Los Angeles, the question comes to my mind: Where, if this is accomplished, will those who frequent the saloons find social recreation, in their working clothes, with their pipes and games, free from restraint and patronizing condescension?

In the dives as do the soldiers since the canteen was abolished without previously providing more attractive resorts?

What is the measure of responsibility of those who abolish saloon and canteen without by effort and sacrifice providing more attractive recreation?

If temperance reformers use their means and ability to provide more attractive resorts, may they not, if not abolish the saloon, render it innocuous?

FRIGHTENED CHILD.

Came Here from Little Rock, Ark., in Search of Aunt, but Lost Her Address.

Hatense Simpson, 11 years old, traveled alone from Little Rock, Ark., to Los Angeles in search of her aunt, Mrs. Rosa Barnes, but when the little girl arrived in the city she had forgotten the address.

Late yesterday afternoon the child was found hatless, wandering about the streets, near the County Hospital. She said she had had nothing to eat for two days, and she was crying pitifully from cold and hunger. She was taken into the hospital and made comfortable.

The little girl says she was placed on the train in Little Rock by her father, with directions concerning her aunt's address, but when she began to search for the aunt the big city confused her, and she was unable to find her way. She boarded a car and became worse rattled. Finally, leaving the car she forgot to take her hat and valise. The child was frightened almost out of her wits.

The hospital authorities will care for her until the aunt can be located.

FORTUNE COMES TO OLD SOLDIER.

SISTER FINDS LOST BROTHER IN THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

Welcome Fenner, Disinherited by His Father Because of Quarrel Years Ago, Will Receive His Just Share of the Family Estate, Consisting of Land in Rhode Island.

Leaving home because of a quarrel with his father; disinherited by his parent for his willfulness; joining the volunteers in the Union Army for the Civil War, and serving in such bloody engagements that only a few of the comrades in his regiment were left; coming West, making a small fortune in business, and through reverses losing it again, finally sinking all his remaining property in an accident on the Columbia River, and drifting southward until a shelter opened for him in the Santa Monica Soldiers' Home; and then after all these years, discovered through the searchings of a sister in order that his rightful portion of the family property might be restored to him—this, in brief, is the history of Welcome Fenner of the Soldiers' Home.

Reads like a romance, doesn't it? But many a curious tale is unfolded in the lives of these hundreds of veterans who are spending the days under the great roof-tree provided by Uncle Sam upon the slopes of the Cahuenga Valley that overlook the ocean.

Last week Welcome Fenner sat and gossiped with his comrades, or strolled about the confines of the grounds in resigned hopelessness of any change in his condition. His excursions were confined to the limits of the Home grounds for, as a matter of fact, Fenner was embarrassingly short of change, and couldn't afford to make the little trips to Santa Monica and Los Angeles that his more fortunate comrades found the means to indulge in. Fenner didn't get any pension, and there was no quarterly stipend coming to him for car fares and other extras not provided by Uncle Sam.

After years of separation from every member of his family, Fenner is about to come into his own—and comrades at the Home say that this may run up comfortably into the thousands of dollars. Fenner himself doesn't state what amount he expects from the family estate.

After Fenner received his discharge from the service—he was a lieutenant in a company of Rhode Island cavalry—he had no news of his people at home, and for years he was located in various western States and Territories, finally coming to the Soldiers' Home.

The father died, and immediately thereafter Fenner's sister set to work to locate her long-absent brother. Just how she got trace of him is not known; but a few days ago she requested the Merchants Trust Company of this city to investigate for her whether the Welcome Fenner at the Soldiers' Home was the brother she was seeking.

A member of the company visited the home and made an investigation which soon located the man, and on Tuesday Fenner came to Los Angeles to have photographs taken and to send on other proofs of his right to an interest in the estate in Rhode Island.

LIVELY ECHO OF FRAUD CHARGES.

RODMAN-WISE CREDITORS FAIL TO ELECT TRUSTEE.

Secretary of Wholesalers' Board of Trade Finally Named by Referee Helm—Assets Fall Appreciably Short of Debts—Attempt to Prevent Immediate Sale of Estate.

Charges of fraud and embezzlement brought some time ago by the creditors of the Rodman-Wise Company, the wholesale jewelry firm recently forced into the bankruptcy courts by claim-holders, found a lively echo yesterday in a meeting of creditors before Referee Lynn Helm. The outcome of this meeting was the naming of W. C. Mushet, secretary of the Los Angeles Wholesalers' Board of Trade, to be trustee of the defunct firm.

The Rodman-Wise estate is burdened with sixty-five creditors, whose total claims aggregate $17,563.28. The receiver's inventory shows the estate to be worth only $15,121.25. So there will be some "losing out."

The creditors filed their petition in involuntary bankruptcy against the Rodman-Wise Company, February 28, and Judge Wellborn in the United States Court at once appointed Mr. Mushet receiver. Yesterday's meeting was for the election of a trustee to represent them in the administration of the estate. The bankruptcy law that provides that if a majority of the creditors—in number of persons and amount of claims—shall fail to elect a trustee, one shall be appointed by the referee. The sixty-five Rodman-Wise creditors came into the meeting divided. After a spirited contest it was agreed to abandon the voting and request Referee Helm to name the trustee provided he would select Mr. Mushet. He acquiesced, and it was so arranged, the trustee's bond being fixed at $10,000.

The receiver's petition for authority to place the property of the estate on public or private sale for the benefit of the creditors was continued until today, to enable the referee to investigate objections interposed by the bankrupt concern, who are trying to prevent immediate sale.

There will be a thorough probing of the charges of fraud.

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE "LINERS."

10 O'clock Saturday Nights.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier; especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential in order to get the paper out on time to stop receiving real estate ads. at 10 o'clock Saturday nights.

Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturdays.

Sunday "Want" ads. will still be received by 'phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For nine exciting innings, the New York Americans and Philadelphia Athletics struggled to break the other's winning streak and to capture first place in the American League pennant race, which both have held from the opening of the season. In the end, the Athletics won by a score of 7 to 6. But until Knight's terrific drive in the ninth inning, brought in the winning run, could anyone pick the winner, but the lead changed from one team to the other with monotonous regularity. Manager Griffith can credit the defeat to Chase, his new first baseman. In the first inning, the Californian took a desperate chance to head home a runner at third, instead of retiring the man at second, which he could have done easily and allowed both to score. The Athletics had little respect for Chesbro's famous "spit ball." All the runs they secured twelve hits off his delivery, one of which was a three-bagger by Seybold and a home run by Murphy. Plank, on the other hand, was very effective, and kept his hits well scattered, except in two innings. Chase's error, which caused the downfall of the Yankees, followed after Conroy and Hoffman singled. Davis then sent down the first-base line to Chase. Hal, instead of retiring Hoffman at second, tried to catch Hartzell at third. It would have been a great play had it succeeded, but the throw was too eager and made a wild throw to Conday, both Hartsell and Conroy scoring.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FANCISCO, April 19.—The game was practically won in the first inning by the Oakland contingent, who scored four runs on three passes by Pitcher Miller of the San Franciscos, a double by Kelly and a single by Devereaux. The runs were piled up after two outs had been recorded. Although the Friscos were hopelessly out of the race, they managed to bunch three hits on Moskiman in the sixth, and scored one run. In the fifth Shea was spiked and had to retire. His place was taken by Wilson, and Wheeler took first.

SENSATIONAL SPURT.

MATT HOGAN'S NECK VICTORY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—During a close finish between four horses at Oakland today, Matt Hogan made a sensational spurt and won by a neck, Yellowstone beat the favorite, Warte Nicht, by a small margin for the place.

A clever field of 2-year-olds lined up for the third race. Father Catcham, who won his last race so easily, repeated his performance and took first money from F. W. Barr, the favorite. The favorite was the first to get away, but could not hold the position. He responded gamely, however, and in a hard drive downed La Chata for the place. The weather was clear and track muddy. Summary:

One mile and fifty yards: Evea G., 105 (F. Sullivan,) even, won; Modicum, 115 (Bell,) 7 to 1, second; Redmont, 102 (Fountain,) 7 to 2, third; time 1:47. Glenarvon, Lady Kent, Mai Wells and Flora Bright also ran.

One mile and three-eighths: Mr. Farnum, 100 (Taylor,) 9 to 2, won; Invictus, 105 (F. Sullivan,) 8 to 5, second; Expedient, 110 (Bozeman,) 20 to 1, third; time 2:26⅘. Henry Clay Rye, Mr. Dingle, May Holladay and Mordente also ran.

Four furlongs: Father Catcham, 109 (Travers,) 9 to 5, won; F. W. Barr, 117 (Clark,) 2 to 2 second; La Chata, 106 (Knapp,) 8 to 1, third; time 0:49¾. I'm Joe, Busy Bee, Achelita, Red Ruby and Queenie K. also ran.

Seven furlongs: Matt Hogan, 103 (Clark,) 6 to 1, won; Yellowstone, 108 (Otis,) 8 to 1, second; Warte Nicht, 106 (Tooman,) even, third; time 1:29¼. Mediaktala, Budd Wade, Gentle Harry, Antrad, Geisha Girl and Prince Palatine also ran.

Seven furlongs: Mildred Schultz, 102 (Fountain,) 2 to 1, won; Whoa Bill, 106 (Knapp,) 20 to 1, second; Hainault, 109 (Travers,) 11 to 5, third; time, 1:28¾. Cerro Santa, War Times, Major Tenny, Alice Carey and El Chihuahua also ran.

Mile and an eighth, handicap, purse $900: Dr. Leggo, 111 (Tooman,) 12 to 5, won; Honlton, 116 (Knapp,) 3 to 1, second; Stillcho, 95 (Fountain,) 16 to 1, third; time 1:55. Soufriere, Bombardier, St George, Jr. and Gold Enamel also ran.

PORTLAND LOSES TO OURS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 19.—The advent of baseball in Portland this year was celebrated by a parade of automobiles, containing prominent citizens, representatives of the press, the two contesting clubs and a brass band. The enthusiastic plaudits of the onlookers and of the 6000 enthusiasts who were at the ball grounds evidently served to discompose the Portland club so much that before the cheering had died away, the Los Angeles team had walked away with three runs, enough to win the game. The remainder of the contest was a stubbornly-fought pitchers' battle between Goodwin of Los Angeles and Eslick of Portland, the former holding the local team down to three scattered hits. After the first two innings, the playing of both teams was gilt-edged. The score:

Portland, 0; hits, 3; errors, 4.
Los Angeles, 3; hits, 7; errors, 0.

SUSPENSION OF FLOOD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 19.—Umpire Gus Klopf has received a telegram from President Bert as follows: "Pending investigation have suspended Flood of Los Angeles for his conduct last Sunday. Positively do not permit him to play until further advised."

Pending the investigation of the charges, Brashear takes Flood's position at second.

DIAMOND DUST.

DOPE FOR THE FANS.

The expected has come in the suspension of Second Baseman Flood of the Los Angeles team, President Bert of the league doing the trick. The tin-can business is to remain good until Bert can make an investigation of Flood's act in kicking Umpire Perrine here last Sunday. Before he left here Flood expressed his regret that he had made a fool of himself. He also expected he would be treated to a good fine and if it comes on top of this suspension, the player will have occasion to remember his assault on Perrine. Spies remembers his raid on ex-Umpire Huston last year and that $100. There is no use in having an umpire if the players cannot be made to respect him.

Pitcher Hitt of Santa Barbara or Ventura, who was trying to catch on with one of the Coast League teams at the latter part of last season and the first of this, is now at Fresno twirling for the Raisin club. In a game at Fresno the first of the week with the Lodi team of the State League, Hitt was pounded for ten swats, Tom Delehanty getting two doubles off him. Le Brandt, who was the catcher here last winter for one of the City League teams, is now catching for the Fresno team and doing fairly good work. He got a two-base hit off Hitt in this game.

The president of the St. Louis Browns opened his heart last week and gave each of the players a present of $50 for beating the Cardinals the previous week.

Some of the local knockers are beginning to yell that Morley must let Tonnan and Ross go and get a couple of men who can hit the ball. They also say it would not be a bad idea to tin-can Flood, for he cannot bat and is always creating some trouble in the team. The knockers will doubtless find their efforts in vain, for Morley will probably keep all three players, whether some of the fans like them or not.

Danny Shay, the big-league shortstop, is still playing in the Stockton team of the State League, and says he will not go to the St. Louis Cardinals. As to his work he was twice to bat in a game last Monday in Stockton, made two runs, a double and a three-bagger and had two outs and six assists without an error. He has fitted up a nice home in Stockton, is going into business there and will be there this summer at least. He refuses to return to St. Louis because that club would not give him an increase in salary. Jake Beckley is also hemming and hawing over his St. Louis contract and would rather not play than sign it.

TACOMA BEGINS WELL.

OPENS BY BEATING SEATTLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TACOMA, April 19.—The baseball season was inaugurated by Tacoma winning a victory over Seattle. Hall was hit hard in the first three innings, when Tacoma scored her runs. Seattle could not get safe hits off Keefe, who did fine work in the box. Charles Hall retired nine men on strikes. Score:

Tacoma, 3; hits, 7; errors, 1.
Seattle, 1; hits, 4; errors, 3.
Batteries—Keefe and Granam; Hall and Frary.
Umpire—Davis.

INTRODUCE BADMINTON.

ENGLISH GAME AT SEASIDE.

Probably the first of that popular English game, badminton, ever played in Southern California, was held at Santa Monica yesterday afternoon on the Casino indoor lawn tennis court. Although this game is played extensively in British Columbia and England, it has never been tried in California, but once attempted it is likely to prove a popular form of athletic sport. To the uninitiated it may be stated that badminton is nto unlike lawn tennis. Both had the same common origin, but the new game is played with light racquets and on a small court, 44x20 feet. Instead of using tennis balls, the play is with a shuttlecock, and the ball must always be volleyed. There is no striking on the bound. The top of the net stands five feet from the ground.

ACTORS WIN.

FIERCE BALL GAME.

An unpicked team of hamfatters from the Burbank, Morosco and other showhouses of the town, ably aided by most providential good luck and a five-inning limit, succeeded in scalping the newspaper writers' nine yesterday afternoon at Chutes Park, by 10 runs to 7.

The pencil pushers started off like winner by getting a pair of runs in the first inning on wild throws and another brace in the second, when the Thespian catcher tried to fire the ball over the center fielder's head. All the runs were made on bobbles of some kind, honors being fairly even.

Quite a crowd witnessed the farce comedy. The gate was free. General surprise was expressed that such a gang of rummies as trotted out on the diamond in uniform could present so decent an appearance in their street clothes, and some refused to be convinced that the performers were the same.

Minor Ball.

The second Twenty-eighth-street school nine was defeated by the West Jefferson-street nine at baseball yesterday by a score of 16 to 13.

FRAWLEY BOXING BILL.

NOW GOES TO GOVERNOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) April 19.—The Assembly passed the Frawley boxing bill today, permitting fifteen-minute bouts of boxing by amateurs with eight-ounce gloves, under the rules and auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States or any domestic amateur athletic organization now incorporated and under the sanction of the union. The bouts must be for medals or prizes. The bill has passed the Senate, and now goes to the Governor.

WESTERN FENCERS.

CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—Three entries from Chicago have been received, and for the first time in the history of the Amateur Fencers' League of America, the West will be represented in National Fencing Championship Turnament, which will be held next week, Friday and Saturday nights, in the New York Athletic Club. The Chicago representatives will all compete with the foils, and perhaps with the sabers.

Pugilism.

Rufe Turner, the crack colored lightweight, who has just returned from a very satisfactory trip through the East, is open to meet either Britt or Nelson, and while the situation in San Francisco is so muddled, Turner is trying to get on a match with Nelson to take place in this city. Manager McCarey of the Century Club would like to have it, but he cannot do anything at present, simply because he has no place for a fight. He is looking for a suitable location for a pavilion, but has not found one yet. Meanwhile Nelson and Turner will have to wait until he does.

Berkeley Takes Tennis Games.

BERKELEY, April 19.—California, as was expected, won the intercollegiate tennis tournament from Stanford today, on the Hearst Hall courts, completing the matches which had to be postponed last Saturday on account of the rain. The Blue and Gold wound up their tilt with the Stanford champions by taking all three contests, both first and second singles and the doubles.

Berkeley's Rowing Crew.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—It is probable that the University of California rowing crew may accept the invitation of the James Bay Athletic Association of Victoria, B. C., to participate in the international rowing regatta to be held in that city May 24. The local crew has already arranged to meet the University of Washington in the intercollegiate regatta to be held in Seattle May 30.

BUSINESS.

RIGHT OF PRIVATE CONTRACT.

The Supreme Court of the United States has just rendered a decision of far-reaching importance. Indeed, Justice Harlan is quoted as having declared that no more important decision has been rendered within the past century.

The opinion, which was written by Justice Peckham, declares that the law of New York State, making ten hours a day's work and sixty hours a week's work in bakeries, is unconstitutional. The case under consideration was that of Lockner vs. the State of New York. The complainant brought suit against the State on the ground that the law interferes with the free exercise of the rights of contract between individuals. In the trial court Lockner was found guilty of violating the law by permitting one of his workmen to work more than the specified ten hours per day. The New York Court of Appeals sustained the trial court.

Judge Alton B. Parker wrote the opinion of the Court of Appeals upholding the law, but the court divided, four to three, on the question of the law's validity.

In the opinion rendered by the Supreme Court, only the question of constitutionality was considered. Justice Peckham held that the law "is not an act merely fixing the number of hours which shall constitute a legal day's work, but an absolute prohibition upon the employer," requiring that, under no circumstances, shall he permit more than ten hours' work to be done in his establishment in one day. In a matter so important there should be no doubt as to the court's exact position, and this is made clear in the following extract from the opinion as written by Justice Peckham. He said:

"The employé may desire to earn the extra money which would arise from his working more than the prescribed time, but the statute forbids the employer from permitting the employed to earn it. It necessarily interferes with the right of contract between the employer and employed concerning the number of hours in which the latter may labor in the bakery of the employer. The general right to make a contract in relation to his business is part of the liberty of the individual protected by the fourteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution. Under that provision no State can deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law. The right to purchase or to sell labor is part of the liberty protected by this amendment, unless there are circumstances which exclude the right."

Referring to the exceptions, which come under the police powers of the State, and after considering them at length, Justice Peckham concluded that the case did not come within these powers. He declared, in conclusion, that "the freedom of master and employé to contract with each other in relation to their employment, and in defining the same, cannot be prohibited nor interfered with without violating the Federal Constitution."

This has been the contention of The Times for years, and on many occasions it has affirmed this principle. It is gratifying to find that in a test case the Supreme Court of the United States so completely, so unequivocally, upholds this contention. This decision of the Supreme Court will set at rest many controversies that have arisen over the question as to whether a laborer can lawfully be deprived of his right to labor as many hours per diem, and as many days per week, as his interests may dictate, provided he can agree with his employer as to terms. The Supreme Court—the court of last resort, whose decisions are authoritative and final—decides in broad general terms that freedom of contract can not be abridged nor abolished, that a man may sell his labor on such terms as he may see fit to make with his employer; that an employer may purchase labor on such terms as he can agree upon with his employé; and that not even a State law can abridge or take away this right of free individual contract.

This decision is a triumph of jurisprudence, a victory for the right, and a vindication of common sense. The Times has steadfastly insisted and believed that this important question, when brought before the highest tribunal in the land, would be decided as the Supreme Court has decided it. If it had been decided otherwise—if the Supreme Court had announced that a workman's productive capacity may be arbitrarily limited by law—the freedom which we boast would indeed be but a hollow sham and liberty would be an empty name, not a reality.

All the whole fabric of laws limiting a day's work to a stated number of hours is shattered by this decision. These laws may properly provide that no man may legally be required to work more than a stated number of hours per day. For that matter no man can be legally compelled to work any stated number of hours per day, or to work at all, against his will. But under this decision no man can be prohibited from working as many hours per day as he desires to work, his employer concurring.

This is, as we have said, a triumphant vindication of the simple, fundamental right of contract as between man and man. Its scope is almost limitless; its abstract, fundamental justice is beyond assault.

FIRST BLOOD OF THE WAR.

Forty-four years ago yesterday (April 19, 1861,) the first blood of the great Civil War was shed in the streets of Baltimore. Troops of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, on their way to Washington, were attacked by mobs in Baltimore, and a number of the soldiers were killed. Sympathizers with the South were numerous in the Maryland metropolis, and they had declared that Northern troops should not be permitted to pass through the city. In pursuance of their threats, the mob destroyed railroad bridges, cut telegraph wires, and blocked the railroads. Communication with the North was severed, and it was necessary for the President to send troops from Annapolis to keep the road open. Baltimore was occupied by Northern forces, and in a short time the active hostility was suppressed.

This Baltimore incident furnished the first bloodshed of the war, though Sumter had fallen on April 13. Other hostilities followed quickly, until North was formally arrayed against South in deadly combat. No need to recite the history of that titanic struggle. Its tremendous events are for the historian. The dread chapters must be preserved as a matter of record. But for the people—people of the North and people of the South—let there be forgetfulness of the past (so far as is consistent with honor and dignity,) and fraternization for the future.

Every patriot in the land—patriots of the North and patriots of the South—will thank heaven that today there is union, fraternity and peace between the great sections which were separated by the crash of war. The same old flag of glory floats above us all, and there is not a true man, North or South, who would not give his life, if necessary, to save from humiliation the banner "that never has yielded yet."

A NEW MOTOR CAR.

Recent dispatches from Omaha have told of a new motor car, designed to take the field, to some extent, of the electric trolley car, more particularly in suburban traffic. The motive power is gasoline, and the arrangement is said to be so perfect that the car stops and starts without jar, is under perfect control, and moves smoothly and steadily, at almost any rate of speed desired.

Railway officials of the Union Pacific, on Sunday last, made a 200-mile trial trip in the new motor car, with results so satisfactory that the car was placed in regular commission on Monday, on the Union Pacific branch between Grand Island and St. Paul, Neb., where it will be used as a branch train, making two trips daily. It is predicted that the car will revolutionize suburban and branch line passenger and freight service. Time and experience will tell how far this prediction is justified by facts.

The first car was built as an experiment, but it has proved so successful that others will be constructed at once. About twenty persons can be seated in the car just completed. The gasoline motor is placed in the forward end, where is also reserved a space for baggage. The regular cars will be fifty feet long and will seat fifty-five passengers, besides carrying their baggage. The motors will have a surplus of power sufficient to haul two trailers when necessary.

Several of the large railroad systems of the country, it is stated, have become interested in this new application of an old principle, which is to be exploited at the railroad congress soon to be held in Washington. It is claimed that the cost of operating these motor cars will be about one-sixth that of operating regular passenger trains, and that the steam railroads, by means of branch lines or "feeders" thus operated, will be able to enter into competition with electric suburban lines, giving to small branch towns "a service equal to that of the main lines." The interesting statement is made, further, that several of the new motor cars will be placed in service on the Pacific Coast as soon as they can be built.

All this is of unusual interest. Whether the proposed innovation will mark a step forward in railroading remains to be determined. Suburban and interurban railway service as now furnished by electric lines is excellent, though not altogether perfect. Of course, the gasoline car must carry, in addition to its own weight, the weight of its motors, its water for cooling, and its fuel. It will necessarily be considerably heavier than the electric car, but possibly this disadvantage may be compensated for by some of its advantages. At any rate, the development of the gasoline motor car will be watched with eager interest, as it may contain unknown and unsuspected potentialities.

The powers have declared that China shall remain whole. But how about that hole the Kaiser proposes to bore in Shantung?

As far as those foreign alliances are concerned, at least that one between Russia and France seems to be in fine working order.

If the Germans grab those Chinese mines in Tengchow, Laichow and Chungchow, there won't be much left for the Chinamen but chow chow.

From the brown man's point of view the appearance of the Bull in the China shop can no longer be delayed. Consequently, he is shouting for John with both lungs.

Now that the King of Italy has honored and thanked Pierpont Morgan for returning stolen goods, possibly that sort of thing may become a fad among great financiers.

Even though every power in Europe should become embroiled in this oriental war, let them remember that, as far as we are concerned, we still stand ready to sell them the goods.

A Chinese witness in the Hays trial insisted upon addressing one of the lawyers as "Madam," forgetting the fact that lawyers always have a gender, although they may seldom have a case.

The opera singers recently in our midst carried no pet animals, but the circus, which was here at the same time, more than made up for the deficiency. Thus does the world manage to preserve its equilibrium.

The Kaiser has driven his Shantung wedge into China with a wallop that has the full force of German muscle behind it. With the echo of the blow we shall hear a howl from the cocky little brown man of Nippon. The plot thickens.

If China is ever to wake up she had better do it soon, or there won't be anything left for her to wake up on. The Kaiser has already started in with his carving knife, and the other fellows are not likely to hang around their grindstones much longer.

We regret to note that our esteemed contemporary, the Tokio Jiji Shimpo, has let a holler out of itself, calling on Great Britain to jump into the oriental scrimmage for the purpose of helping Japan. It gives the impression that the brown man feels his wind giving out.

Evidently the hostile fleets of the Orient are sparring for wind, although there has not yet been a blow. The situation is paradoxical, yet not necessarily conclusive. With these few remarks the matter may now be safely left in the hands of the war experts.

AN OPTIMIST.

Out of the night of darkness
I see the light o' day—
I hear the voices calling
As the bark of the hounds at bay.

Through the vale of wrath and fear
The love-lamp illumes the shade—
And my soul beholds its beautiful glow
And makes me unafraid.

No matter through what I may pass,
I'll see on the outward wall
The spirit illumed in brass,
And hark to its musical call.

No matter where'er I may go,
Whatever path I may lead,
When the spirit whispers "sow,"
I'll sow luminous seed.

And my recompense will be
Climbing toward the uppermost goal—
The eminence of the human race—
A man with an optimist soul.

AND NOW IT'S JAPAN

SOU' BY SOU'WEST.

Some Sou'westers.

A most interesting party of Southwestern people are, by this time, headed for New York to give the great metropolis a taste of real "cow country" life at the Horse Fair, during Easter week. The party consists of ranchmen, cowboys and cowgirls from Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory. They are taking their horses and all the accompanying paraphernalia with them, and they will doubtless interest the society folk of Gotham, as they have never been interested before. These people are not wild west show professionals, but are plain, every-day residents of the plains and deserts. At the same time, there never was an aggregation of professionals who were better able to illustrate life in the Southwest in all its picturesque and thrilling phases. The party is headed by Col. Zach Mulhall, a great personal friend of President Roosevelt, and whom the President would have appointed Governor of Oklahoma long ago were it not for the fact that Col. Mulhall is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat. With the colonel will be his four daughters, the most daring and noted girl rough riders in the whole southwestern country, the eldest, Miss Agnes, being the original "Bossy" in Hoyt's play "A Texas Steer."

Decay of Romance.

Nothing could better illustrate how surely and relentlessly the ancient chivalry and romance of the old Southwest is being crowded to the wall by the cold-blooded commercialized rudeness of modern times than the recent arrest, in Phoenix, of Señor Don Florentine Lopez. Don Florentine's only crime was that he was a gentleman, a caballero, with the instincts of a Quixote, although his purse may have been as lean as Sancho Panza's. What he did to bring down the wrath of a Phoenix constable on his devoted Castilian head was nothing more than to have stood on the open highway of the pueblo and doff his sombrero to every lady that came that way. All day long Don Florentine did this graceful and lovely thing—indiscriminately, it is true, for he had never been presented to those ladies, notwithstanding his vast deference to them, withal—and, yet, when nightfall came, the sordid minion of the local justice of the peace swooped down on poor old Lopez and flung him into the bull-pen to languish and groan. So have the times changed, mi querido.

A Spiritual Uplift.

An itinerant evangelist has been visiting the back districts in Arizona during the past several weeks and reports that a great spiritual uplifting has taken place throughout the alkali patches and the cactus reservations. Everywhere, he was treated with the utmost respect and consideration, his meetings having been interrupted by nothing unpleasant, except upon one occasion. This occurred in a mining camp in the Superstition Mountains. The preacher had just repeated the Lord's Prayer, whereupon a man arose in the audience and in a loud tone of voice said:

"H—l! That's a chestnut, I heerd the same thing in Kansas City twenty years ago."

But that was all, and the evangelist feels that had death overtaken him among those rude but generous-hearted people, they would have marked his grave with the same respect that they marked another preacher's grave, in days gone by, on which occasion a clean, white board was erected over the resting place of the deceased, inscribed with the following heartfelt tribute of respect:

"He Done His Damdest."

A Parrot Ranch.

It is, perhaps, not generally known that nearly all of the speaking parrots in this country are systematically bred by a man named Holt, across the border in Mexico. He has what is probably the only parrot ranch in the world. Holt is a linguist and teaches his birds to speak English, Spanish, French and German. He has also succeeded in educating them in pairs so that they can carry on a conversation with each other. He has parrots whose specialty is cuss words, and others again whose long suit is prayer. At last accounts Mr. Holt was endeavoring to teach some of his feathered prodigies to sing "Bedelia" in German, but grave doubts are expressed as to his success.

ISLANDS DISAPPEAR.

Archipelago in the Pacific Believed to Have Been Sunk by Earthquake.

[London Chronicle:] News has reached London which points to the occurrence in the North Pacific of one of those tremendous cataclysms of nature which before now have wrought death and devastation in the volcanic and earthquake zone of Central America.

The Pacific Mail steamship City of Panama, which left San Francisco on January 21 for ports on the Central American coast, had a strange experience on her voyage. While the vessel was in Lat. 16 deg. 58 min. north and Long. 100 deg. 29 min. west she sailed through "miles of sea covered with masses of vegetation, tree trunks, and carcases of animals." The obstruction was so dense that the vessel at times was able to proceed on her way only with great difficulty.

The dead animals encountered by the City of Panama are said to have been of many descriptions, and some of the trees that hindered her progress are described as being five or six feet in diameter. The theory put forward is that a gigantic volcanic eruption on the Central American coast cast upon the waters the vast floating masses through which the vessel steamed.

This theory does not find acceptance at the offices of the Royal Geographical Society, where it was pointed out that a volcanic eruption on the coast sufficiently gigantic to account for the spectacle witnessed by the San Francisco steamer would have become known the moment it occurred.

"If the vessel passed through miles of this sort of obstruction," an official of the society said, "the volcanic eruption that caused it—if it occurred on the coast—must have made a tremendous hole in the earth, and the news would have been known all over the world next day."

Much more probable is the theory that there has been some terrific upheaval of the Revillagigedo Islands, northward of the California Peninsula. These islands lie close to the 20th deg. northern latitude, and are on the 110th deg. longitude west. The Panama, therefore, was fully four degrees south and ten degrees west of the island group when she fell in with what was probably the wreck of an archipelago.

Fortunately the islands are uninhabited except by an extensive fauna, gannets, frigate pelicans, boobies, tarn, ducks, and doves. Turtle are plentiful, and the surrounding waters abound with sharks. These would account for the various kinds of dead animals seen by the crew, while the prickly-pear trees that grow extensively on Socorro, or Santa Tomas, the largest of the group, would explain the presence of the trees.

The islands are of volcanic origin, and lie in the direct line of the earthquake and volcanic zone of Central America. They are four in number, Socorro, San Benedicto, Roca Partida and Santa Roca, or Clarion. It is never safe, however, to speculate about the number, for some of them seem to have an uncanny trick of disappearing.

Several islands have been reported under the names of Roca Coral, Roca Pardero, New Island, Misipi Island and New Baldayo Island, all in about the same latitude, but further west. Yet a United States exploring vessel some time ago passed through the area where these islands were supposed to be, and could find no trace of them. Neither could Sir Edward Belcher in the Starling and Blossom, nor Capt. Trollope in H.M.S. Rattlesnake, locate these elusive bits of ocean territory.

Sir Edward Belcher was inclined to believe in their existence and attributes his failure to find them to erroneous description. It is more probable that they were of volcanic origin, and that, while one submarine eruption brought them to the surface, another swept them away before their existence could be verified.

Something of the same kind, on a larger scale, appears to have happened again, for the details of the City of Panama's experience are sufficiently circumstantial to be trustworthy.

BEER OF ROYAL BREW.

A Grim and Dingy Tavern in Munich Where the Fine Beverage is Quaffed.

[Modern Society:] The royal family of Bavaria has from time immemorial been known to fame as the principal brewers of all Germany. The famous Hofbrau house, or royal brewery, was established in September, 1589, by Duke William of Bavaria, and has become one of the national institutions of the country. No one who has not been in Munich can form any idea of the grim, dingy tavern in which the royal court beer has been sold at retail for the last 300 hundred years, and which forms part of the ancient palace of the dukes of Bavaria.

There are no waiters or waitresses, everybody being expected to attend to his own wants, and on the occasion of the Kaiser's visits to Munich he, together with the Bavarian princes who happen to be escorting him, take their place in line and await their turn for a stone mug, which, in accordance with the time-honored custom of the place, they themselves rinse in the tank before again forming in line for the purpose of having their mugs filled.

As soon as their mugs are filled Kaiser and princes sit down at the rough deal tables, which have done service from time immemorial, and purchase from the perambulating venders slices of wurst and schwarzbrod. It may surprise many that great personages should be ready to put up with so much discomfort for the sake of a mere mug of beer. A draught of the latter is all that is required by way of explanation.

The beer is truly royal, and in every way worthy of the ancient dynasty of Wittelsbach which produces it. Nowhere else in the world is it possible to obtain such beer, the recipe for which was obtained by the ducal founder of the brewery three centuries ago from the famous brewer Degernberg and has been kept as a state secret by the sovereign house of Bavaria ever since.

International Congress.

Negotiations are already in progress among several of the great powers, among which are Great Britain and the United States, with a view to an international congress at the end of the present conflict in the Far East for the purpose of revising the rules of warfare. One of the chief reforms in view deals with the difficult problem of prisoners of war. The Japanese claim to have been subjected to a very serious penalty for their victories by being burdened with the responsibility of tending immense numbers of the enemy's wounded simply because the Russians would not be hampered with them in their flight. Then, too, the Japanese have been put to enormous expense and trouble in connection with the maintenance of the vast hordes of prisoners of war, for which their commissariat and transport departments were not prepared. There is a talk of dealing with the problem by means of some international arrangement whereby prisoners of war would be handed back to their own countrymen to be detained "en masse" under such supervision that it would be impossible for them to rejoin the army in the field without the whole world being cognizant of the fact.—[New York Tribune.

Not Like Our Senators.

The President is enjoying his vacation—all the more because of the spice of danger—but there are few other men in public life who would like to take their pleasure as he does his. One can hardly imagine the chieftains of the Senate going out "where the wild beasts abound," as the chaplain of the Illinois House words it, in order to kill cougars and rattlesnakes. Their sport is to stay at Washington and kill treaties and bills for the regulation of railroad rates. Mr. Cleveland was and is fond of fishing and duck shooting. He kills to eat as well as to have sport. Mr. Roosevelt is the first President to track to their dens the bear and the mountain lion. Probably he will not have many successors who will copy him in that.—[Chicago Tribune.

Duty of a Gentleman.

On another occasion, having returned from playing poker at the club, my grandfather said:

"When a man is hard up he should borrow; but he must devote his energies to paying back and remaining the equal of the man from whom he has borrowed. If he cannot pay back, let him be frank about it; for it is better to steal than to cheat."

And again:

"To ride straight and to shoot straight, to win money cheerfully and to lose it cheerfully, never to be boorishly in debt or swinishly drunk, to enjoy flowers and music, and if possible to be in love with at least one good woman, is half the duty of a gentleman."

"What's the other half, grandpa?" I had asked him.

"Why, to be a gentleman, of course."—[London Express.

Health Board Mystified by Council Report.

Mayor Thinks Contractors Will Get Gift.

Stew Over Apple Sauce in Strawberry Jam.

Members of the Board of Health are mystified by the wording of the below report of the Board of Public Works which was last Monday adopted by the Council.

"Your Board of Public Works begs to report as follows:

"In the matter of petition No. 486, from the Health Hospital et al., asking that they be given better facilities for the disposal of the garbage from these institutions, stating that at present times the contract does not include the collection of garbage from those places, be it resolved, and that all charitable institutions are to be included in the new arrangement for collection.

"We further recommend that the further expense for the collection of this additional service be limited to $450 per month, said work to be done under the supervision of the Honorable Board of Health."

At the board meeting last night they were unable to determine whether the Council has made Garbage Contractor Chandler a present of $450 a month for taking a dozen additional collections or whether the Council expects the board to make the "new arrangement" as economically as possible.

Mayor McAleer expressed the opinion that the report was simply a notification to the Board that the Council will allow Alexander an additional $450 a month for the next five months and that the Health Board must supervise the collection of garbage from the charitable institutions. But Commissioner Manning suggested that the rather ambiguous report was only a hint to the Health Board that the Council desires garbage to be collected free from such places.

The commissioner mentioned the fact that a month ago the garbage man asked the Council for some additional money for collecting garbage. He said that the adoption of the Board of Public Works's report is probably the answer resorted to by the Council to grant his request.

Commissioners Pallette and Manning were appointed a committee to confer with the Board of Public Works and report back to the Health Board what is expected of that body.

PURE FOOD LAW.

Representatives of local fruit packing firms appeared before the board to see that no immediate action be taken in the enforcement of the State law relating to the labeling of fruits and jellies.

The new law requires that all fruit jellies, butters and preserves must consist only of fruit specified on the label. The packers object because the law affects jellies and preserves manufactured here for consumption outside the State.

Their representatives asserted that the local packers ship thousands of cases of jelly and preserves to Arizona every year. There the packers must compete with the San Francisco packers, who say that if they are compelled to label all the jellies and preserves which are adulterated by adding a few of apples or apricots and the San Francisco packers are subject to no such restrictions, it will mean a closing of the Arizona market to Los Angeles manufacturers.

The Arizona merchants are continually sending orders for a strawberry jam at apricot prices," said one local packer, "they purchase little of our best goods. It we must label every glass in which apple is added as a filler it will mean that they will buy the northern product which contains more apple but is not labeled."

The board finally adopted a rule that all canned fruits, jams and vegetables sold for local consumption must be labeled, showing just what ingredients are used, this rule to go into effect June 1. The rule will not be enforced as to the present on goods shipped outside of the State; but Health Officer Powers was instructed to communicate with the health officers of San Francisco and San Jose to the end that a similar rule be adopted covering fruits and jams packed for home consumption shall be adopted in the three cities at the same time.

NEW INSPECTOR.

Ansell Ready's personal acquaintance with three health commissioners probably won him a position as health inspector which he would otherwise have lost. When Inspector Henry Slef was advanced to the position of assistant clerk of the department a vacancy was created. J. H. Marshall and Ready were certified to by the Civil Service Commission as eligibles. Marshall had a higher rating than the better of the argument on the percentage column but Ready was personally known to the commissioners. Neither applicant was present. On motion of Commissioner Manning Ready was appointed inspector.

Blow Over Apple Sauce in Strawberry Jam.

Members of the Board of Health are mystified by the wording of the below report of the Board of Public Works which was last Monday adopted by the Council.

They say that if they are compelled to put all the jellies and preserves not adulterated by adding apples or apricots and the San Francisco packers are subject to no restrictions, it will mean a closing of the Arizona market to Los Angeles canners.

Arizona merchants are continually writing orders for a strawberry jam at "cut prices," said one local packer. "We purchase little of our best grade, but must label every glass in which jelly is sold as a filler it will not be sold. It will buy the northern article, which contains more apple but is a good article."

Having finally adopted a rule that canned fruits, jams and vegetables for local consumption must be labeled, showing just what ingredients they contain, this rule to go into effect at once, the rule will not be enforced as to goods shipped outside the State; but Health Officer Powers was instructed to communicate with the health officers of San Francisco and Oakland to the end that a similar rule regarding fruits and jams packed for consumption shall be adopted in those cities at the same time.

NEW INSPECTOR.

Chief Ready's personal acquaintance with three health commissioners won him a position as health inspector, which he would otherwise have failed to get. When Inspector Henry Sief was promoted to the position of assistant chief of the department a vacancy existed, which was filled by the Civil Service method of examining all eligibles. Marshall and Ready were reported to by the Civil Service Commission as eligibles. Marshall had the better of the argument by reason of his percentage column but Ready was personally known to the commissioners. Neither applicant was present, but Commissioner Manning was appointed inspector.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

André Eastman, the nine-year-old son of Mrs. Louise McCullough of 127 North Main street, fell under the wheels of a heavily loaded sand wagon in the river bottom below the Ninth street bridge yesterday afternoon and was instantly killed. Young Eastman had accompanied his step-father, J. P. McCullough who is a teamster, to the river for a load of gravel. The boy played in the sand while the father toiled and when the homeward journey was begun after McCullough had mounted the seat, the lad ran alongside the wagon a short distance and then tried to climb upon a rear wheel. Losing his balance the boy fell directly under the wheel, and though a teamster near by shouted to McCullough to stop, the warning came too late. The boy's head was crushed.

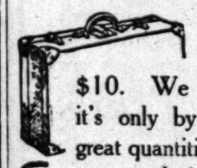
Expansion Sale

Hundreds of highly desirable articles—some from practically every department in the store—at a quarter to half under value. But space permits a mention of only three or four "specials" at a time.

$9.50 Suit Cases $5.50



$9.50 values, comparing them with the cases generally sold at $9 to $10. We sell them regularly at $6.50—but it's only by getting liberal price-concessions on great quantities, and "shaving" regular profits, that we can do it.

FIVE-fifty, during this Expansion Sale, for high-grade sole leather cases with 24 or 26-inch steel frames, Yale and Towne lock, linen linings, and brass trimmings.

Plenty of cases for even less money that look the same as these—on paper. But get them side by side and compare the leathers.

Furs at Half

Last call on the Trimmings Department' clean-up of Fur Scarfs.

$9 to $87.50 for scarfs whose duplicates have sold at $18 to $175.

Mink, fox, chinchilla, sable, Baum Marten, etc.—strictly high-class furs.

Leather Belts 50c

Not fifty-cent belts, though—they're easily worth a dollar.

Soft, well finished leathers, with handsome gilt buckles both back and front.

Choice of brown, gray, navy, purple, white or black.

Linens for Frocks

At least one linen costume is imperative in this season's smartly gowned woman's wardrobe; either plain tailored, or of lighter texture, embroidered or decorated with drawnwork. Always attentive to Fashion's tendencies we've provided in our Linen Department every worthy weave and weight conceded correct.

Four different weaves of 36-inch linen; various weights, at 50c a yard; extra good value. At 75c a yard; some eight or ten different weaves and qualities, each a yard wide. The world-famous "Old Bleach" linen—to be obtained here only—in 36, 45, 54, 72 and 90-inch widths at 65c, 75c, 85c, $1.50 and up to $2.50 a yard. Its firmness and evenness of texture commend it especially for drawnwork and embroidery.

Reduced Silks

More good silk news; today we offer 5 to 12½-yard lengths, left from popular sellers; neat, natty patterns of plain, figured, dotted or checked silks, really worth $1 to $1.50; but you may buy any number of yards—providing the piece you choose can be cut so as not to leave an unsalable length—at 65c a yard.

19-inch "Changeant" glace taffeta silk, an exceptionally fine high-luster weave, suitable for drop skirts, street suits, linings, waists, etc., our best 85c value, offered for the balance of the week at 75c a yard.

Splendid quality black Swiss taffeta, full 20 inches wide, having beautiful tone and high luster; we recommend it as especially adapted for dress skirts or suits, on account of its weight and firmness. On the selvage is stamped "Wear Guaranteed." This silk sells at a dollar and is well worth it; now offered at 83½c a yard.

Veilings

Sale of veilings by the yard; Tuxedos, broken meshes, and fancy nets, especially selected and purchased so that we can sell 75c, $1 and $1.25 veilings at 50c a yard. Late styles and popular shades brown, navy, black and white.

Fancy Neckwear

Every feminine frill approved by Fashion finds first and fullest representation at Coulter's. Lace Berthas, Chemisettes, Jabots, fancy Stocks and Collars, Chiffon Sleeves, Bolero Jackets, in an almost endless variety of shapes and designs.

Beading and embroidered collar and cuff sets of butcher linen; some with tabs, some turnovers, buttonholed for inserting ribbons; 50c and 75c qualities, at 25c.

CHLORINATION PLANTS NEXT.

PROJECT PROMISING TO GOLDFIELD AND BULLFROG.

Cripple Creep Capitalists Plan a Great Thing for the New Camps, by Which Lessees as Well as Owners of Properties Would Benefit. Lida District Coming up.

A project that promises much for the immediate future of Goldfield and Bullfrog is likely to be undertaken by Cripple Creek capitalists who are considering the erection of chlorination plants in Nevada. One at Goldfield is thought assured and another at Bullfrog is likely to be put in soon.

What this means for the new camps is at once apparent to mining men. Few properties are being worked at present by their owners. Lessees whose hold runs but a year or so at the outside are feverishly striving to make the most out of their work within the limited time. For these only a real bonanza mine is of any benefit. To ship ore worth less than $100 a ton is hardly to be thought of. Prohibitive rates and the practical collapse of the railroad serve to handicap those now at work and to many of them a plant of this kind will be a Godsend.

The cost of hauling ore to Tonopah from Goldfield and shipping it to Salt Lake, together with smelter charges, amounts to $21.75 a ton. On $25 ore, of which it is said there are 100,000 tons on the dumps, this would leave the lessee the enormous sum of $3.25 to pay for his own work and incidental expenses, an amount on which, it is needless to say, he would be a long time making a fortune at Goldfield. By treatment by the chlorination process at the camp, returns of $13.75 are expected—a decided improvement. On higher grade ores the returns will also be greatly increased. In this way those who have failed to uncover such bonanzas as, for example, the Simerone, but who have enormous yields of what is considered at Goldfield low grade ore, will have an opportunity to make their fortunes. The process has been successfully used at Cripple Creek.

W. H. Thatcher, a Colorado mining engineer, has visited Goldfield and Bullfrog in the interests of the new company and recommends the installation at both camps.

The company to be organized will be capitalized at half a million dollars and will be backed by ample capital. Four hundred thousand dollars worth of the stock will be floated and the balance held as treasury stock. The Goldfield plant will have a daily capacity of 500 tons and with so much ore already taken out would be assured for business for about a year even if all development were to stop now.

LIDA LOOMING UP.

Visitors from the Nevada district report that the Lida district, twenty-eight miles from Goldfield, is fast coming into prominence and bids fair to rival some of the older fields. New properties are being opened up constantly.

The eastern portion of the Goldfield district also continues to come to the front. Ore running all the way from $175 to $285 has been struck at 21 feet in the Dixie which adjoins properties owned by Los Angeles people. The vein is sixteen feet wide and runs through the Quartzite and Lookout.

Origin of Jiu-Jitsu.

"Jiu-jitsu," said Prof. Tomita, "was developed 350 years ago, at a time when there was tribal warfare in Japan. Then a man with a long sword and a man with no sword would meet in the streets, and out of their undying hatred for one another, tribally speaking, it became necessary for the man with no sword to learn a few tricks for dislocating the joints of his enemy, choking him, and rendering him unconscious, etc."

The professor said that the first lesson to be learned in ju-do was how to "fall soft." He illustrated this by twirling one of his assistants in the air and throwing him on the mat with a crash.

"It is nothing," said Prof. Tomita. "It seems very terrible, but he feels nothing, for he falls with all his limbs and muscles in position."

In order to convince the reporters that there was really no danger of a ju-do expert hurting himself by a fall, one of the professor's assistants related a story of his grandfather who taught jiu-jitsu and ju-do. The grandfather fell from a piazza on the second story of a Japanese house and landed on a pile of rocks. The grandfather was only annoyed because he soiled his kimono.

The reporters were curious to know what Prof. Tomita would do if an upper cut came along or a fist aspiring to the solar plexus. The professor said he hated to show the reporters, but calling one of his assistants he asked him to deliver an upper cut, also to imitate the big man with the club at 3 a. m. The result was the same in both cases. A sibilant hiss, a whirl of solid bodies, a thud, then a polite "Pardon me" in Japanese.—[New York Times.

Only Castor Oil.

M. Berthelot, secretary of the Louvre Museum, believes that he has discovered the secret of the agent used in embalming in ancient Egypt. After a laborious examination of the sarcophagi of the fifth and sixth dynasties, which date back as far as 3500 B.C., Berthelot has come to the decision that the oil employed was simply castor oil, such as is still used in Egypt, which has undergone some oxidization, but retained during the long period its preservative qualities.—[Answers.

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE "LINERS."

10 O'clock Saturday Nights.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier; especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential in order to get the paper out on time to stop receiving real estate ads. at 10 o'clock Saturday nights.

Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturdays.

Sunday "Want" ads. will still be received by 'phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

DYES FOR YOUR EGGS.

"The Times" Will Furnish Them With Its Issue of Easter Sunday, April 23.

On the outside page of the "Family Section" ("Buster Brown") of The Times for Easter Sunday, April 23, will be printed ten colored designs, which by a simple process may be transferred to the eggs by the children. They are very pretty effects in bright colors, and the process of transferring them will afford amusement to the young as well as the grown folks.

BULLFROG WINNER WON'T LAST LONG AT 15 CENTS

Sales of Stock in January Jones Latest Bullfrog Mine Are Immense.

Bullfrog Winner is Expected to Repeat the Performance of January Jones Bullfrog Eclipse Which Sold 30 Days Ago at 15 Cents and Now Brings 42 Cents, an Advance of 250 Per Cent. in a Month.

The truth we wish to hammer into the minds of every conservative investor is that the Bullfrog Winner Mining Company's stock, now selling very rapidly at 15 cents, presents one chance in a thousand to get into Bullfrog Camp astride a big winner. This company has 160 acres (8 claims,) in the very heart of the richest part of Bullfrog Camp. The claims are so close to the fabulously rich Benny Hazeltine mine, that Bullfrog Winner is virtually a Siamese twin to Benny Hazeltine. You can depend upon it that January Jones knew that the Hazeltine vein entered the Bullfrog Winner or he would never have acquired 200,000 shares of the stock, besides putting his name behind the enterprise, and assays up to $800 on our ledges back up this judgment.

January Jones has stamped the Bullfrog Winner with his approval; says it will make a big gold mine, and with his remarkably successful record before you, how can you doubt that he will make his word good on this property?

Mark January Jones's great January strike, where he made for himself and his partner $1,000,000 in a year. Reflect how he organized Bullfrog Eclipse and sold stock at 15 cents 30 days ago, and how, with his magical skill, the riches of this mine were exposed to the world, which caused the stock to fly up to 42 cents a share, an advance of 250 per cent. in one month, or at the rate of 3000 per cent. in a year, if the same rate of increase prevails.

Don't you know you would like to make such profits?

Consider the rapidity with which Kawich Gold Reed sold out at 15 cents a share (only 10 days on the market,) and how it rose to 25 cents in sympathy to a $600 strike.

The fact alone that January Jones will manage Bullfrog Winner and that he says, "I will apply the same plan of development to this property that I used in making the January a million dollar mine," ought to convince conservative investors that now, while the price is at the ground floor, 15 cents a share, is the time to invest. This great opportunity may expire any day, for when January Jones telegraphs to withdraw the stock or advance the price to 25 cents, that's final.

We want you to investigate Bullfrog Winner, and if you will call or write we will answer your every question and supply you with a prospectus and complete information about the property. If you want to look up Mr. Jones's standing, write to Nye and Ormsby Co., Bankers, Goldfield, or any bank or mercantile house in Goldfield. See our special fiscal agent today.

Do it now before it's too late to get in on the 15 cent stock.

BOAK TO BE HEAD CONSUL

Reports of the Head Officers Make Good Showing.

Elections and Competitive Drills on Today.

Last evening it was settled that I. I. Boak of Denver will be elected Head Consul at today's session without opposition. John H. Foley, the local candidate, retiring from the field. There is no doubt that Boak will be unanimously chosen as Falkenberg's successor.

At the convening of the Head Camp of Woodmen of the World, yesterday morning, the following additional committees were appointed:

Readjustment of Rates—T. M. Wright, San José; J. W. Boyd, Red Bluff, Cal.; L. Bond, Chico; H. Sandgren, Oakdale, Cal.; W. L. Tooze, Woodburn, Or.

Hazardous Vocations—A. E. Sundstrand, Fresno; L. B. Leavitt, Vallejo, Cal.; J. W. McHenry, Denver; R. W. Barnes, Kaysville, Utah; M. R. Wilson, Bozeman, Mont.

Women of Woodcraft—R. B. Buland, Martines, Cal.; W. S. Green, Napa, Cal.; F. A. Morton, Boulder, Colo.; S. Burris, Pueblo, Colo.

Medical Department—Dr. A. E. White, Baggs, Wyo.; Dr. H. P. Ustick, Boise, Idaho; Dean Clarke, Denver; W. L. Williams, Fowler, Colo.; W. E. Cort, Lewiston, Mont.

Representation—F. P. Hanks, Pueblo, Colo.; W. D. Erwin, Salida Colo.; H. Goggins, Alameda, Cal.; L. Beach, Sacramento; Thos. Oliver, Colfax, Wash.

Memorial Committee—J. W. James, Anaconda, Mont.; J. J. Jennings, Portland; Thos. McCort; T. M. Wright, San José.

Uniform Rank—W. W. Jones, Longmont, Colo.; T. C. Morris, Ogden, Utah; J. L. Underwood, Corvallis, Or. W. M. Youe, Leadville, Colo.; L. Fayran, Denver.

HEAD CONSUL'S REPORT.

The remainder of the day was taken up with reports of Head Camp officers. That of Head Consul Foley was exhaustive, and after an appropriate tribute to his predecessor, made a large number of recommendations for the welfare of the order, touching hazardous vocations, district conventions, appeals, trials, per capita tax, rates, delegates to Head Camp, fraternal spirit, suspensions, organizers, uniform rank, graded certificates, Woodcraft publications, etc.

At this point a resolution was introduced recommending that the offices of Head Clerk and Head Auditor be combined. This was referred to the Committee on Resolutions, and when brought up for disposal will no doubt create considerable discussion.

A recommendation was adopted that all future sessions be held from 9 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 5 p. m.

CLERK BOAK'S REPORT.

After the convening of the afternoon session Head Clerk I. I. Boak read his report showing the increase in membership in the jurisdiction for the past term to have been 762, the total number of original applications received being 32,597, in which California leads with 10,899. The Head Physician rejected 1500 applicants. Counting the fraternal members and the rejected would give a total for the term of 34,139.

The number of death claims paid during the term was 1266, and the amount paid aggregated $2,397,150, or an average payment of $1894.27 each. The number of deaths by states was as follows: Colorado, 35; California, 332; Oregon, 233; Washington, 181; Montana, 65; Utah, 42; Idaho, 39; Wyoming, 22; Nevada, 1, and the average age at death was 42 years, one month and one day. The whole number of deaths since the organization of the jurisdiction was 2534, and the total amounts paid to beneficiaries, $5,595,150. The report also shows that the vocation having the largest number of deaths was farmers, 184, followed by merchants, general laborers and carpenters, respectively. The number of camps organized during the term was 58, and chartered, the whole number of camps at last report being 739, with 6 provisional camps, making 765, California leading the van with 205. The Head Clerk also engrafted some valuable recommendations in his report.

GOOD ACCOUNTING.

Head Banker C. V. Cooper's report showed that between sessions $3,500,000 had passed through his hands, of which $2,500,000 had been paid to beneficiaries of deceased members. He calls attention to the perfect accounting system adopted, which caused him to say: "Although we have handled nearly $7,000,000 in cash and accounts the Head Auditor and Head Banker have had but one first error to make."

Head Auditor F. P. Bertschy's report was replete with statistics similar in character to that of the Head Banker, and was supplemented with a number of recommendations.

VITAL STATISTICS.

The report of Head Physician T. J. Hughes showed 23,864 applicants passed on during the term, of which 1500 were rejected, the largest proportion of the latter being on account of family history. Of the 1266 deaths the disease producing the largest number was consumption, which was responsible for 187, although casualties were responsible for 239, of which 44 by drowning was the cause of the largest number. The total number of deaths from suicide was 84. The percentage of deaths was seven per thousand. The Head Physician gave quite a space regarding certain complaints and made a number of valuable recommendations.

The most voluminous document of the day was the report of the Head Managers, given by Chairman W. C. Lawley, which, while replete with facts and figures of much benefit to the order, would have little interest to the public, much of it being a recapitulation of other reports, together with numerous recommendations.

MOONLIGHT JOLLITY.

Last evening the delegates accepted the invitation of the local camps and circles with the grand circle for a moonlight trolley ride to Playa del Rey, the cars leaving for there about 9 o'clock, concluding with a dance and refreshments at the pavilion. Tonight will occur the competitive

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

PREACHER BAKER UNDER FIRE.

ATTACK ON ADMINISTRATION OF SAN BERDOO ESTATE.

Well-known Colton Youth Committed for Second Time to Insane Asylum—Contractors Sue County on Jail Job—Woman Dies of Lockjaw, Following Rusty Nail Puncture.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 19.—Miss Edna L. Stokes of Salinas, in a letter received here, asks about the estate of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Stokes, claiming that it has not been properly administered. Mrs. Stokes died here in 1891 and left property appraised at near $1600.

Connected with the probable developments is Rev. H. H. Baker, who became notorious at the outbreak of the Spanish War by insulting the flag in the course of a sermon preached by him in the Methodist Church at Chino.

It appears that Baker, who was a practicing attorney here at the time of Mrs. Stokes's death, was granted letters of administration on the estate. He has, so it is averred, never made an accounting to the heirs, of whom there are four besides Miss Edna Stokes of Salinas.

COLTON YOUTH VIOLENT.

Frank Thurston, a well-known Colton youth, was committed to the asylum at Patton this afternoon, having gone violently insane. Thurston was an inmate of the asylum four years ago, his mind having given way under heavy financial loss sustained by failure of crops in Orange county. Three days ago insanity symptoms returned. This morning while being taken before the lunacy board he snapped the heavy straps which bound him and gave the officers a terrific fight before being remuffled.

CONTRACTORS SUE COUNTY.

Suit was filed this afternoon against the county by Stevenson Bros., contractors, to recover $412, the amount of the certified check they submitted with their bid for the County Jail contract. They were the lowest bidders, and were awarded the contract. They defaulted, claiming that the sub-contractor wouldn't do certain work for the price he had figured. The Board of Supervisors then let the contract to another bidder and declared Stevenson Bros.' bid forfeited.

COACHELLA.

PLANTING LATE MELONS.

COACHELLA, April 19.—Ranchmen here are planting out late melons for the market, to take the place of the Arizona crop in the vicinity of Tempe, which was all washed out.

Efforts are being made by Los Angeles well men to sink a well deep enough to reach the heavy supply of water. It is fifteen feet to surface water here, when a sixteen foot stratum of quicksand is reached. Below this lies the good water. The men now at work have gone down through the hard soil to the surface water and are in readiness to drive through the quicksand, through which no one has yet been able to pass. Their idea is to get the pump down as low as possible. The operation is observed with much interest by the residents and a number of wagers are offered as to the success of the work.

In spite of many delays in getting the boilers, engine, compressor, ice tanks, etc., for the new ice plant, the building is going up rapidly and is expected to be finished by May 10.

The Coachella Artesian Water Company has been laying mains to connect lands of the renting farmers on section 5 with the water plant and supplying them with irrigating water.

Nearly twelve inches of rain has fallen this season in Coachella where it "never rains."

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE "LINERS."

10 O'clock Saturday Nights.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier, especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential in order to get the paper out on time to stop receiving real estate ads. at 10 o'clock Saturday nights.

Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturdays.

Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by 'phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

MILLION AT JAG'S END.

Young Lawson, Vagrant, Leaves Redlands to Get Big Inheritance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDLANDS, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward J. Lawson, son of the late Millionaire Lawson of New York, one time lawyer and clubman, later hobo and common drunkard, left here this afternoon in response to a telegram telling of his father's death, by which he, with three other brothers, comes into an inheritance of $1,500,000.

Several years ago Lawson received $30,000 at the death of his mother. It is said he spent the whole in less than a week in Paris.

For some time he worked intermittently for the San Gabriel Electric Company at the powerhouse in Santa Ana Cañon, and between times was "run in" by the police as a vagrant.

First-class passage, with a considerable sum of money, has been waiting at the Southern Pacific station for him for two weeks, while he endeavored to straighten up.

In the last stages of a glorious jag, ragged and dirty, he appeared at the ticket office this afternoon, was identified by a policeman, given his ticket and money and started for New York.

DOCTORS HAPPY IN RIVERSIDE.

TURNED LOOSE IN ORANGE GROVE THEY FORAGE.

Visiting Physicians are Chugchugged Over Town and Entertained at Sherman Indian School and at Polo Game—Convention of the W.C.T.U.

RIVERSIDE, April 19.—Probably never in the history of State Medical Society has one of its meetings been so much in the nature of a social event as the twenty-fifth session, now in progress here. Citizens of Riverside are showing the visiting physicians every possible courtesy and the local medicos are constantly at work providing new forms of diversion for the visitors.

Following the tea given the visiting ladies last night and the smoker at the Victoria Club for the doctors, an automobile ride was enjoyed this afternoon. Practically every auto in the city was in requisition by the local committee for the use of the visitors and the greatest vavalcade of chugwagons ever seen in the city resulted.

A stop was made at one of the groves of the Riverside Trust Company, where Superintendent James Mills acted as host and invited the 169 doctors to go foraging. At Sherman Institute, an opportunity was given to inspect the Indian school buildings. A polo game was played at Chemawa Park, for their entertainment. The Reds won by a score of 5 to 1. Robert Lee Buttner umpired the game.

Tea was served by Mrs. Dr. Robertson, Mrs. Dr. Baird, Mrs. R. D. Osburn, Mrs. M. E. Flowers and Miss Adams.

This evening the doctors were serenaded at the hotel by the Sherman Institute band, and tomorrow morning their wives will be taken for a drive over the city by the wives of local physicians. A grand banquet will close the meeting tomorrow night.

ORANGE COUNTY 'COTS FEW.

FRUIT MEN LOOK FOR A HEAVY SHORTAGE THIS YEAR.

Primary Cause Thought to be a Reaction After Phenomenal Yield of Last Year—Heavy Rains, When the Trees Were in Bloom, Worked Damage by Destroying Blossoms.

SANTA ANA, April 19.—Fruit men are anticipating a big shortage in the crop of apricots for this year. Reports from all over the country are to the effect that the crop is light and in some sections it will be almost nothing. The primary cause of the shortage is thought to be the reaction after the record-breaking crop of last year, when the yield was the largest for a decade.

The early heavy rains, coming at a time when the trees were in bloom, worked heavy damage by destroying blossoms, thus cutting down the already small crop.

At El Toro, which has the reputation of producing the best 'cots in Southern California, the yield will be only a fraction of last year's. Similar conditions prevail with the peach crop.

ORANGE COUNTY BRIEFS.

IN THE EARTH.

RARE MINERALS, MINES AND METALLURGY.

POPULAR QUERIES AND EXPERT ANSWERS.

[Answers to legitimate questions in mineralogy, metallurgy, chemistry or mining will be given here, but only when of interest to the mining or commercial world. Personal questions, from curio dealers and mineral collectors, on ores, minerals, earths or metals of non-commercial value, and assays for metal, will not be answered, but should be referred direct to analysts and assayers. Address The Times.]

Several correspondents having been promised a paper on tungsten, and the issues of The Times containing references thereto being exhausted, it is the modest wish of the writer that the following lines, founded on practical experience, may be of interest:

Works designed to teach chemistry, metallurgy and mineralogy are many, but most of them take for granted the possession of expensive apparatus, a laboratory, and practical knowledge of the subjects named. Scarcely any are designed whereby the average reader can understand the technical phrases of problems stated, or formulas set forth.

It requires but little money to obtain the necessary outfit for the laboratory determinations and experiments following:

TUNGSTEN (WOLFRAM.)

Atomic weight (oxygen—16,) 181. Two atoms in the molecule. Discovered by De Luyart in 1786. High-grade ores of tungsten carry from 60 to 70 per cent. of the trioxide (tungstic acid.) The metal tungsten is obtained as a metallic powder, brilliant gray in color. Hardness 7. Not oxidized at normal temperatures. "At red heat it burns in the air to the trioxide." In 1781 the Swedish chemist, Scheele, proved that the mineral called wolframite contained a new mineral acid. Besides the metal, tungstic acid, ferro-tungsten, sodium tungstate, aluminum tungsten (partinium,) also known as "wolfram-aluminum," are the chief products known in commerce.

ORES OF TUNGSTEN.

Wolframite is of a blackish-gray or black color. Streag. brown-black. Hardness, 5 to 5.7. Brittle. In luster, resinous, adamantine or sub-metallic. Monoclinic in crystallization, and "is often found in terminated crystals. . . with a perfect cleavage parallel to the pinacoid face." In structure, massive, rarely reniform. Its chemical composition is tungstate of iron and manganese. Density, 7.1 to 7.6. B.B., fuses easily to a button, which button is generally, magnetic and possesses a crystalline surface.

HUBNERITE.

Hubnerite resembles wolframite, "but usually occurs in bladed forms with rarely terminated crystals," and in color either a red-brown to a very dark brown. In other physical appearances and chemical reactions, it is that of wolframite, excepting this, its formula being a tungstate of manganese and B.B., harder to fuse.

SCHEELITE.

Scheelite (scheelspath) "is a very heavy white to yellowish-white mineral, with an adamantine to vitreous luster." Density 5.5 to 6.2. Hardness, 4.4 to 5. Easily scratched with a knife blade. Some specimens are also brown, yellow and gray, in color. Crystallization, tetragonal. Habit, "pyramidal, seldom tabular, often lenticular." Structure, massive or interspersed. Formula, calcium tungstate (popularly known as tungstate of lime,) B.B., fusible with difficulty to a semi-transparent glass. It is decomposed by hydrochloric or nitric acid, leaving a yellow residue, which residue is soluble in ammonia. As cabinet specimens other minerals containing tungsten are sparingly found, in part, as follows: Cuprotungstite (copper tungstate,) "which passes into a tungstate of copper and calcium. It is a highly vitreous mineral of a pistachio-green color, and occurs in crusts." Scheelbleierz (stolzite) posseses a resinous luster, gray, or brown, in color. Hardness, a little over 3. Sectile. In tetragonal crystals. Habit, "pyramidal, cuboid, or short tabular." Formula, lead tungstate. Density, 8. B.B., decrepitates (nitrate-like,) but fuses to a button of lustrous and pearly metallic color.

Tungstite, "tungstic ocher," of the miners (tungsten trioxide, native,) is an earthly mineral, canary yellow to greenish-yellow in color, "which occasionally occurs with wolframite at various localities. Meymacite is a hydrated tungsten oxide formed from the alteration of scheelite. Wolframite is usually found in metallic veins, carrying the sulphides pyrite, galena, sphalerite, etc.; it is often associated with tin ores. It frequently accompanies scheelite in the crystalline rocks, and is imbedded in quartz. It is widely distributed in nature, but it is only to be found in large quantities at a few localities. The occurrences of hubnerite are very similar to those just mentioned. Scheelite, on the other hand, is more commonly found associated with the crystalline rocks and embedded in quartz. It is in occurrences of this type that it is found in large quantities. In the metallic veins it is found in but very small quantity as an associate of wolframite and hubnerite."

It is well to note that the tungsten minerals are but slightly magnetic, hence it is a good plan to carry a small compass (or horseshoe magnet) either of which will be found useful. When a suspected ore or mineral (magnetic for instance) is to be tested (field test) break up a little of the ore. If in great part it is taken up by the magnet, or if a chunk of the ore be brought near a compass and it revolves to and fro, the sample will not be Wolfamite or hubnerite. To obtain the metal, it requires an electric or gas furnace, in which tungstic acid (the trioxide) mixed with charcoal is smelted, further consideration of the metal may, therefore, be omitted. The trioxide is manufactured from sodium tungstite made as follows: Take 100 pounds of concentrated wolframite, add thereto 500 pounds of sodium carbonate. Give the mixture a good, clean, sweet roast, in a furnace, until it is in form of sinter. Draw the mass, break it up, and while still comparatively hot throw the pieces into an iron tank one-fourth filled with water and allow the mixture to lixiviate for ten hours, stirring occasionally. Let the solution settle for two hours, siphon it off carefully and evaporate. More of the tungstate may remain behind; if so add water, lixivate and evaporate a second time. When the evaporation in either case has been carried to a point where two-thirds of the volume is driven off and while warm, add as reagent, hydrochloric acid. This separates the trioxide (tungstic acid) a yellow powder which is filtered and washed. On a small scale with an assay furnace like results will follow.

OCCURRENCE.

Colorado, Arizona and Nevada are the three principal localities where ores of tungsten are mined, sorted and shipped. Concentrates, from the old Nederland mill, Boulder county, Colo., are actively sought for, and bring now in the open market for a 37 to 45 per cent. ferro-tungsten, with gold and silver values, $900 per ton of 2000 pounds. A few miles north of Dragoon, Cochise county, Ariz., fine bodies of hubnerite are being mined by the Primos Chemical Company. Mr. Boercke, of the firm, being on the ground. Near by are other deposits, some of which can be leased and bonded. Hubnerite is also found among the ores of San Juan county, Colo. Scheelite is also obtained there. The Marriott mines, near Osceola, Nev., are being irregularly worked and shipments made. The last-named mines are situate about 100 miles from Frisco, a station on the Clark road, and about fifteen miles west of Milford, Utah. Scheelite is said to be in quantity near Baker City, Or. Large bodies of quartz carrying 2 to 3 per cent. of wolframite can be obtained near Murray, Idaho. Mr. Marion F. Fox has deposits of wolframite near Marriott's, Osceola, Nev., and also near Patterson's Peak, in same State. Some little high-grade wolframite can be found about sixty miles south of Kingman, Ariz. Other localities are reported, but only those visited, as stated by the writer, are herein alluded to.

TESTS FOR TUNGSTEN.

"Mineral Resources, 1902" contains a valuable paper on tungsten, by Joseph Hyde Pratt. The quoted matter above set forth and the following test is taken therefrom:

"It may be of value to give here a method for testing minerals for the presence of tungsten, and the following, which is that described by Prof. Penfield, will be found to give satisfaction: "If the mineral is decomposed by boiling with hydrochloric acid, an insoluble canary-yellow tungstic oxide is obtained. If a little granulated tin is added to the solution and the boiling continued, a blue color is obtained, which finally changes to brown on further boiling." (Note: The canary-yellow tungstic oxide is soluble in ammonia.) "If the tungstate is insoluble or difficultly soluble in hydrochloric acid as the mineral wolframite, mix the fine powdered mineral with six times its volume of sodium carbonate; make this into a paste with water and fuse. Pulverize the fusion and dissolve it in a test tube with a little water, the sodium tungstate formed during the fusion being soluble in water. Acidify the filtrate with hydrochloric acid, and upon boiling with tin the blue reduction test may be obtained." We conclude with reference to page 23, "Mineral Resources of the United States, 1902," that is to say: "Tungsten—The commercial production of concentrated tungsten ores during 1903 amounted to 292 short tons, valued at $43,639, as against 184 short tons in 1902, of which not more than a few tons were sold. In 1901 the production amounted to 179 tons of concentrated ore, valued at $27,720. The larger part of the production of 1902 was from Colorado."

I Treat By Direct Methods

Thus Doing Away With Guesswork

I Cure Every Case

Thoroughly and Completely

In functional derangement of the reproductive system my treatment restores perfect physiological conditions and health throughout the organic system.

FUNCTIONAL WEAKNESS

When I treat these cases I will see and know the exact condition and will know how to accomplish the desired results. My facilities are the best and especially adapted to the requirements. This condition is referable to many causes — excesses and diseases which tend to weaken the reproductive system, which in turn lowers the standard of vitality. I am getting the most satisfactory results every day.

VARICOCELE

I make definite claims for my cure of varicocele which invariably is from 4 to 6 days. I can introduce you to any number of cured patients, which is convincing of the claims I make over all other treatment not so well founded.

STRICTURE

No operation is necessary to effect a cure. Many men complain of operations which should be avoided to prevent future trouble or conditions which require periodical treatment. I remove the exact cause responsible for the trouble and the cure is permanent.

CONTRACTED DISEASES

Immediate results follow my treatment. I cure every case by getting at the exact cause. The treatment destroys every germ and all poison is driven from the system. I accomplish more in one week than can ever be accomplished by any other known treatment.

"My Poor Back"

A man came to me some time ago and complained of a pain in his back, nothing much, only it bothered him at times. He would do nothing for it then, but if it got worse would come in agian. The next day he fell down in the street, paralyzed from his hips down.

Look out for that pain in your back. It comes and goes, and you don't mind it, but with each return you know it is worse, and you feel other symptoms with it. You have a weak feeling about the kidneys, you are tired in the morning and don't feel like going to work. In the afternoon you feel stupid and lack the energy to hustle; you go to bed tired and don't sleep well. You have not the courage and "go ahead" disposition that you used to have, and sometimes feel as if you were getting old in vigor. You are, my friend. You are losing your youth and vitality, and this thing will soon make you old before your time. You ought to do something right now, because life is sweet only when you can enjoy its sweetness, and you are too young to feel this way. Keep your youth while you can, as you will never see yesterday again, and you don't want to spend your future in regrets.

You have not used yourself right. There have been times when you have forgotten the laws of nature, and these signs which you feel now are reminders that nature always plays even. You will have to give her back the strength which you wasted, or she will leave you like a tree without sap. Now, there's a way to replenish the power which nature calls for. I have it. It is Electricity. Professor Loeb, the scientist, says that Electricity is the basis of human vitality. That's the best argument I have, except in my cures.

Mr. John Soares, Point Reyes, Cal., wrote me: "I feel it my duty to let you know that after wearing your Belt only a few weeks I am entirely cured of weakness and lame back."

It pours the electricity into your body while you sleep, and sends it right to the weak spot. That puts steam into all your organs and you get back that wasted power.

When you can get cured so easily, are you going to let yourself go down hill any longer? Don't do it. You owe it to yourself and those who love you to make yourself a man in every respect.

Now, don't drug. Drugs stimulate, just like whisky; but you want real strength, and you know drugs don't give it and Electricity does; it makes machinery go, and it will make you go.

G. W. Beers, Long Beach, Cal., says: "The Belt cured my back, which was so lame that I could not bend over without intense pain. I would not take $1000 for it."

Tell me where you live and I will give you the names of people near you whom I have cured. I have a cure in every town.

Don't put it off. Make yourself feel young and energetic and strong as you used to. Come and see me, or else write for my book about the treatment, mailed, sealed, free, if you send this ad.

YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED

What better proof or more positive assurance can I offer than that I am willing to wait for my fee until I effect a cure? Could I afford to make such an offer if I was not absolutely certain of curing every case I treat. In my seventeen years' practice as a specialist for men I have never failed to restore perfect health. Such invariable success justifies me to the title of the leading specialist.

MEN

We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble
Dr. Harrison & Co. are phenomenally successful in these troubles; every one that comes to them is carefully examined and the true cause found for existing conditions. It is then easy for us to treat the cause understandingly; not as cases are usually understood; not all men know how to treat them. Our experience for years has taught us just how to cure the very worst of these troubles. Our success in curing demonstrates the positive proof of our ability.

Contracted Disorders
Are cured by us. Every particle of poison thoroughly eradicated from the system. Every patient coming to us consults not only Dr. Harrison or his associate, but two regular physicians. Each and every one coming to us for consultation has his case carefully and understandingly looked into. Every case we treat receives our personal attention.

Stricture
This trouble we treat successfully by an improved method, which never fails to bring about a cure. Electricity or dilating cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

"Weakness"
Affections of men commonly classed as "weakness," according to our observation are not such, but depend upon some drain caused or maintained by aggravation of or age to the prostate gland. As this gland is not to be perceived by the patient it is very frequently overlooked by the patient.

If you come to us we give you a thorough examination and consultation free, and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.

OUR MEDICAL JOURNAL FREE
Downstairs at our entrance, 230½ S. Broadway, you can help yourself to our medical journal; an extensive exposition of our special work is given. It will tell information which we cannot put in our advertisement. If you live out of the city, write for one.

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

NEW MAYOR COMES HOME.

POLITICIANS OF PASADENA ARE KEPT GUESSING.

City's Head-to-be Proceeds at Once to His House Where He Talks Some About Town Government, but Does Not Say Much—Farewell Greeting to Col. Hogan.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. N South Raymond avenue, April 20.—Mayor-elect William Waterhouse, who is most prominently in the public eye of any of the men in town, returned yesterday evening from an outing trip. Though he arrived some fifteen hours ahead of his expectations, there was a large gathering of his political and church friends when the Overland rolled in at the Santa Fé depot. The Mayor-elect greeted all cordially, but declined all invitations for the evening, which he spent quietly in the bosom of his large family at his pretty home at Lake avenue and Villa street.

"I really haven't a thing to say," he declared last night. "I have been through Iowa and at Chicago during my absence and will at once settle down to business. Sorry I had to go away at this time."

When reminded that the public curiosity was great as to who would preside over the different appointive offices in the City Hall, the Mayor-elect chuckled and said: "Really I haven't had time to think about that. I shall of course call upon the city officials and talk things over and take a bird's-eye look over the field."

Capt. Waterhouse intimated that he will not make any changes at the City Hall until some time after he has taken office and has had a chance to thoroughly acquaint himself with the municipal routine. This surmise is corroborated by Robert S. Allen, who managed Capt. Waterhouse's campaign. Mr. Allen has not met the Mayor-elect since his return, but expects to do so today or tomorrow.

The knowing ones who are always making guesses still cling to the opinion that there will be a clean sweep by the Waterhouse crowd at the City Hall. No one generally mentioned is about as follows:

For City Attorney, H. H. Klamroth; Chief of Police, W. C. Austin or W. W. Brown; Superintendent of Streets, M. Wright or John Beyers; Auditor, John F. Kernaghan.

The name for the office of Superintendent of Streets has bobbed up only lately. He is the County Road Overseer in the Altadena district.

COL. HOGAN DEPARTS.

W. J. Hogan, who has spent the year at the Maryland, left last night for his home, Louisville, Ky. In the evening he was given an informal social reception by a number of his friends, principally those associated with him in the conduct of the recent horse show, to whose success the energy and aid of Hogan was largely due. The Horse Show Association presented him with a gold stick pin with a horse's head design. A presentation speech was made by President C. D. Daggett, president of the Tournament of Roses association.

PHOTOGRAPHERS IN COURT.

When Eugene Kohler, a local photographer, bought out his rival, L. Verge Thompson, he got an invoice of the latter's stock and ever since then he says he has been annoyed to find that there were a lot of negatives on hand that didn't show up in the studio when Mr. Kohler therefore brought suit against Thompson and yesterday obtained a decision in his favor from Justice Austin, who took the case under advisement. The court orders Thompson to return about a score of photographs of the old Missions that were taken nearly twenty years ago and are very valuable as they could not be obtained at the present day.

VERMONTERS ORGANIZE.

The Vermont Society of Southern California was organized last night in the board of Trade rooms. Maj. S. B. Brown of Los Angeles gave a short address speaking of his boyhood days in the maple sugar State. After reports of officers had been heard the following were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. Charles L. Lawrence of Pasadena; first vice-president, Hon. E. B. Abbott of Los Angeles; other vice-presidents, A. P. Harwood of Ontario, L. J. Wells of Redondo, George Stone of Pomona and Mrs. W. D. Hunter of Pasadena; secretary, D. G. Hunter; treasurer, L. M. Collier of Pasadena; finance committee, J. A. Gaskell, F. E. Rowe and C. S. Niles.

CAUGHT IN PASSING.

The North Pasadena Improvement Association will meet tonight to consider the proposition of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Los Angeles for the establishment of a branch in the new building being erected by Rowe and Fletcher at the southwest corner of Fair Oaks avenue and Pepper street. The F. and M. asks North Pasadena to subscribe half of a capital stock of $50,000 to start the bank.

An independent boycott has been declared against Wheldon and Ransom because they refused to employ a union card. They claim that the boycott is a good thing for them as it results only in no account customers.

Mrs. Emily Pennypacker Reid died yesterday at the Pasadena Hospital. She was the mother of Mrs. Edward E. Kellogg, Mrs. William C. Truman, Mrs. William L. Clack and William Pennypacker Reid.

A meeting has been set for Saturday when the Tournament of Roses directors will elect a president, secretary and treasurer. President Daggett has declined to take the office again, but his colleagues hope to induce him to change his mind.

The Socialist candidates in the recent city election have failed to file their election expense accounts with the city clerk. The Socialists claim that the County Clerk's office is the proper place for filing.

CATALINA ISLAND.

SEA GEM RIPPLES.

AVALON, April 19.—Nearly 200 people came over from the mainland on today's steamer and a number of them have engaged accommodations for an extended stay. Among those arriving from Colorado Springs today were J. Arthur Connell and wife, Dr. J. A. Patterson and wife, Benjamin C. Allen, wife and maid, Curtis D. Allen and Wharton Allen.

A wireless telegram was received from J. Jay Nestell today stating he will be here tomorrow after a four months absence. With him will come his daughter and grandson and Miss Mollie I. Holland. The latter has just returned from an extended European trip.

An arrival yesterday was Mrs. John W. Northrop of Chicago, who came to join her husband who is convalescing after a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKane, Mrs. Edward Barnes and Miss G. Bigley left yesterday after several weeks stay on the island. The party will be much missed by the boatmen to whom it has been a veritable bonanza in the way of golden tips.

COUNTY W. C. T. U. OF LEGAL AGE.

GATHERING OF TEMPERANCE WOMEN IN POMONA.

Twenty-first Annual Convention is Largely Attended—Los Angeles Delegation Goes by Special Chartered Car—Forty-two Unions and Two Thousand Members.

POMONA, April 19.—The twenty-first annual convention of the Los Angeles county W.C.T.U. opened here this morning at the Methodist Episcopal Church. The convention is largely attended. The Los Angeles delegation came in its own chartered car.

Most of the day's sessions were given up to reports, financial and otherwise, which show the county organization to be in good condition, with forty-two unions and about two thousand members.

Among the papers were concerning "Health and Heredity," by Dr. Harriet W. Carmon. "Non-Alcoholic Medication," Dr. Mary Lightner, and the ones on "Scientific Temperance," by Mrs. Mary C. Coman and "Temperance and Labor," by Mary E. Garbutt.

This evening greetings were given to the delegates by Niel Campbell, the newly-elected Mayor of Pomona, the president of the Board of Education, the various ministers of the city and by representatives of various other organizations of the town. The address of the evening was by the president, Miss G. T. Stickney.

Great interest is manifested in the arrival tomorrow of Mrs. Lillian Stevens, the national president, and Miss Anna A. Gordon, national vice-president. These women will address the students at Claremont at the chapel hour on Thursday and take prominent parts in the Thursday evening session of the county convention.

The convention will close on Friday evening.

LONG BEACH.

WIFE BEATER HELD.

LONG BEACH, April 19.—The preliminary trial of M. J. Brownell held before Justice Brayton this morning resulted in Brownell being held to the Superior Court in $1500 bonds. Brownell is charged with assault with a deadly weapon and from the evidence presented it was brutal and unprovoked, the victim being his wife, a hard-working woman who supported him while he spent his own scanty earnings and some of his wife's in drink. On April 4 he demanded $200 threatening to kill her otherwise. While the terrified woman was dressing to go down town, Brownell seized her by the throat and struck her a crushing blow with a heavy revolver, then followed his victim to the yard, and was stamping her when pulled off by neighbors.

Mrs. Brownell was in court, with her head in bandages and evidently a sick woman. Brownell offered no witnesses and argument was waived.

SEASHORE BRIEFS.

At a meeting of the Seventh street Improvement society last night in Alamitos, it was reported that 9000 feet of frontage had been deeded by owners to the county for road purposes. The society will plant 1500 black acacia trees along both sides of the street.

The Long Beach bath-house company this morning began putting in 200 additional bath rooms. They will be placed in the basement at the west end of the building. The addition will give the house 700 rooms.

The big power launch America which went ashore down the beach during the big storm in March was successfully floated yesterday by McGarvin Brothers, her owners, and is riding at her moorings in Alamitos bay.

At a meeting yesterday of citizens interested in the big new hotel on the bluff project W. W. Lowe, S. Townsend, F. A. Crowe, J. V. Bartow, C. J. Walker, Mrs. Adelaide Tichenor, Mrs. Jennie Reeve and Mrs. C. F. A. Johnson were appointed a committee to solicit stock and bond subscriptions. It is expected that Long Beach citizens will subscribe $100,000.

SANTA MONICA.

TWIN-CITY GAS MUDDLE.

SANTA MONICA, April 19.—The gas situation on the beach is still in a muddle. Santa Monica has sold a franchise to the local company, just organized, while Ocean Park has sold to an ostensible representative of the Edison Company. Ocean Park has, however, promised the local company that another franchise will be offered for sale. As this takes at least a month, it is clearly seen that even should the home company obtain permission to lay mains, the factory cannot be erected and in operation by July 1. This is the date named in the seven or eight hundred contracts secured upon which the company would furnish gas. Neither company has turned a shovel of dirt or received any shipments of pipe or machinery.

CLAREMONT.

AUTO LINE TO POMONA.

CLAREMONT, April 19.—After several years of attempts of the citizens of Claremont and Pomona to establish some method of rapid transit, an auto line is about to be installed. F. W. Wehn of Pomona will operate it. Two round-trips are to be made in the morning and three in the afternoon.

Miss Margaret F. Bryant of Sebastopol, Cal., won the first prize of the preparatory declamation contest and Miss Miriam Colcord second.

SELLS ADOBE OF PIO PICO.

HISTORIC OLD PLACE BOUGHT NEAR WHITTIER.

Trolley Station Agent Unexpectedly Hears That He is Heir to Large Estate Left by His Uncle in San Diego—Walnut Growers' Association Acquires More Room.

WHITTIER, April 19.—The adobe building known as the old home of Pio Pico, and the surrounding twenty-two acres has just changed ownership, M. Moss, who has owned it for several years, selling the property to J. S. Adams of Whittier and H. G. Adams of Los Angeles. The consideration named is $15,000. The land is set to full-bearing walnut trees, and there is in addition, water-bearing land of value, the water for the city of Whittier coming from the wells situated on this property.

T. D. Heyl, station agent for the Pacific Electric at this place, received news this week that he was sole heir to the estate of his uncle, the late Alexander Heyl of San Diego, whose property was large. Among other assets is an item of $15,000 in cash. The news came as a complete surprise to Mr. Heyl.

Mrs. Wardman, wife of Manager Gus Wardman of the Home Telephone Company, died this morning.

The stockholders of the Los Nietos and Rancho Walnut Growers' Association held a meeting yesterday, and decided to purchase the large warehouse at Los Nietos owned by the Santa Fé.

PALMS.

NEW POULTRY PLANT.

PALMS, April 19.—Stephen A. Stearns has sold twenty-eight acres near this place to Mr. Burbridge, the poultry man. Mr. Burbridge contemplates subdividing his new tract and installing thereon an incubator and brooder establishment.

Ralph Kneeland, the eleven-year-old son of Mrs. Emma Kneeland, is lying at the point of death with cerebro meningitis.

T. F. Bryant has moved the postoffice into the Blair building.

F. W. Jaeger has sold his residence property to R. H. Edwards and will move back to Los Angeles, where he expects to go into business.

COVINA.

OFFICIAL GROVE INSPECTION.

COVINA, April 19.—F. S. A. Maude, general eastern agent of the Southern California Fruit Exchange, is on a tour of inspection of the Covina orange groves. Last evening he was entertained at dinner by representatives of the various fruit associations of this place at Hotel Vendome.

Maj. J. A. Donnell, Deputy District Attorney, who is a personal friend of Prof. A. L. Hamilton, principal of the public schools, visited the High School today and addressed the pupils in the Assembly Hall.

SAN PEDRO.

SEWER CONTRACT LET.

SAN PEDRO, April 19.—The contract for the outfall sewer has been let to Ramish & Marsh of Los Angeles. The price is $18,000. The work is to embrace the entire southern section of the city. The sewer is to extend 1600 feet into the waters of the outer harbor.

ALHAMBRA.

HOTEL LIQUOR ELECTION.

ALHAMBRA, April 19.—The City Trustees have granted the request of certain petitioners, comprising over 25 per cent. of the voting population, for a special election to determine whether or not the proprietors of the Alhambra Hotel shall be permitted to serve liquor with meals.

HOLLYWOOD.

LUMBER YARD PROTEST.

HOLLYWOOD, April 19.—A petition asking a certain lumber company which purposes to establish a yard on Prospect boulevard not to do so was numerously signed by citizens here today. A protesting delegation with Andrew Groh as spokesman appeared before the City Trustees tonight. They asked the board to condemn the property for a library and park. The Trustees are willing to execute the orders of the people. A mass meeting will be called to learn their wishes.

MONROVIA.

THREE BOND ISSUES CARRY.

MONROVIA, April 19.—After giving something over a two-thirds vote in favor of buying a $2000 site for the Carnegie library, and the necessary vote to issue $2000 bonds for fire apparatus and $5000 for piping the city water system, Monrovia citizens voted down the remainder of the proposed $63,000 bond issue today. This is shown by the election returns. There were 261 votes cast and twenty defective ballots were thrown out.

Coquelin Was Admitted.

One of the most famous of the Quartier Latin clubs in Paris is the one which is called "The Sub Rosa," and the most famous of its members is the great actor, Coquelin, pere, but the story of his election has not yet been told in print.

He was present one night at the club's late supper, a weekly feast, and, having heard that there was a vacancy in the roll, applied for membership. Now, the only rules of "Sub Rosa" men are: "Think much. Write little. Be as silent as you can." The presiding officer, with this last rule in mind, answered the applicant by placing before him a tumbler filled so full of water that another drop would have caused it to run over. Coquelin understood. He had evidently been misinformed about a vacancy; the club membership was obviously full.

Over the table was suspended a rose, the club emblem. While the glass still stood before him, Coquelin broke a petal from the flower and laid it so gently on the water that not a single drop escaped. A silent man could join and make no trouble.

Around the table ran a ripple of smiles and little handclasps and nods of approval, and then, as if of one accord, all began making bread balls. Then the cup was passed from hand to hand, and each deposited his "ballot" in it—and all were found to be round; not one had been pressed flat in sign of disapproval. So Coquelin joined the "Sub Rosa" Club.—[Success.

The Diamond Tree.

"I haven't a diamond tree," said the jeweler. "Smith, over the way there, has one, though. At least, so I've been told."

"What is a diamond tree?"

"It is a tree where diamonds grow, of course,"

"No. Seriously. What is it?"

The jeweler smiled.

"Well," he said, "a diamond tree is a swindle, a very profitable swindle, and one that can be carried on forever with mighty little risk of detection. I'll explain it to you.

"I am a jeweler and you bring me a diamond ring for repairs. I take the diamond out of youh ring and put back in its place a similar diamond that is a little, a very little, smaller. You, naturally, don't discover the trick that has been played on you.

"The same day a brooch is brought to me and since the central stone of the brooch is a little larger than your diamond out of your ring and put the bigger gem. In this way, four or five times in one day, I make diamond exchanges, keeping always a better stone than I part with.

"On good diamond trees, diamonds as small as pin heads have been known to grow to the size of peas in two days. A good tree, too, won't have only one diamond growing on it at a time. A dozen stones or more will be simultaneously increasing in size and value as the days pass."—[Chicago Chronicle.

Not True to Nature.

Mark Twain was visiting H. H. Rogers, who led the humorist into his library. "There," he said, as he pointed to a bust of white marble, "what do you think of that?" It was a bust of a young woman coiling her hair, a very graceful example of modern Italian sculpture. Mr. Clemens looked at it a moment and then he said, "It isn't true to nature." "Why not?" Mr. Rogers asked. "She ought to have her mouth full of hairpins," said the humorist.—[Boston Herald.

Thousands of Women
ARE MADE WELL AND STRONG

Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Rests Upon the Fact that It Really Does Make Sick Women Well

Thousands upon thousands of American women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office, and prove this statement to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished its widespread results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a century?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine in the world so good for women's ills.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the uterine system, positively CURING disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience that it will effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration, or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Anyway, write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It's free and always helpful.

Transactions on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday were confined almost entirely to Associated Oil, but the stock seems to have become weak and irregular in value, 8000 shares selling at 22¾ to 22½, closing at 22½@22¾. The manipulators would seem to be once more active, hammering the market for all it will stand with a view to future recovery when they will be in a position to unload at the advanced quotations.

The oil list was less active yesterday than it has been for some time; but Union continues in the focus, gaining another point, while United Petroleum declined a point.

Commercial National Bank lost fractionally, closing at 101@102½; but Southwestern National recovered, touching 110½ in the buyer's terms.

Associated Oil bonds improved ½ in value, closing at 91½, but there were no offerings. Home Telephone were in a rising market, closing strong at 92@93; and Pacific Electrics advanced to 111.

Home Telephone stock made an upward movement, 100 shares changing hands at 53, the highest point ever reached by this security, closing stronger at 53¼.

It is the belief of the Edison Co., as intimated by the officials, that the net earnings of the current year will exceed by $140,000 those of last year, due, largely, to the tremendous increase of water power. The company will also receive the benefit of the several new steam and water-power installations completed in the latter part of 1904. These plants include the large steam power-house in this city, the water power at Lytle Creek and Mill Creek, near Redlands and San Bernardino, respectively, besides other small installations.

THE MONEY MARKET. Money is plentiful and in active demand, with no change in the rates.

Time money, 60 to 90 days, 6 per cent.; four to six months, 7 per cent.

Commercial money, 60 to 90 days, indorsed bills, 6 per cent.; four to six months, single names, 7 per cent.

WELLS, FARGO-NEVADA. Arrangements have been completed for the consolidation of the Nevada National Bank of San Francisco and Wells, Fargo & Co. Bank, San Francisco. Beginning April 24, business will be conducted under the title of Wells, Fargo-Nevada National Bank of San Francisco, with a paid-up capital of $6,000,000; surplus, $3,000,000.

COMMERCIAL.

"IT WAS ALL RIGHT." "The report which appeared in this morning's Times on the price of eggs and the egg committee was all right. It stated the case exactly. I don't attend the meetings of the egg committee any more. I got tired of it."

This was said yesterday morning in the market by John T. Allen, of John T. Allen & Co., the big produce handlers. Mr. Allen could not be found Tuesday when the Times reporter was interviewing the dealers on the egg market.

ORANGE MARKET EAST. The general condition of the eastern orange market is strong all along the line. Prices that have prevailed for the past week or ten days are being fully maintained, with a prospect of no great variation in the near future. Shipments are not excessively heavy, the first seventeen days of April having averaged 172 cars of oranges daily, some twenty of which have gone into the northwestern territory, leaving a little over 150 cars a day for eastern markets.

The recent cold spell throughout the East, notably in Maryland, Mobile, and even in Northern Florida, has checked the advent of strawberries and early vegetables, leaving a clearer field for California oranges, which has a tendency to maintain or strengthen present prices. Reports from all auctions show a big demand at full average prices, and interior markets as well are taking an enormous quantity of fruit. The prospect is for an earlier clean-up in oranges than has occurred in any recent year, owing to the fact that navels have ripened earlier this season than commonly, and the crop of seedlings, sweets and Valencias, is below the average in quantity. There is a heavy movement in seedlings and sweets now, and every indication points to high prices for the later varieties of oranges that go forward from the first of May on.

Growers and shippers should move their fruit from now on conservatively and steadily, as in this manner only can the full benefit of the present strong position of the orange situation be maintained and advanced. Any heavy spurt in shipments might cause a temporary break in the markets.

WHEAT PROSPECTS. D. W. Clapp & Co. of the Chicago Board of Trade, in their circular say:

"Northwestern reports claim that two-thirds of the spring wheat is sown. Winter wheat is reported generally good, with conditions favorable. The California crop is reported perfect and may grow 32,000,000 bushels. Kansas is again claiming the biggest crop ever grown and able to feed the world.

"The government now claims our daily consumption of wheat exceeds 1,250,000 bushels, aside from seed. Broomhall says American consumption will be 575,000,000 to 600,000,000 bushels from July 1, 1905, to July 1, 1906, and Europe need not anticipate over 125,000,000 bushels from America the coming year, or one-fourth of her needs. Cables say Spain has reduced the duty on imports 50 per cent. on account of failure of their crop (duty was 22c per bushel.) India last season led the world in wheat exports. America was fourth in the list. We predict that India the coming season will take third place, Russia fall short, Australia be a third less, and Argentina have a poorer quality and a long-drawn-out season in marketing it. The United States has exported, July 1 to April 1, 33,659,000 bushels wheat and flour.

"Visible corn stocks everywhere are small. The Argentine surplus is less than one-half last year's, and not of the best quality; their weather is such corn cannot be moved quickly. Our market has only been kept down 5c to 8c under last year by the large movement and continuous hammering by the bears, or because somebody has bought more than some think they ought to.

"Country elevator holdings of oats are being rapidly reduced and farmers' offerings are small. The visible is decreasing. Navigation will soon open and may draw half the visible eastward. Bears may depress the price. We look for higher prices and favor buying old-crop futures."

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

Dried pomegranates, the first in the market, created quite an interest among the trade. A shipment came in from Camulos, the home of Ramona, for Marston & Martin, and sold at $2.50 a box containing 25. Quite a lively trading is looked for, as dried pomegranates are something new. Cherries were again in good request, and strawberries, chiefly from Tropico. The market generally was more active than on the previous day, and prices were well maintained, with comparatively few changes.

Fruit Produce Exchange reported receipts for April 18 as follows: Eggs, 474 cases; butter, 20,705 pounds; cheese, 3390 pounds; Irish potatoes, 29 sacks; sweet potatoes, none; onions, 4 sacks; beans, 470 sacks.

GAME—Light receipts of rabbits.

DAILY REPORT OF ORANGE MARKET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Improved weather quickened the demand for California oranges to supply retail requirements, but no changes of moment occurred in prices. The situation remains unchanged, though many experienced handlers believe a reaction in prices is coming. The market from store continues active, and prices held firm on sound fruit. All iced fruit arrives in good condition, and sells readily at full prices. Retailers did good business today, compared with previous days this week.

Thirty-three cars sold at auction today. Market is very strong. Weather is favorable.

NEW YORK MARKETS. SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—Speculative sentiment on the Stock Exchange turned again on technical market conditions rather than on intrinsic conditions of values and the news bearing on them. There was another flutter among speculative traders in stocks caused by the renewed slump in Northern Securities on the curb. That stock did not touch yesterday's low price, however, and its downward course was effectually checked and a substantial recovery effected with corresponding effect on the market for stocks within the Stock Exchange. Amalgamated Copper moved up in conjunction with the speculative rumors regarding tomorrow's dividend meeting. Reports of the receipt of very heavy orders strengthened American Locomotive. United States Steel preferred responded on the recovery to confidence in conditions in that trade. Reports that the stock tax bill was not to become a law of the State were made effective upon sentiment. The traders who fought the rally by selling stocks short were forced to cover at the last, and made the closing the strongest of the day. Bonds were irregular. Total sales (par value,) $3,410,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

STOCK EXCHANGE HOLIDAY.

CARNEGIE GLAD IT WASN'T DUKE.

STEEL MAGNATE'S NIECE MARRIES A RIDING MASTER.

Secret Wedding Which Occurred About a Year Ago Pleases Family, as Bridegroom is an Honest, Upright Young Man—Happy Couple Now in New England.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—It became known today that Andrew Carnegie's niece, Nancy, was secretly married about a year ago to a riding master named Heaver, whom she met at Newport. The story was confirmed by Carnegie.

"My niece was married to Mr. Heaver in New York about a year ago," he said. "Mr. Heaver was a riding teacher in the family. The family has no objection to the match. Mr. Heaver is an honest, upright man. I would rather Nancy had married a poor, honest man than a worthless duke. We want no rich men in the family."

Carnegie said that Mr. and Mrs. Heaver went to Europe immediately after their marriage. They returned a few days ago and are now on a visit to New England.

Thursday Morning Bargains

$15.00 Silk Lined Voile Skirts, at.... $9.95

Tuesday we told you of a sample line of suits bought from a traveling man representing a New York house, who finished his Coast trip in this city. In the same lot were fifty fine voile skirts, each of them made with silk drop, and that if bought in a regular way would sell at $15.00. These same skirts will be specially featured for four hours' selling Thursday morning, and we pledge you our word that either the skirt or the drop is worth the selling price that we ask for both garments. They are of an exceptionally fine quality black voile, and the drop skirt is of a good grade taffeta. The skirts are trimmed with narrow silk bands and self plaitings, are correct in shape and well tailored throughout. As there are only fifty of these voile skirts, we have added a few black silk walking skirts that were formerly priced at $15.00. If you do not make a purchase now, you will have a regret the balance of the season, for by no possibility could you procure the material at the price we ask for the completed garments.
